OPENING QUOTES

'If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for. "

Eyes of Faith

Jesus went about... teaching... preaching... and healing.

—Matthew 4:23

Scripture reading: Isaiah 58:8–12

One day, a young woman from a place called Ramsbottom came to be healed of an enlargement of her thyroid gland. Before she came she said, "I am going to be healed of this goiter, Mother." After one meeting she came forward and was prayed for. The next meeting she got up and testified that she had been wonderfully healed. She said, "I will be so happy to go and tell Mother about my healing."

She went to her home and testified to her wonderful healing. The next year when we were having the convention, she came again. From a human perspective, it looked as though the goiter was just as big as ever, but that young woman was believing God. Soon she was on her feet giving her testimony, saying, "I was here last year, and the Lord wonderfully healed me. I want to tell you that this has been the best year of my life." She seemed to be greatly blessed in that meeting, and she went home to testify more strongly than ever that the Lord had healed her.

She believed God. The third year, she was at the meeting again, and some people who looked at her said, "How big that goiter has become!" But when the time came for testimonies, she was on her feet and testified, "Two years ago, the Lord gloriously healed me of a goiter. I had a most wonderful healing. It is grand to be healed by the power of God." That day someone questioned her and said, "People will think there is something the matter with you. Why don't you look in the mirror? You will see that your goiter is bigger than ever." The young woman went to the Lord about it and said, "Lord, You so wonderfully healed me two years ago. Won't You show all the people that You healed me?" She went to sleep peacefully that night still believing God. When she came down the next day, there was not a trace or a mark of that goiter.

Thought for today: A faint heart can never have a gift. Two things are essential: first, love; second, determination—a boldness of faith that will cause God to fulfill His Word.

GREAT QUOTES from TOZER

"Trust God in the dark until the light returns." - AW Tozer

"I am convinced that many evangelicals are not truly and soundly converted. Among the evangelicals it is entirely possible to come into membership, to ooze in by osmosis, to leak through the cells of the church and never know what it means to be born of the Spirit and washed in the blood. A great deal that passes for the deeper life is nothing more or less than basic Christianity."
- AW Tozer

"Our most pressing obligation is to do all in our power to obtain a revival that will result in a reformed, revitalized, purified church."
- AW Tozer

"Though the cross of Christ has been beautified by the poet and the artist, the avid seeker after God is likely to find it the same savage implement of destruction it was in the days of old. The way of the cross is still the pain-wracked path to spiritual power and fruitfulness. So do not seek to hide from it. Do not accept an easy way. Do not allow yourself to be patted to sleep in a comfortable church, void of power and barren of fruit. Do not paint the cross nor deck it with flowers. Take it for what it is, as it is, and you will find it the rugged way to death and life. Let it slay you utterly." - AW Tozer

"The Holy Spirit did not come to make them of one accord, He came because they were of one accord. ... It is not the music that tunes your piano, it's the tuned piano that makes your music."
- AW Tozer

"Sin is a poisonous weed that throws the whole nature out of order. The inner life disintegrates; the flesh lusts after forbidden pleasures; the moral judgment is distorted so that often good appears evil and evil good; time is chosen over eternity, earth over heaven and death over life." - AW Tozer

PLAY - Apocalyptic Bullet Points w Weird Al George Carlin Foil Song (combined)

A CALL TO ARMS, A CALL TO ARMS

Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
A Call to Arms yes a Call to Arms
For years the Watchmen have warned of things yet far away
Now the alarm is sounding for that which is upon us today.

Destruction upon destruction for the whole land is spoiled
The people have become foolish and in evil are embroiled.
O my soul the sound of trumpet the alarm of war
What vials have been opened; what from them will be poured?

Blow the trumpet in Zion and sound an alarm in My Holy Mountain
The works of the nations have been seen and the sins of the people counted.
Let the priests and the ministers of the Lord now weep
We did not keep His statutes and now the tares are more than the wheat.

Many believe we have now won a great battle and have folded their hands to sleep
But we have not as yet even entered into battle but beware the war upon us creeps.
America has but chosen a man for office and how he leads we are yet to see
And too many deluded by their bondage believe their chains make them free.

America has awakened briefly before, only to hit the Snooze and return to our sleep
Thinking there is peace and safety when there is no safety and there is no peace.
We have ignored the promise of blessing and curse for those that divide God's land
America is leading the charge with 70 nations to implement their coveted two state-plan.

Now is the time to put on the raiment proper for the conflict
Time to put on the whole armor that Yahuah provided us with Knowing the weapons of our warfare are not carnal or hidden in the shadows
But mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Strongholds that have been built for centuries
Ruled and protected by powers and principalities
Possessing many different modalities using multiple personalities
Commonalities, nationalities and political formalities to insure their finality.

That finality being known by many different names
But ignored by many and those who exposed it are shamed.
Called conspiracy theorist if you expose the New World Order
And while we sleep the enemy marches ever forward.

Some say we have received a reprieve at this moment
I say we have an opportunity and if we squander it we will lament.
For too long we have been found wanting when in the balance we were weighed
It is time to fold our hands, not to sleep but to fervently pray.

Many terrible things are ready to be released upon mankind

How you fair will depend upon with whom you are aligned.
In the midst of the darkness will burn Revival's Fire
To seek a Great Awakening is that to which we must aspire.

The Fire will light the way for those who have called upon the Living God for sight
It will be a Refiner's Fire but those unprepared and unrepentant will face an awful plight.
Those things the Watchmen warned about haven't gone away
That is why the bells are ringing and the alarm goes out today.

This is a call to those who claim His Name for revival for repentance and to pray
The enemy hasn't given up rather they are gearing up to escalate the fray.
Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
This is a Call to Arms, a Call to Arms.

The land before us has been like Eden the beautiful garden
But behind us it will be desolate if our hearts remain hardened.
We cannot claim that our hearts are not granite and hard as stone
When the unborn babes cry out from where their discarded bodies were thrown.

We cannot claim we are not stiff necked when Truth is trampled in our streets
We cannot claim our consciences are not seared when artists and leaders hold spirit feasts.
Destruction upon destruction is cried; for spoiled is the whole land
It is time for tearing down for building up and upon our knees to take our stand.

What blessings or what cursing lie before the people today?
Has not life or death been set before us as the Scriptures say?
Choose life that both thou and thy seed may live.
No greater warning, or opportunity, could Yahuah give.

Let him who has an ear hear and answer the Spirit's call
The Principalities and Powers are inciting a terrible squall
It is time to Sound the Alarm yes Sound the Alarm
Do you hear the Call to Arms, the Call to Arms?

WHAT I KNOW (Randy Conway)

I don't know much about politics or what this administration might or might not do
I don't know much about geo-engineering or why the sky suddenly isn't quite as blue
I don't know much about Trans-Humanism or what's in their DNA stew
And I don't know for sure if someday robots will rise and the world will rule.

I don't know much about mind control or if the guy next door is manipulated
I don't know much about shadow governments or what for our future they have slated
I don't know much about the economy--will it fail, be stagnated or become hyper-inflated?
And I don't know much about medicine or how many vaccines and drugs are contaminated.

I don't know a lot about Fallen Angel technologies or those who seek its power
I don't know for sure if the Large Haydron Collider is the next generation of Nimrod's Tower
I don't know a lot of theology or eschatology; are we in the final age, the final days or final hours?
And I don't know a lot about astronomy; could the earth be the target for a destructive meteor shower?

I don’t know much about electronics or if Big Brother listens to my every conversation
I don’t know a lot about Antarctica, if there are secrets there or just a weather station
I can’t explain dimensions, the Divine Council or the mysteries of creation
I can’t unravel the Babylon Code or the abomination that brings desolation.

I haven’t studied military planning or when we’ll engage in World War Three
I don’t know why the earth is cracking or how poisoned are the seas
I’ve not seen the Watchers or the giants but I don’t have to see in order to believe
I haven’t studied physiology but it seems to me most people are deceived.

I don’t know about tomorrow, if it should be anticipated or should be feared
I never heard the strange sounds reported that other people hear
But what I know is that whatever comes, my Savior promised He is always near
His promises are not confusing and His love for me is clear.

I know these things all exist, are true and they are real
I know that these are facts and not beliefs or how one feels

I know tomorrow many things will come our way and we must stand as steel
And I know no one can really stand against tomorrow, rather we must kneel.

I know that God the Father sent His Son so that I might be redeemed
And the future that He has planned for me is more than I could dream
I know that I can trust in Him no matter how life seems
And above Him is no other, He is Transcendent and Supreme.

I may not have great knowledge that is envied, lofty or grand
But there is an old song I know and its lyrics state my stand
“Many things about tomorrow I don’t seem to understand
But I know who holds tomorrow and I know He holds my hand.”

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

"A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery; Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars. We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim. "THINGS ARE NOT AS THEY SEEM"

For there shall arise false christs and false prophets and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. (and leaders) Matt. 24:24

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. Matt. 10:16
(I realize that there are differing views on these things, but I ask that we listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying at this time, and not be swayed by our own opinions. We need to be on our guard like at no other time in history. It is so easy to be deceived. Keep your eyes open. Amen.)

Several times now the Lord has said this to me:

"Things are not as they seem. There are lies spreading everywhere. You will be left defenseless America, for you are not prepared and ready for what is coming. Everything has been set-up for show, and this man in office now, will do as he pleases. Be careful to not follow the crowd. For I have said that if possible, the very elect could be deceived.

There are things being arranged; there are adjustments being made. One can go through all of the motions to "seem right," but in the end it becomes a self-serving principle.

I say that the enemy has clouded many of your vision. I say, be as wise as a serpent. Don't follow the crowd but follow after Me. "

PASTOR: 'DEMONIC ACTIVITY PALPABLE' AT TRUMP RALLY

'My daughter was shaking in fear as she clung to me'

A large crowd takes photos of President Donald Trump at a rally in Melbourne, Florida, Feb. 18, 2017 (Facebook/Joel Tooley)

Despite the event opening with the Lord's Prayer, the pastor of a Melbourne, Florida, church who attended President Trump's rally in his hometown over the weekend is claiming "demonic" activity and vitriol were palpable at the event, traumatizing his 11-year-old daughter.

"I have been in places and experiences before where demonic activity was palpable," wrote Joel Tooley, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Melbourne.

"The power of the Holy Spirit of God was protecting me in those moments and was once again protecting me and my daughter in this moment."

In a lengthy Facebook post, Tooley admitted he was not a personal fan of Trump, but he was excited the president of the United States was coming to his town, and he sought to share the experience with his daughter.

http://www.wnd.com/2017/02/pastor-demonic-activity-palpable-at-trump-rally/

As he described the event, Tooley said he was unnerved by a rendition of Lee Greenwood's song "God Bless the USA," and the "almost church-like" fashion that Trump supporters sang it.

"People were being ushered into a deeply religious experience … and it made me completely uncomfortable. I love my country; I honor those who sacrificed their lives for our freedom and I respect our history and what we stand for, but what I experienced in that moment sent shivers down my spine. I felt like people were here to worship an ideology along with the man who was leading it. Don't get me wrong, it wasn't the song per se – it was this inexplicable movement that was happening in the room. It was a religious zeal."

He also remarked on first lady Melania Trump's recitation of the Lord's Prayer.

"I can't explain it, but I felt sick," Tooley said. "This wasn't a prayer beseeching the presence of Almighty God, it felt theatrical and manipulative.

"People across the room were reciting it as if it were a pep squad cheer. At the close of the prayer, the room erupted in cheering. It was so uncomfortable. I observed that Mr. Trump did not recite the prayer until the very last line, 'be the glory forever and ever, amen!'"

And once the president had commenced his address, Tooley says fans of Mr. Trump confronted protesters who were also attending:

It was then that I heard two ladies off to my left chanting, not yelling or screaming but chanting, "T-R…U-M-P; that's how you spell – bigotry!" They repeated the rhyme over and over.

Two ladies in front of them began seething and screaming in their face while shaking their Trump signs at them. Another couple standing behind them started screaming at them as well. One of the chanting ladies had her eight-year-old daughter on her back; the other had a severely disabled child in a wheelchair in front of her. As they continued chanting, the people around them became violently enraged. One angry man grabbed the lady's arm – that's when I went into action. I barged through the crowd and yelled at them to back off. My heart wasn't racing; I just instinctively became a protector.

I didn't actually want a Trump sign, but one of the volunteers had shoved it into my hands as I walked through the door earlier; "Make America Great Again!" That sign probably saved someone from getting hurt. I held the sign close to my chest as I positioned myself between the chanting protesters and the angry mob. My 11-year-old daughter was clinging to my arm, sobbing in fear.

The two angry, screaming ladies looked at me, both of them raised their middle finger at me in my face and repeatedly yelled, "F*#% YOU!" Repeatedly.

I calmly responded, "No thank you, I'm happily married." Their faces and their voices were filled with demonic anger.

I have been in places and experiences before where demonic activity was palpable. The power of the Holy Spirit of God was protecting me in those moments and was once again protecting me and my daughter in this moment.

I raised my voice and calmly said, "These ladies have the right to do what they are doing and they are harming no one; this is America and they a right to express themselves in this way. They are harming no one." A couple of other people around me stepped in and supported me in protecting them as a barrier, as well.

My daughter was shaking in fear as she clung to me. The one man behind the protesters shoved himself forward, grabbed the lady by the arm and screamed with multiple expletives, “I’m going to take you out! This is my president and nobody has the right to disrespect him and nobody has the right to keep me from hearing him!”

I wish I could have captured the expressions of that man on camera. I will never forget him.

The little girl on her mother’s back was crying, completely frightened. I leaned forward and reassured her in her ear, “Your mommy is being brave and we will not let these people hurt you. You are afraid because these are angry, awful people. We will not let them hurt you or your mommy. You are being so brave and your mommy is doing something very brave.”

That’s when another lady screamed in my face that what I was doing was un-American. I just chuckled and responded, “What I am doing is completely American – I’m standing up for people who are being bullied – it doesn’t matter if I agree with them or not. You came here to see the President, now ignore these ladies, turn around and enjoy the show.” Without explanation, they calm down and turned around to hear what Trump had to say.

The two protesters then moved towards the back and left the building. I got a couple of high-fives and “thanks for stepping up for them” from bystanders. I wanted to say, “Thanks. Where were you when the demons were screaming and fists were getting ready to start swinging?”

Tooley says he realized “that we were not listening to someone presidential, we were listening to someone terribly powerful. My kid was shaken – she had just seen some of the worst of humanity.”

Angels and demons are very real, and so is the ongoing battle between them. Read “Spiritual Warfare” by Dr. Karl Payne

He concluded his post by noting he had the words of the Lord’s Prayer echoing in his mind.

“As we left the room, these words were echoing in my mind, “Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done ….

‘Demonic activity was palpable’ at Trump’s rally, pastor says

By Lindsey Bever February 22

A Florida pastor who took his 11-year-old daughter to a campaign-style rally for President Trump said he hoped the event would serve as a civics lesson — but that it turned instead into a spectacle where “demonic activity was palpable.”

Joel Tooley, lead pastor at Melbourne First Church of the Nazarene in eastern Florida, said that when he heard that the president and first lady would be passing through town, he decided to go see them in person.

“I am enough of a sentimentalist that when I found out THEEEE President was coming to town, I got online quickly and reserved two tickets,” he wrote on Facebook.

But the rally last weekend was not what the pastor had in mind.

“As people were coming in, there was a lot of excitement and a strong sense of patriotism,” Tooley wrote.

However, during a rendition of “God Bless the USA,” some attendees began to sing along and raise their hands in an almost religious way.

“People were being ushered into a deeply religious experience,” Tooley wrote, “and it made me completely uncomfortable.

“I love my country; I honor those who sacrificed their lives for our freedom and I respect our history and what we stand for, but what I experienced in that moment sent shivers down my spine. I felt like people were here to worship an ideology along with the man who was leading it. Don’t get me wrong, it wasn’t the song per se — it was this inexplicable movement that was happening in the room. It was a religious zeal.”

Tooley could not immediately be reached, and the White House did not immediately respond to a request for a comment.

Funny how this happens at the same time Trump is giving his speech. If this was related to Israel people would be jumping on this.

Increased Attacks

The enemy seeks to wear you down in this time, and he has increased his attacks on every side. You feel the effects of these battles.

In times of war, My people must remain focused on staying on track. Do not allow the enemy to divert your focus by distracting you with old sins, My children. Do not allow him to take back ground in areas where you have overcome. Hold tight to your victories over sin!

Strengthen your spirit in My Word so you may finish the race before you as a conqueror. Cast down unwanted thoughts and desires and stand strong in My power against the enemy of your soul. Your reward in heaven awaits you.

2 Timothy 2:3-4

- 3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
- 4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

Ephesians 6:13-14

- 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
- 14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

Time has ran out for the nations of this world that has forgotten God, the manager of the universe, the infinite one, the Ruler and Maker of creation.

Brothers and sisters I was not going to share this vision Jesus showed me on the January 27 2016 but I said to myself... " if I can get one more soul in glory or wake up a sleeping Christians that's my mission".

WARNING ⚠ TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA!!!

I heard in my vision a baby crying as if the child was in pain. The baby seems to be crying for hours. I then saw an angel standing over a stream with a rock tied on a string in his hands. The angel said to me "when I release this stone in the water the whole world will ripple with earthquake for the Mighty God has spoken "

I then looked in the distance and the angel was showing me snippets very briefly of things. The angel showed me Trump and his wife standing in the white house. I then heard over the news 5 cities in the USA that are in serious trouble.

The angel then showed me Trump and his wife again in the white house but this time Trump was in a panic mode because he didn't know what to do about these 5 cities that was in trouble.

I then saw U.N trucks going into these cities and what looks like foreign soilders. The UN trucks and soilders were coming out of the sea.

The angel showed me again Trump and his wife standing before the president desk while Barack and Michele was standing behind the president desk. I hear when Trump said to Obama I am going to call Marshall law and Obama agreed. So Trump called Martial law.

The angel then showed me the troubled cities and it felt like Obama has regain power somehow... In some of the troubled cities I saw lots and lots of rioting.... and black people rioting it was very bad (this could be black lives matter).

The cities that was in trouble were Houston-Texas, Atlanta , California, Newyork and one more which I cannot remember it might be Florida but am not sure. #TeamJesus #Prophetess

YOU ARE SECONDS FROM THE FINISH LINE

My beloved brothers and sisters, do not be decieved by the enemy of your souls. You must know, I hope by now, that Satan is the absolute master of deception, a master magician, a grand illusionist. It says in the end that even the Elect would be deceived if that were possible. I believe he has done just that to many, if not most, in the body of Christ.

Hear what the Spirit has to say : "You Are Seconds From The Finish Line, but many of you have decided to take a break along the race thinking you will still make it to the end in time. It takes focus and endurance to finish, not looking to the right or to the left. It grieves Me to know that many will be left behind because they were not willing to be filled with the Holy Spirit (keeping their lamps filled with oil) and as a result ending up injured on the sideline unable to finish the race. You need to repent, fast and seek My Face."

Now is your salvation nearer than ever before.
Our Lord is at the door. Let Him say to you, enter in thou good and faithful servant.

Hebrews 12:1-2

1 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking into Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

“My Father Wishes You to Know This Great Release is Coming and It Is Coming Quickly!”

FEBRUARY 7, 2017 2:47 PM BY JULIE WHEDBEE

I am He who is the King of kings and the Lord of lords, the Lamb that was slain, the only One worthy to open the scrolls and speak the words of My Father. I stand in all power and all authority given to Me from on High. My Father wishes to share with you His Heart; to tell you that a great and new thing is coming to the people of God, to all those who have been obedient, to all those who serve the only Lord and Master, the only Creator of all things, the Source of all.

There is a glory coming, it approaches ever so quickly, each day that passes. My Spirit searches the earth for those willing and open vessels who have surrendered all, who have been willing to give up everything in this life to gain everything in eternity; those vessels who have been selected to rule and reign with Me in My Kingdom. To those, it has been given the power and authority decreed by My Father. These ones will walk in this authority as One with Me, bringing unity and peace to all. My Heart will be seen and shared by many who have been purposed for this time.

I stand reading a scroll, which holds the design for all time, from beginning to end. I tell you My people, this is the end, the end of this story and the beginning of a new one. This is the last day, and did I not tell you My people that you would be raised on the last day with Me? (John 6:40)

There is breakthrough coming, breakthrough and deliverance and healing. Oh what a glorious time to be alive, to have been chosen to be here now. For you see, My Father wishes you to know this great release is coming and it is coming quickly! You are nearing the end of your training here for the purposes you were created for. The time is coming for you to be fully indwelt with My Spirit, so you will walk in the fullness of all you have been trained for. You have been tested and tried and many have been found worthy; worthy through Me, worthy because I have won the victory, worthy because I am the Door that has shown you the way. So I ask you this day to enter in, step forward now in this moment and be ready to receive this great outpouring and impartation that is upon you.

My angel of breakthrough awaits this command for this great release. Many gifts and many blessings are waiting to be poured out. Pray for them now. Pray that this is the time they would be released to you My people. Pray to be the empty vessels through which these gifts shall be poured and I assure you that I will pour them out to overflowing. My grace will carry you through each and every turn and pour out upon all those I bring to you. Not one shall remain unaffected by this outpouring through My people for it shall change the world!

There are many of you waiting who have already known your purposes. Many have been waiting for the timing and the command to move forward in certain areas. I tell you it is time. You know who you are. You know that which I am speaking. Release now! Step forward now! Act upon that which you have been shown now! Move forward boldly and with courage. It is time to take authority for the Kingdom is now reclaiming what rightfully belongs to it. To those whom much has been given, it is time to release. It is time to sow your seed in those places you have been shown.

There is a great transfer occurring at this time. This transfer is occurring on many levels. I am repositioning and aligning. There is a transfer of Kingdom wealth to My Kingdom people for I raise up kings and I depose them. Not one stands without My permission. It is time for My own to inherit what rightfully belongs to them. Watch what I will do! Watch how I will take it from the hands of the unrighteous and give it to the righteous and the pure of heart.

Watch as I will heal and mend and repair and fulfill all that has been torn and broken and stolen from My people. Watch as My great and mighty arm sweeps across the lands removing anything that has exalted itself above Me, bringing it low and making it to be nothing. Dare anyone oppose the Great I Am?

The armies in Heaven stand ready and waiting and will move on one command. Such light and love are pouring out upon you My people. Do not let the darkness that surrounds you overcome you. You have My promises, you have My Word, believe it is coming! I am faithful and true. I only speak what My Father speaks and do what My Father tells Me to do and this day, He has told Me to speak these words to you. Hear them! Write them on your hearts. Be ready!

The King is coming! The King is coming! The King is coming!

“They Have Stopped Their Ears!”

On the night of January 26th, a good friend and I got together to spend time in prayer. What was received from the Lord was a grave warning, as well as a very encouraging Word.
A couple days prior to our meeting, we’d discussed the sharp discord between Christians taking place on social media websites. I was just about to make a comment on one of the sites, as there was a somewhat heated discussion going on.
The debate was concerning the return of Jesus. Several were afraid the church was falling asleep again, thinking all is well because Trump had been elected. Others were saying how sick and tired they were of hearing how bad things are, Trump was already turning things around, and the fear mongering needed to stop. All I planned to do was insert a comment, to possibly calm things down a bit. I’d already opened the comment box, and started to type, when I distinctly heard the Holy Spirit say,
“No! They have stopped their ears. They do not want the Truth!”
Right then and there, I felt the Lord calling me to back away from all the voices. I had to shut it all off, so decided to go on a news/media fast. My friend and I both decided to spend time seeking and listening exclusively to the voice of the Lord.
By the end of the fast, we both felt such peace and clarity of mind. No stress, no confusion. And then we met for prayer…
After a time of praying, my friend suddenly asked for a prayer shawl. She then covered herself and entered into a “tent of meeting” with the Lord. We continued praying in the Spirit for a few minutes, and then I fell silent as I heard a beautiful song coming from the tent.
Suddenly, I saw a vision of a large group of sheep in an open field. They were all grazing with heads low to the ground. As I watched them, I continued to hear the beautiful singing. All at once, a few of the sheep raised their heads straight up. Their ears began to twitch, and I realized they were hearing the song! Then the scene changed.
A very large group of people were gathered together in a field. There were so many that I could only see them from the shoulders up. They were milling around looking towards the ground as they walked. I again became aware of the beautiful song. A few within the group heard it too, and heads began to pop up here and there. A look of recognition came into their eyes, as they turned toward the sound and began coming out of the group. Just then, I heard the Lord say,
“My sheep hear My voice, and the voice of another they will not follow!”
The scene changed again. This time there was a much smaller group of people huddled together in a field. I saw several people coming from various directions to join the little group. Then the Lord said,
“I Am calling my people out. I Am bringing my people together.”
As I watched, the group suddenly appeared complete, as two huge arms came around, encircling them, pulling them ever closer to Himself.
Then, instead of being an observer, the Lord allowed me to see through His eyes, and it was as if our bodies became one. As He wrapped His arms tightly around the group, He leaned over them – completely covering them with Himself. I felt the immense love in His voice as He comforted the little group:
“I love you so! I Am your source and provision. You have no need of Any Thing. I LIVE inside you. I Am all you need!” End of vision.

Interpretation:

Since I was first shown the group of sheep, it's clear the large group of people represent the Church. The song is the Lord beckoning His people to come to Him.

The majority of the "church" is NOT listening to the Lord. They "have stopped their ears. They do not want the Truth!" Zechariah 7:11, "But they refused to heed, shrugged their shoulders, and stopped their ears so that they could not hear."

Those who've "stopped their ears," will not hear anything you say that's contrary to their desires.

The sleeping "church" doesn't want the Kingdom of God established on the Earth just yet. They love this world and are convinced, if given enough time they can fix it – and build the kingdom of their dreams! The judgments of God, the coming Kingdom of God, with Jesus as King of Kings, frightens them – they're just not ready for all that.

The Lord's impressed upon me that much of the church has fallen to the deceiving spirit sent out by Satan himself (see 'There is More to Come. Do Not Leave Your Station!"). It's Satan who doesn't want the message of repentance preached! It's Satan who's broadcasting peace and safety! And it's Satan who wants to build the Kingdom of his dreams. The judgments and coming Kingdom of God, with Jesus as King of Kings, frightens Satan too.

Conclusion:

Saints, the church is dividing into two groups. Only a portion, a very small portion, is hearing the voice of the Lord and moving toward Him. The Lord is saying, "I Am calling my people out. I Am bringing my people together."

It seemed the small "remnant" group was almost complete, with only a few left who were still making their way over to it. The Lord will soon be closing His arms around them. I pray to be part of this group, and I pray others quickly turn and seek the Lord with all their being, because the word spoken over this group is totally amazing:

"I love you so! I Am your source and provision. You have no need of Any Thing. I LIVE inside you. I Am all you need!"

I AM ALL YOU NEED! Jesus sent His disciples out to preach (Luke 9:1-3), heal, and cast out devils with nothing other than the clothes on their back, yet they "lacked nothing." He also sent out the 70 (Luke 10:1) under the same circumstances, and they had all they needed…(Luke 22:35).

Please take this message to the Lord in prayer.

Judgment has Begun

By Glynda Lomax on Mar 01, 2017 01:00 am

Judgment has begun in My House. I have told you you shall know them by their fruits. I will now begin revealing what those fruits are.

For some of My children, you have done very well. You have been kind and generous, you have been in My Word often, you have prayed much. Your fruit will be revealed to be the good fruit it is.

For some, you have spoken falsely in My Great Name. You have been unkind and withheld from Me and others what you should have given to bless. You have neglected time with Me and in My Word. Your fruit will be revealed to be the false and rotten fruit that it is.

There is no more time for playing, My children, for the end is at hand. I will come to take My own home quickly, like a thief in the night. There will be no time for repenting in those last seconds, for you will not know when it shall be. You must walk with Me daily. You must endure what is coming, remaining faithful to Me, and working now while it is yet day.

Do not be deceived, I shall not be mocked. What you have sown, you shall now reap, for good or ill.

The Time is Now

You are entering a season like none other because you live in a time like no other – the time of the end. All that has been foretold in scripture shall now take place. You shall marvel as you see each jot and tittle happen just as it was foretold thousands of years ago.

Make no mistake, My people, you are not waiting for a time in the future now, the time is now. The time when all of Revelations as foretold by my prophet John will happen in the earth. A time when much tribulation shall take place, much fury from the enemy, and much trouble.

This will not be an easy time, but it is a good time, for it precedes the end of evil in the earth around you. Soon, you will walk the streets of gold I have prepared for you in heaven. You will see your rewards here and forever will you share fellowship with all those who have gone before you.

The end is near, the harvest is white. Be about the business of My Kingdom in the earth, for you are coming home.

Matthew 24:21-22

- 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.
- 22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

THE VALLEY OF VISION

2/25/17

22 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops? 2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains. Isaiah 22

"I tell you it is time....it is time to come into the valley of vision.
For many think that they see but they see not.

They say to the prophets and the seers, 'Tell us good things.'
And yet, what would you see or hear? Surely there are things that trouble you.

And yet the most troubling thing is not that there is so much evil and darkness around you. The real problem is that many of my prophets aren't hearing clearly from Me. They pretend to know; they say that they have heard from Me, and yet they have not.

You will be left to your own devises in the coming months. You will be searching for Me, and you will only hear the faint whisperings of your own mind. "

Firewall Protection

In this time of many horrors, those of My Remnant shall have a protection like none other. Those who have not hesitated to sacrifice for My Glory, those who have not hesitated when I said "Give," those who have not gone with the ways of the world, but who follow My Word and obey Me in all things, will have no need to fear.

When the enemy strikes at these, he shall be met with My Firewall Protection. A wall of fire from My Spirit shall consume the enemy where they stand, and leave My Chosen Ones untouched. This protection is not for all, it is only for those who are truly of My Remnant, those who have not hesitated to answer My Call. Those who have laid down their lives and taken up the life I have called them to. Those who rely on Me.

My Firewall shall surround them as the chariots of fire surrounded My Servant Elijah. To the enemy, you will look vulnerable, and in their pridefulness, they believe they will see you fall, but I will defeat them before your very eyes. They shall be caught in their own snares.

My Remnant shall be about My Kingdom business in this time and shall witness of Me boldly. Through them shall I perform many signs and wonders. Many shall be saved from the Kingdom of Darkness where the flames never die, and many jewels shall be in their crowns who consider not their own lives in this time to being Me Glory.

Fear not, My precious ones, for I have a plan. I will surround those who are truly Mine with my Firewall Protection.

Nation of Idolaters

Oh America, America, Nation of Idolaters – how I have longed to draw you close to Me, but you would not. You have preferred your sins to My Ways. You have preferred your entertainments to My Holy Word. You care nothing at all for the mighty God who established you, on whose foundations your nation was established.

The time approaches when you will cry out for Me and desire My help. Nations from afar shall attack you and enter your borders. Their armies will destroy your people and you shall not rise again, for you have turned back from Me and refused to repent.

Oh America, I desired a better end for you, but you would not. Your judgments are quickly approaching, and your people will cry and beg for mercy, but they have turned from Me to do only wickedness and I shall not help them. Only My own who know Me will receive My help in that time.

America will be no more.

Godshealer7 - Speak Of The Season For An Ill Wind Blows

"BEND THY KNEES, FOR YOU ARE IN THE PRESENCE OF MY GLORY. I AM THE DIVINE LIGHT. SHALL THESE WORDS NOT STRIKE FEAR IN MEN'S HEARTS? I SEE WHAT IS IN MEN'S HEARTS. ALL THAT IS, IS KNOWN TO ME. I SHALL MAKE STRAIGHT THE CROOKED PATH. SPEAK NOW SON OF MAN, SPEAK MY WORDS OF TRUTH. SPEAK OF THE SEASON, FOR AN ILL WIND BLOWS. EVEN NOW, EVIL PREPARES FOR ITS OWN DESTRUCTION. IT TICKLES THE EARS OF THOSE WHO LISTEN. IT SERVES ITS PURPOSE, NOT MINE. I HAVE INCLINED MY EAR AND HAVE HEARD THE CRIES OF MY CHILDREN. FEAR NOT. FOR I SHALL VANQUISH YOUR ENEMIES, AND YOU SHALL BEAR WITNESS TO THE POWER OF THE LORD."

Prepare Your Houses

Much strife and confusion is coming to the earth. There will be eruptions of violence, murder, strife and infighting in various places.
Much tension shall abound, and brother shall strike out at brother. The line is being drawn tight.

(NOTE: In the spirit here, I saw a line, like a tightrope wire, being tightened and tightened, until it looked like it would just snap from the tension.)

When I speak to the angels, what is holding back the war will be released, and battles will break out in many places. War will break out. Fighting and killing will seem to be everywhere at once. This is the beginning of the end. Prepare your houses. Prepare your hearts, for the end is upon you. The end of all things quickly approaches.

My children in the earth, My true children, will shine like a beacon in this dark time. Miracles will abound, My Word will go forth with great boldness and authority as it did in the time My Son Jesus walked the earth, and many souls will be added unto My Kingdom. The end is very near now as these souls enter just before the door is shut.

Prepare your houses. Prepare your hearts, for the end is upon you.

Matthew 24:6-8

- 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
- 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.
- 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

THE DEAD WILL LIVE AGAIN

Message received February 23, 2017.

Prophesy daughter of Zion, prophesy to My holy, sanctified people. Proclaim the Day of the Lord is at hand! Prophesy to these dry and weary bones that they shall live! essage received February 23, 2017.

Prophesy daughter of Zion, prophesy to My holy, sanctified people. Proclaim the Day of the Lord is at hand! Prophesy to these dry and weary bones that they shall live! Speak into every heart the words of the One True King, arise dead bones and walk! Arise and proclaim the King is coming! Announce to the ends of the earth, the King is coming for His people!

I see your weariness My cherished ones, as I know your hearts better than you know them. You experience much and the heartache runs deeply, but I am come to give you My Living Water to drink. I alone will satisfy. That which you feed most is that which grows. Is it your spirit or is it your flesh and soul's desires? So many of you are reliving past hurts and failures, or holding unforgiveness or bitterness. I tell you, let it go immediately! This is crucial to our intimacy. I cannot inhabit a vessel that will not heed My counsel or follow in My ways.

As I continue to speak to you, I am coming to overfill My Spirit into those who are obedient, who seek Me first in everything and who live according to all I have taught you. Do not fall back into past mindsets and behaviors. I have told you it is always darkest before the dawn, but if I am your Light, if I am all you need, then lay your burdens down.

My holy anointing Spirit of Fire and Love is coming to you to equip you for the remaining tasks here. Have I not brought you this far? When did I ever leave or forsake you? If you do not feel Me here with you, it is you who have moved away from Me.

My words to you are as urgent as always. Do not let your guards down. Do not fall into complacency. Events are coming to pass more quickly every day. There is no mistaking that My words are being fulfilled. Man's reasoning and science cannot explain things away. Your weather patterns are increasingly drastic and alarming. The earth is moving and shaking. All is shifting in the physical as the battle in the spiritual rages on.

Do not be fooled into believing things are well, or that there will be peace. You have been warned to watch for the signs in the season of My return. Can you not hear the swords rattling and feel My nearness?

I urge you yet again.

Be vigilant, be sober and diligent in watching for Me. Know how to receive My wisdom and guidance as this will be your only hope when sudden darkness confronts the earth.

Out of My great love for you, I will ask again, are you ready??

Surely, these words are faithful and they are true..

Johnny Baptist - Day of the Lord - GH7 Vision War of Worlds (14:35 mins)

Subject: Barb God's Healer7 12-6-16 Preview of the Day of the Lord A foreshadowing Matt 24:27 Joel 1:15

Pt 1 Listen! The Lion Roars! The birds take flight. You can see the beasts of the earth running.
Look at the sky-it's clear. Shhhhhh. Listen! I hear thunder. I know-How can there be thunder? the sky is clear.
I know, but it looks strange. Something's not right. I have a peculiar feeling. Look over there-it looks like it's Lightning. I think we should go inside-it's lightning and thundering to the east.

I'm going to put the news on to see if something is going on. The newsman says "the lightning and thunder can be Heard and seen all over the world. The lightning is causing fires everywhere."

What's that? It looks like airplanes. I don't know, but I can hear sirens. No, there is something else! Yes, I hear it.
It sounds like a trumpet blowing. Did you hear that???? The news says the government has ordered our planes up. They are tracking something on the radar. Let's go down the street and look at the national guard armory. I can see the trucks coming up the road. I think we Should go over to the store now. The local news just cut in and said the schools are all being let out early. All the national Guard units are on alert. I'm going to stop at the bank first. Hurry up so we can get back before the kids come home.

Pt 2
We'd better hurry! The place looks jammed already. Put the news on. I can't. The tv stations are all off the air.

I'll try the radio. There's nothing. It's off the air too. I think I know what's going on. Let's get what we need and get home.
Look! None of the street lights are working. We will have to take the back roads. See if your cell phone works. No-it's dead.

I can feel the earth shaking. Remember that earthquake we had? The doors were moving and the pictures. I think this is What the Bible calls "the end of time" when Jesus returns, or The Day of the Lord. They say it will be a regular day.
No one knows when, but the signs are all available to see for those with eyes, and those with ears can hear the warnings.

I guess God gave warnings like He did in the time of Noah, and no one listened. They all laughed at the warnings.
God (?) made fun of it until it started to rain.
Guess what? I think it's raining.

Barb adds:
That’s very intriguing. It’s a glimpse. It’s going to be a regular day. The Second Coming of Christ- no one is going to expect it,
Just like the Day of Noah. Everyone was just going about their regular business…
You know time is short when I’m getting a prophecy like this about The Day of the Lord and the Second Coming of Jesus.

The Seven Thunders Revealed

Posted on December 21, 2011 by John Baptist

They Fly Like the Wind
And Come From Afar

The Seven Thunders of Revelation have been revealed. I am satisfied what these saints have been shown in the truth. It matches everything I have uncovered in my research over the years. Glory to Jesus and our Heavenly Father for revealing these things in the "latter times". Indeed we live in the "latter times".

Praise the Holy Lord Jesus Christ and our awesome Heavenly Father God. Since many people cannot access You Tube videos, I have manually transcribed (as best as possible) the prophecy shared in the video below.

The DAY OF THE LORD

Isa 13:1-16
The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.
2 "Lift up a banner on the high mountain, Raise your voice to them; Wave your hand, that they may enter the gates of the nobles.
3 I have commanded My sanctified ones; I have also called My mighty ones for My anger — Those who rejoice in My exaltation."
4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, Like that of many people! A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together! The Lord of hosts musters The army for battle. 5 They come from a far country, From the end of heaven — The Lord and His weapons of indignation, To destroy the whole land.
6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
7 Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man's heart will melt, 8 And they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; They will be amazed at one another; Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord comes, Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger, To lay the land desolate; And He will destroy its sinners from it. 10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not give their light;The sun will be darkened in its going forth, And the moon will not cause its light to shine.
11 "I will punish the world for its evil, And the wicked for their iniquity; I will halt the arrogance of the proud, And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. 12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold, A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, And the earth will move out of her place, In the wrath of the Lord of hosts And in the day of His fierce anger. 14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle, And as a sheep that no man takes up; Every man will turn to his own people, And everyone will flee to his own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through, And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives ravished.

FRIENDS OVER THE YEARS

A group of 40-year-old buddies – David, Michael and Steven – discussed where they should meet for dinner. Finally it was agreed upon that they should meet at the Ocean View Kosher Bar & Grill because the waiters and waitresses there were very young and very fast.

10 years later at 50 years of age, the group once again discussed where they should meet for dinner. Finally it was agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View Kosher Bar & Grill because the food there was very good and the wine selection was good also.

10 years later at 60 years of age, the group once again discussed where they should meet for dinner. Finally it was agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View Kosher Bar & Grill because they could eat there in peace and quiet and the restaurant had a beautiful view of the ocean.

10 years later, at 70 years of age, the group once again discussed where they should meet for dinner. Finally it was agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View Kosher Bar & Grill because the restaurant was wheel-chair accessible, the restrooms were close and they even had an elevator.

10 years later, at 80 years of age, the group once again discussed where they should meet for dinner. Finally it was agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View

Kosher Bar & Grill because they had never been there before.

32 'If you love those who love you, what love those who love them.

33 And if you do good to those who do

For even sinners do the same.
34 And if you lend to those from whom you

35 But love your enemies, and do good,

Yes.

The scripture says "I SAW THE BRIDE coming down as the New Jerusalem" So this is simply saying that the Bride of Jesus, also known as the "remnant", the "remnant Bride", the "Wise Virgins" (ref. Matthew 25,) the holy and righteous believers (ref. Eph 5:27) are essentially in a glorified condition and residents of the New Jerusalem.

If you go back to Terri Hill's last radio show, she does a fabulous job of explaining this dynamic which reveals a wide range of Bible mysteries including why SOME of the people are not assigned to go into the New Millennium.

That mystery is capture in these verses here:

> Rev 20:4-6
> The Saints Reign with Christ 1000 Years
> 4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead (The Saints in Heaven, e.g., the Bride) did not live again (they stayed in Heaven) until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection (Note: the first ressurection is the  rapture **).

Is this one of those times when scripture uses a place interchangeably with the people it represents? I mean I've looked up scriptures to show that the bride cannot just be the place. Its symbolism. He is also called the bridegroom and then there is the marriage supper of the Lamb. These people seem to know the scriptures but yet they don't see that He's not betrothed to a city but its people that will reside there. Why are they blind to that? Its right there in their faces. I mean I myself have been looking at these scriptures myself and see it. I'm no theologian Johnny. I'm not trying to be ugly about this but these are people that stop short and don't look at the whole picture.

Yes brother. Always please remember that the devil hijacks everything from our Father God. The more it belongs to God the more He hijacks and contorts it so the sheep will say "that's of the devil" and run away.

11:11 is our Father's way to signal to us. He is calling our attention to our soon departure our soon rapture our soon ascension to heaven. The new Agers don't ascend brother, they "descend". See? It's OUR signal not theirs

The ancient Chaldeans also saw 11:11 as a sign of very very bad dark times. Well that's also true. Since once we ascend, Jacobs Trouble (the Great Tribulation) pummels the earth.

So we have to see past the deception, know who really ascends and who doesn't, and then we can "take back" our Father's spiritual provisions for our use as they were originally intended.

God bless you

11:11 CONFIRMATION

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter(Proverbs 25:2).

When we search out a matter that is a spiritual mystery to us, we must rely upon the Holy Spirit to unravel or untie the full message that has been sent. For years I used to see the numbers 11-11 on a continual basis, to a point where it seemed like it was being supernaturally impressed before me. Whenever I randomly happened to look at a clock it would say 11:11. Over time the Holy Spirit explained to me that He was using this particular set of numbers to confirm to me that I was walking in His plan for my life and all was well. Those numbers would pop in the most unexpected places and bring an outward confirmation to an inward leading that I felt was of the Lord. The Lord was working to give me a double witness both inwardly by His Holy Spirit and outwardly through these numbers that I was in His perfect will.

My friend Wade Taylor, who has now gone on to heaven, used to have the continual experience of finding a penny every time he was at a specific place where the Lord wanted Him to be. At times we would eat at a restaurant and talk about the goodness of God and discuss certain spiritual topics that we both enjoyed. Once finished with our meal and before getting up to leave, Wade would look on the floor and pick up a lost penny. He would smile and say, "I always find a penny when I am where the Lord wants me to be."

Ya know what's really fascinating Terri, is that in Pastor Sori Parks' visit to heaven and vision, he was shown that NASA comes forward to tell the whole world that "Aliens" too the people who were actually raptured.

I find this amazing. I wonder if this is "counter intelligence" being used by "the Devil" to trick the entire general population of the world about a program that doesn't really exist so that when they announce this after the rapture, everyone will say OHHH YEAH PROJECT BLUE BEAM

It will be quite interesting to see how this all unfolds. My "guess" is that we will be at the marriage supper by then LOL

Quote:

After a huge globally publicized deliverance of a possessed woman in the Philippines, on international radio, the demons came back into the woman a day or two later:

This is a quote of what happened next:

. I ordered the demons to tell me why they had returned. They spoke in English through her lips, "She has not asked us to go. She wants us. It is only you who desires for us to leave." Again I demanded that they leave her. Clarita told me they were gone through the window. I explained to her why they returned and told her to tell them to leave and never return. She did. Then, I led her in prayer, pleading the blood of Jesus against them. It was about noon. Clarita was weak from the ordeal. I told the prison officials to let her rest and to give her food. As I was leaving, I said, "Clarita, I am sure these devils will return again. After I am gone, they will come. Then you must order them to leave without my being present to help you. You must say, 'Go, in Jesus' name,' and they will obey." With that, I left the prison compound.

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

ALBERT PIKE WORLD WAR THREE

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion…We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

THE PILGRIM CHURCH

The Pilgrim Church:
- A Second Century Letter to Diognetus

He writes “Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language”, living in such places “as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers…. They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives… they are reviled and bless”. Then, speaking of God, he says, He, “who is almighty, the Creator of all things,… has sent from heaven, and placed among men, Him who is the truth, and the holy and incomprehensible Word, and has firmly established Him in their hearts.

A Pastor's Mansion

I saw a very gorgeous mansion, then a certain man was coming out, I knew he had been a pastor on earth. In heaven, they told me, the reason why he had a large and beautiful mansion in heaven, was primarily his giving & helping the needy and the poor, and his praying. These provided materials for his mansion in heaven.

They also explained to me, That different works we do on earth carry different weights in heaven, what God values and esteem high is very much different from what people think, they told me, the works we do that are unnoticed, behind the scenes, that people don't know about and unappreciated are the works that God values more, the works we do out of a pure heart and selfless love, they have great reward in heaven. Then I saw it as GOD sees, what is really important to God, that we must not look for appreciating & reward from men but God, also God values what we do in private than what we do in public.

I looked over the City, the bright lights, the golden doors of mansions facing east, the majestic palace, the mansions and houses, the transparent streets of gold, the chariots travelling around, the children playing, saints talking and walking, the gardens, I said "Wow, Heaven is so wonderful". I didn't want to come back but I knew it was my time to go.

LINK ANGELS

It was during that last visit to California that one of the incidents happened that started me on the road to accepting Christ, started me questioning Satan's claim to being more powerful than God. The high priest gathered a number of us together and told us that there was a family nearby who had been interfering with Satan. They had been converting a number of the cult members to the enemy, Jesus Christ, and were making a nuisance of themselves. Satan had given the order for them all to be killed. The high priest told us that we were all to go together in our spirit bodies (astral project), and kill them. So, we sat down in a circle with our candles in front of us and consciously left our bodies going in our spirits to the house to destroy these people. I was not at all enthusiastic about the project, but had no choice. If I had disobeyed I would have been killed.

Much to our surprise, as we arrived at the edge of this family's property, we could go no further. The whole area was surrounded by huge angels. The angels stood side by side holding hands. They were dressed in long white robes and stood so close together that their shoulders touched. They had no armor or weapons. Nobody could get through them, no matter how we tried. Any kind of weapon used merely bounced off of them doing them no harm. They laughed at us at first, daring us to come ahead and try to get through them. The other cult members got more and more furious with each passing moment. Suddenly their countenances changed and the fierce look from their eyes made all of us fall backwards onto the ground. A very humbling experience, I might add!

I will never forget — as I sat on the ground looking up at them, one of the angels looked directly into my eyes and said to me in the most loving voice I had ever heard, "Won't you please accept Jesus as your Lord? If you pursue the course you are taking you will be destroyed. Satan really hates you, but Jesus loves you so much that He died for you. Please consider turning your life over to Jesus." That was the end of the battle for me. I refused to try any longer to get through. I was very shaken. The others tried for awhile longer, but none succeeded. I doubt the family ever knew of the battle going on outside their house. They were completely protected! We called this particular type of special angels "link angels." Absolutely nothing can get through them. I was secretly thankful that we did not get through and the link angels had given me much to think about.

We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim. Amen.

PRAYING THROUGH

What it means to Pray Through

Personal experiences in the availing and prevailing' intercessory ministry of Sister E. J. Dabney, as related in an interview and through letters to Sarah Foulkes Moore.

My first acquaintance with Sister Dabney was gained through letters which she sent to a friend from Norfolk, Va., describing the prayer revival which the Lord gave her in that southern city. These letters so stirred me that I made carbon copies of them and mailed them out to prayer group leaders in Los Angeles. AH who read the letters were given a new vision of what it really means to "pray through." Later, Sister Dabney came to Pastor Couche's Church at 33rd and Compton, Los Angeles, where in a prayer revival of a few weeks, God saved almost 200 souls and baptised as many with the Holy Ghost and fire.

Sister Dabney is a sister who makes prayer a business. If she sleeps at all, it is to be refreshed to resume her day and night vigils of prayer and waiting on God. She confines herself to one simple meal a day. She never indulges in any personal friendships, nor does she have light conversation with anyone. Usually she comes quietly to a meeting an hour before the time announced and begins to pray. When the meeting is over she slips quietly away to her room where her REAL ministry of travail for the deliverance of souls is carried on, far into the night.

In an interview Sister Dabney revealed how she came to enter this effective work for God and for souls. Her husband is a preacher. He was sent from a prosperous church in Philadelphia to labour in a poor one. At their first meeting no one was present but themselves. She saw it was going to be a difficult field for it was in the most wicked part of the city. She was made to know that nothing but prayer would touch the situation. She determined to give herself to prayer. She made a vow to God that if He would send sinners to that place and save them, she would give herself three days and three nights each week in the Church to prayer for three years. She vowed during two of these years to fast as well as pray. When she first told her husband of her intentions, he was unwilling to have her spend three days and nights each week in the mission alone in prayer. But the Lord made him to know it was of Him so he took her the next morning early to the river side where she knelt and made her vow unto the Lord.

As soon as this little wife of a hard-pressed minister began to pray alone in her husband's mission, God began to work. Sinners were sent in and soon their little hall was crowded out. Her husband asked her to pray for a larger place. God moved a merchant out of a nicer and larger building across the street and gave them this building. As she continued to pray day and night three days a week in her husband's new church it, too, was crowded out. Again her husband asked her to pray for a larger church. She did and God gave them a fine large church on a main boulevard in the same neighbourhood. Always the meetings were packed out and souls were delivered from sin and believers baptised in multitudes.

One morning at the church door as she was entering to keep her vow of prayer the Lord met her and said, "Go Home." But she did not want to go home. She wanted to pray. Then He asked her if she knew what day it was. She felt led to open her purse and read her vow and discovered from the date on the vow that she had exactly completed the three years she had given to God for prayer. Even though the Lord had shown her that her vow had been fulfilled, she wanted to go into the church and adore and worship Him, but He said again, "Go Home.''

She obeyed, everything about her seeming to praise and worship the Lord. When she got home the Lord drew her inside. Her soul was exalting in His Presence. Then He said to her "Go to the basement." She was afraid of the dark basement and hesitated. Why should the Lord ask her to go to such a place? She said, "Lord, if you are going to take me home to glory, first let me see my husband and son." She was afraid the Lord was going to take her home in the midst of all this rejoicing. But she put on perfectly new pumps and went to the basement. Instead of darkness it was filled with a wondrous light. Then the Lord spoke to her again and said, "You have prayed through. Now I have come to bless you.''

From the ceiling a fountain poured forth living water and this water rose higher and higher until it engulfed her. The joy and the presence of the Lord was so gloriously manifest to her that she began to dance. The Lord told her wherever she went and prayed He would deliver sinners from their sins, and fill believers with the Holy Spirit. She danced the heels and toes off her brand-new pumps.

This happened six years ago, and God has kept His word. Wherever Sister Dabney goes and gives herself to prayer, sinners are delivered and the saints are filled with the Holy Ghost and fire Thus the Lord mightily anointed her to pray. She does not preach but only counsels saints and sinners to seek the Lord till He is found. The following letters written in the midst of her prayer revival in Norfolk, Va., give an intimate insight into her life of prevailing prayer,

Syrian Refugee Mother Tells Christian Worker, 'God Doesn't Love Us - He Only Loves Americans'

Syrian refugee mothers suffering in makeshift camps across Turkey have expressed a belief that God has "forgotten" them and only cares for Americans, a Christian missionary has revealed.

A Christian leader based in Turkey whose ministry provides aid in unofficial refugee camps shared with Christian Aid Mission that often, Syrian mothers bring their children to aid workers and ask missionaries to pray over them.

"They bring their children to us for prayer," he said. "We ask, 'What would you like us to pray for your child?' They say, 'May they grow up to live a better life, and be healthy.'"

"They are more concerned about their children and ask us for milk, baby food and blankets for their little ones," the director added, explaining that while they have little hope for their own lives, the mothers hope their children will be able to live a better life someday.

The ministry director shared the story of one Syrian woman, whose husband had died fighting for Syrian government forces battling Islamist insurgents. She and her three children, a teen boy and twin 4-year-olds, had gone to Istanbul, Turkey where they begged in order to survive.

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth. Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

Duewel, Wesley L. (2013-08-20). Mighty Prevailing Prayer:

General Booth

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

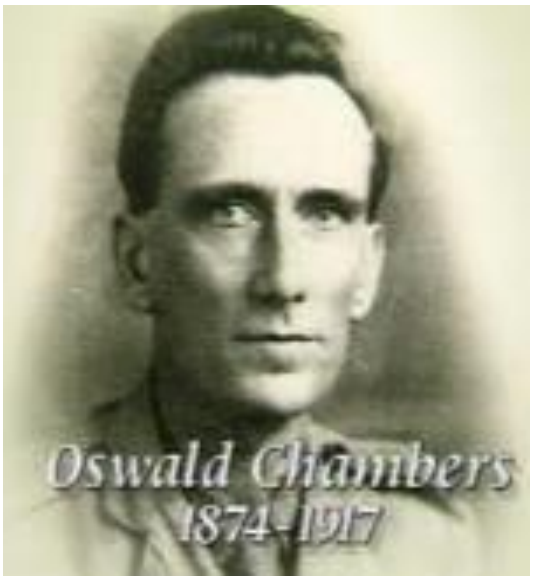
Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.



OSWALD CHAMBERS

My Unstoppable Determination for His Holiness. "Whether it means life or death—it makes no difference!" (see 1:21). Paul was determined that nothing would stop him from doing exactly what God wanted. But before we choose to follow God's will, a crisis must develop in our lives. This happens because we tend to be unresponsive to God's gentler nudges. He brings us to the place where He asks us to be our utmost for Him and we begin to debate. He then providentially produces a crisis where we have to decide—for or against. That moment becomes a great crossroads in our lives. If a crisis has come to you on any front, surrender your will to Jesus absolutely and irrevocably.

OSWALD CHAMBERS
Will You Go Without Knowing?

Will You Go Out Without Knowing?

"He went out, not knowing where he was going" (Hebrews 11:8).

Have you ever "gone out" in this way? If so, there is no logical answer possible when anyone asks you what you are doing. One of the most difficult questions to answer in Christian work is, "What do you expect to do?" You don't know what you are going to do. The only thing you know is that God knows what He is doing. Continually examine your attitude toward God to see if you are willing to "go out" in every area of your life, trusting in God entirely. It is this attitude that keeps you in constant wonder, because you don't know what God is going to do next. Each morning as you wake, there is a new opportunity to "go out," building your confidence in God. ". . . do not worry about your life . . . nor about the body . . ." (Luke 12:22). In other words, don't worry about the things that concerned you before you did "go out."

Have you been asking God what He is going to do? He will never tell you. God does not tell you what He is going to do—He reveals to you who He is. Do you believe in a miracle-working God, and will you "go out" in complete surrender to Him until you are not surprised one iota by anything He does?

Believe God is always the God you know Him to be when you are nearest to Him. Then think how unnecessary and disrespectful worry is! Let the attitude of your life be a continual willingness to "go out" in dependence upon God, and your life will have a sacred and inexpressible charm about it that is very satisfying to Jesus. You must learn to "go out" through your convictions, creeds, or experiences until you come to the point in your faith where there is nothing between yourself and God.

Ready for War

My children, prepare for the war that is coming to America. This will not be a war fought in other countries, but a war fought in your own streets. You will see many you know die before your eyes.

There is dissension brewing in the heart of America, and it will soon boil over. America, though greeted by smiles, also has many enemies. The combination of the two shall be her downfall.

My people are not ready for war, for they hesitate even at using the weapons I have left them in My Word. They are a people faint of heart, unaccustomed to seeing bloodshed, and not courageous for battle.

My people, do you not know I am a God of War? Do you not know I am coming back for the final battle against all evil? Why then do you shy away from the battle before you? Why are My churches filled with smiling imposters, who cannot even face their own sins? How do you plan to survive what is on its way to you? Do you think courage shall suddenly overtake you and you will be filled with faith?

My servant David did not learn faith and courage from doing nothing, but from battling the enemies he met on the way to where he was going. First the lion, then the bear, then the armies who came against Israel.

If you have no courage now, you will have no courage then, and you will fall to the hands of the enemy. Do not be foolish in believing otherwise.

My Remnant

My Remnant in the earth is very small. I desire I would have a great remnant, but it is not so. Those who truly walk with Me, who truly sacrifice for Me, who truly put Me first in all things, are very small in number.

Many believe they are part of My Remnant that are not part. They shall not be protected in what is coming because they do not truly know Me. They make no time for Me, they make no sacrifices to serve Me, they do not put Me first in their lives.

In what is coming, those who think they are Mine will expect many concessions that will not appear, for I do not know them.

Oh My children, be sure of your heart, be sure of your walk. Make time for Me now, for later will be too late for you if you do not.

Walk in wisdom now, and be glad later.

Donald Trump's Presidential Term Will be Cut Short

The LORD made me know that Donald Trump's Presidential term will be cut Short; by an episode (an occurrence) of sort. That's why Barack Obama will essentially have been the last U.S.A President to have served his full term.

Donald Trump is in (has been put in), to usher in The Latter Rain of Revival in The United States of America. This (The Latter Rain of Revival) will be Short-lived though; just like the Morning Dew.

The LORD will use him (Donald Trump) to extend mercy (for a short-time) upon the U.S.A.; but eventually the judgements of The LORD will strike the U.S.A. The LORD will protect and shield His own.

It is like a "stop-gap" measure to allow for mercy upon the United States of America; for a short time. Blessed are those who embrace the mercy extended to them, at this late hour by the LORD God Almighty; and return to Him by repenting for the forgiveness of their sins through the blood of The LORD Jesus Christ, and thereby walk in righteousness, holiness, truth and complete surrender to the LORD Jesus Christ in preparing the way for the coming of the LORD Jesus Christ.

Barack Obama (together with Pope Francis) will still emerge as the global leader; as the world will look upon him to be their "Savior" in the midst of turmoil, chaos, divisions, crisis and uncertainties.

The true, real Messiah (Savior) is the LORD Jesus Christ the Messiah. Put your trust and hope ONLY in Him; AT ALL TIMES.

"I AM Entrusting You With the Lives of Many."

I received the following word from the Lord in the early morning hours of January 18, 2017. Please pray for interpretation.

After spending time in prayer and study that morning, I still felt there was something more the Lord wanted to tell me. So I sat silently in His presence for a while before eventually getting up to prepare for the day. I'd just entered another room when the Lord began to speak:

> "Proclaim MY Righteousness!
> The birth pains will soon begin.
> During the pains, I AM your focal point.
> Keep your eyes focused ONLY on Me!
> After each, you must draw ever closer to Me.
> Seek My will in preparation for the next.
> I will keep you perfectly aligned for what's coming.
> Do not be concerned about anything – just look to Me.
> Other people's lives will depend on your focus. I AM entrusting you with the lives of many."

I began to tremble and fell to my knees as the seriousness of what the Lord had said hit me full force.

Interpretation:

I felt a sense of urgency to post this immediately, but something within me felt hesitant, so I waited for permission. It was almost mid-day when the Lord gave the answer:

> "This Word is not for the many, but the few."

This word is for a very small group of people. Many lives will depend on their ability to focus on the Great I AM when the calamities begin. This group is being entrusted with the lives of many!

I am to say no more. Again, please pray for interpretation and further revelation.

TELL MY CHILDREN I AM HERE

Message received Jan. 23, 2017

My daughter, I am here, I am here! Do not doubt for a moment that I am with you. Tell all My children I hear every cry of their hearts and I hold every tear. Nothing escapes Me. I know all things as I am the Author of all.

You have been on a long journey, a process of skilled refining by the fiery trials and tribulations of this life. All you have experienced has led up to this moment. This season of great change. Do not doubt for a single moment that all that I have spoken shall come to pass. Soon you will have more clarity concerning My timing and My design. Trust Me. Obey. This is the most precious gift you could offer Me, your radical faith that you believe I am who I am.

The enemy cause unrest and many of My people are unsettled. This is not from Me. I give you My perfect peace, ad ask you to enter into My rest. I Am will bring order out of chaos and it is My perfect love that casts out all fear.

Open your hearts fully to receive My complete indwelling. My remnant, prepare yourselves to receive the full measure of My outpouring as I fill you, My vessels, to overflowing. Your Master is completing the final refining in you, My vessels, to fully equip you for all you are about to do for Me to gather the lost and bring them home. Do not resist these last steps, they are essential to mold and shape you into all I have purposed for you in this life. You are ever so near to the finish line.

Resist the devil and he will flee. Do not believe his lies. Be so careful to not become distracted. Seek Me earnestly for I shall always be found. Continue to give Me your everything, and I will show you wonders you would not have previously believed. I am doing a new and wonderful thing. Such glory awaits those who remain faithful.

I tell you, I am coming for you, I am coming!

Be faithful, remain steadfast, have courage, and believe!

I love you My faithful ones, I love you!

"Everything Has Been Set in Motion and There is No Stopping It!"

JANUARY 17, 2017 3:01 AM BY DIANA PULLIAM 16 COMMENTS

https://z3news.com/w/everything-set-motion-no-stopping/

On January 12th, during an intimate prayer meeting, I received a Word from the Lord. This morning, I was shown it wasn't just for our little group.
We were praying earnestly for the lost in our families, the nation, and the world in general. We prayed for "whatever it takes" to be done in their lives for an awakening to occur. Then we began to shift our prayers toward major events happening all over the world, such as the 70-nation meeting in Paris, and the presidential inauguration just ahead. But something happened, and our prayers came to an abrupt halt.

Suddenly, we could go no further in "our" petitions. The understanding rose simultaneously within our spirits; our will and wishes needed to be realigned. A deep yearning came over us. We earnestly desired ONLY HIS perfect will be done – no matter what it looked like. Since we didn't know specifically how to pray from there, we began praying in the Spirit.

After praying in the Spirit several minutes, we all began to cry out for His Holy, Righteous Judgments to fall upon this Earth! Words of praise and thanksgiving began to pour from our lips, as we looked joyfully toward the coming harvest, which will come as a result of His judgments.

A quietness then came over the group. We each sat down, continuing to pray in soft whispers. It was then I heard the Lord speaking, so I opened my mouth, giving utterance as He spoke the following:

"Everything has been set in motion, and there is no stopping it!"

"The darkness is settling all around, but My Light will rise upon you; and will be seen upon you. Others will be drawn towards the Light – many who are now standing in darkness."

"My Spirit will go forth, will blow across the Earth. This has already begun. I will manifest Myself with signs and mighty wonders. These manifestations will be more than you can even imagine."

Saints, the Word I received had such a sense of finality. The reason my prayer group wasn't able to pray with our human understanding was because everything's already been set in motion, and will not be stopped. The Lord didn't want us praying against His will. After praying in the Spirit, instead of voicing our wimpy requests, all of us were crying out for His Righteous Judgments to come! We felt no fear of what's coming, only complete and total trust in the judgments of our God. Psalms 19:9-10 says, "…The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold…" So, why would we fear the judgments of God?

He's so loving and gentle with His people, giving us a Word that brought such comfort and peace to our hearts that night. Yes, He confirmed it's judgment time. But instead of shaking in fear, we're to focus on what HE is DOING. The Word tells us, "You will keep in perfect peace, he whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You" (Isaiah 26:3).

Look at what happens as darkness settles around us. His LIGHT will RISE UPON US! Many now in darkness will be drawn towards that Light! His Spirit will blow across the Earth, and Jesus will manifest Himself through mighty signs and wonders!

Pay attention Saints! The Lord is answering our prayers!!! We knew this day was coming. Now it's nigh-time to rise and shine!

"A great wind will soon blow across this nation, separating wheat from tares. The narrow road, not chosen by many, will be filled with My redeemed, those who have counted the cost yet continue to follow where I lead. The wide road will be strewn with bodies of the fallen, those who chose to set their own agenda and make their own way prosperous.

Deception, great deception has come upon this nation. Judgment comes swiftly. You have been blinded; you have slept, you have not watched, waited and prayed. As with Peter, James and John you could not watch one hour.

'When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained. They called out in a loud voice, "How long, Sovereign LORD, holy and true, until You judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?' Revelation 6:9-10

The upcoming weeks will see much consternation as evil forces move into position. Disillusioned, defeated millions will search for answers, a quick fix to regain their balance; all the while refusing to seek Me they watch in pained silence the destruction of their dreams and plans. Hope crumbles like a house whose foundation was built on shifting sand but not on a sure foundation. They will not know nor will they recognize the time of their visitation, continuing to search for answers millions will remain disillusioned, defeated and lost.

'Hope deferred make the heart sick.' Proverbs 13:12

The evil one has planned this day since the beginning of time and now, all his plans, his schemes will begin to be manifest. Remnant, are you ready? Do have the faith to believe for what you cannot see? Do you have the strength to stand when all around you is only evil? Do you truly believe that with God all things are possible? Mark 10:27

Evil has invaded your land, your government. Man has sold his soul for fortune and fame. Neither Barack Hussein Obama nor Donald Trump know the truth. Crafty, cunning men of great prowess, both have a part in the evil being perpetrated against this country. Both have a part to play in the entrapment and enslavement of America; groomed, guided, beguiled, chosen from the foundation of the world for such a time as this. Pawns are being moved into position, the stage is set, the actors are in place and soon the greatest performance in the history of mankind will begin. Again I ask, are you ready?

'Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. Joel 2:5-6'

Journal Reveals Pattern of Prophetic Warnings

Sue sent me this...she rarely emails me and even more rarely sends Words from someone else, but she sent me and a few others this Word. This gentleman is a missionary in Kenya...found that on his FB page. Here is the Word: (my highlights bolded)

https://www.facebook.com/JeffreyKyleStewart/posts/10202716271904599

The Lord Jesus says:

You are a privileged generation.
You are a generation that makes Me immensely proud.

For it is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more revelation than any previous generation.

It is THIS generation that will walk in FAR more anointing than any previous generation.

The END of a thing is better than the beginning. (Eccl 7:8)

The Days of the Church that you are about to see will far exceed its beginning days recorded in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the things I did in the Book of Acts.

You look in awe at the power the Church in the Book of Acts walked in.

I tell you that what My Church is about to walk in shall cause the Church in Acts to be pale in comparison.

The Church you are about to see will walk in far more love, far more unity, and far more anointing than the early church ever imagined.

My prayer for the church to be ONE, even as I and the Father are one, in John 17 will be answered in your generation, just as every prayer I pray is answered. Yes, many of you will see this and rejoice. As will I. What is impossible for man is easily possible for My Father. My People WILL BE ONE just as My Father and I are one. Just as it is in Heaven.

From this unity will flow unified prayer as you have never seen. Just as I honored such prayer with a mighty outpouring of My Spirit in Acts 2:2 and Acts 4:31, I shall honor these unified prayers with a great outpouring that will shake cities as I shook Jerusalem.

The Great Commission will be fulfilled in this generation.

You will see this and rejoice.

My people will walk in such anointing, that:

One will enter a town and every demon will flee. Even demons in people who are possessed will not be able to remain. (sorry, this is my favorite line :)

Another will walk in such anointing that he will enter a hospital, AND EVERY sick person in that hospital shall be healed.

When I turned water into wine, the master of the banquet said that he normally served the best wine first, but at that wedding, he saved the best wine for last.

I tell you, I have saved the BEST DAYS OF THE CHURCH FOR LAST.

I have saved the GREATEST MIRACLES for last, too.

The miracles you saw in the days of Moses, as great as they were, even the splitting of the Red Sea, shall pale in comparison to what you are ABOUT to see.

The miracles you saw in the Days of Joshua, as great as they were, even the stopping of the Sun and the Moon in the sky, shall look SMALL in comparison to what I am ABOUT to do.

Before I return, every person on earth WILL KNOW that the Gospel is true. They may not all accept it, but they will be WITHOUT excuse. (this is what He will show during the 3 DoD IMO)

I am IMMENSELY proud of you.
You are a HIGHLY HONORED generation.

Men from the past longed to see what you will see.

You are the final runners in the relay race.

You are My "A" Team.

Those who came before you are trusting you with the baton.

I am confident you will complete the race before you.

You will make Me proud.

You were created for this day and this time. You will see the Church be what I meant for her to be. You will see this and rejoice. As will I.

“The Bomb Will Come from the East, Not on American Soil”

JANUARY 6, 2017 12:33 AM BY SHERRY GORSLIN 1 COMMENT

I received the following word from the Lord on January 5, 2017:

> “The time of preparation is not over. Do not get discouraged or live in despair, but continue this path. I need you to continue this path. Today you trust Me, and hear My voice, for tomorrow you know not what comes.”

As I was praying I kept seeing and hearing a bomb. Then I heard this:

> “This will set in motion what must be. The bomb will come from the east. It will not be on American soil. It shall be set off to begin war. The angel of war is at hand, directing and guiding those that will listen. Evil is still in place, and much is being done behind closed doors.
> Know this, that Obama’s hand is upon this and he deliberates with those who desire this to be. Trump and all his cabinet are there to fight for you. I have set in place those that will see beyond the deception to the truth.
> Watch the hour, because it is near; watch the nations as they come together and then divide. Sides are being taken and war is coming soon; war that you will feel here in the United State; war that every nation will come to know.
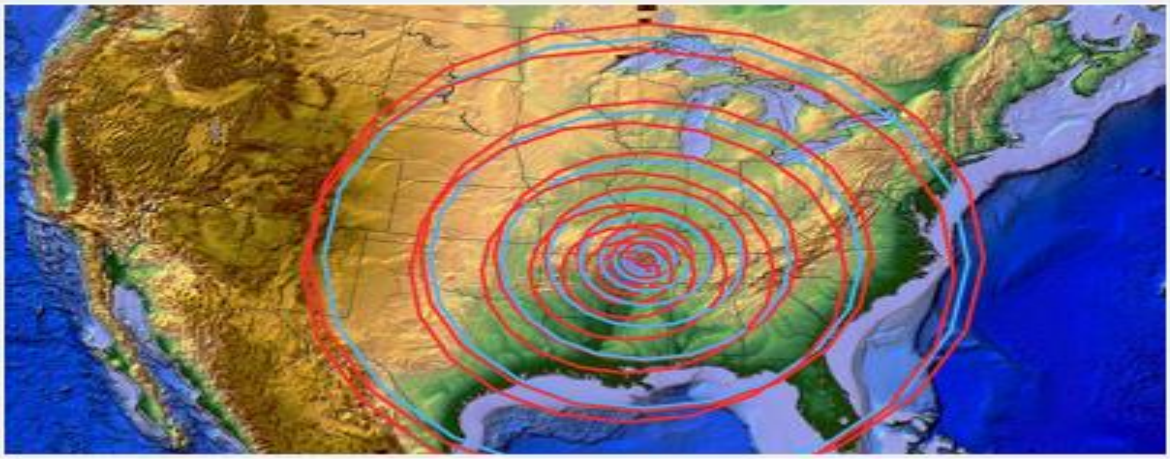
> Keep your eyes on Israel and who sides with them. Your nation will be divided, not only on principles, but on land. States will come together, and sides will be chosen. Look for this. I have told you so.”

Prophetic Dream Warns of 9.5 Earthquake in United States

DECEMBER 9, 2016 11:52 AM BY ELIZABETH MARIE 85 COMMENTS



In November 2016, I dreamed I was with a bunch a people and somehow I knew we were in the southern part of the U.S.A. We were all standing outside, almost frozen with fear as we waited.

There had been a HUGE earthquake in the north and we were all filled with dread knowing we were about to feel its effects. It seemed like we were to be the last location that was going feel it coming. I told everyone to hang on.

Then, all of a sudden, while waiting for this earthquake to happen, I had a vision within the dream. I saw an outline map of America. I didn't see the state lines, but only the outline of the U.S. Then, the map zoomed to where the earthquake started and I saw a black dot pulsating on the epicenter. The dot was in the upper part of the middle of the country, however, I wasn't sure of which state. It seemed higher than the New Madrid fault. Then I saw '9.5' indicating the level on the Richter Scale. I was not given any dates or timing.

Interpretation:

I believe this dream has a couple of interpretations—dual meanings:

I believe this earthquake might have to do with the New Madrid fault and a massive earthquake occurring that will shake the whole country. A few days after the dream, I saw the U.N. voted for a two-state solution in Israel. The LORD then reminded me of this dream and I knew it was related. So, I believe this has something to to do with the division of Israel. Whoever divides HIS land will comes in harms- way according to Scripture.

I believe this is about a great divide coming (and has already begun) in the U.S., as we see the lines between good and evil become more and more distinct. This earthquake could unleash more civil unrest in our nation, our communities, as well as within our own families. JESUS said a house divided cannot stand (Mark3:25). I believe that also applies to a nation.

NOTE:
The largest earthquake ever recorded was in 1960–a 9.5 in Chile.

Scripture References:

"I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will enter into judgment with them there on account of My people, My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; they have also divided up My land." (Joel 3:2)

“Soon My Spirit Will Flood the Earth Like a Huge Ocean Wave”

DECEMBER 19, 2016 8:18 PM BY KEVIN BARRETT 9 COMMENTS

In my time with the Lord, He said these words to me: “Son, tell My people to seek Me like never before.”

Word from the Lord:

“My people, you are on the threshold of a new era. So many things are about to suddenly change, in both your nation and your individual lives.

For I am preparing and setting the stage for My end-time events. Some of you will be greatly used in these events and My kingdom ministries, yet many others shall only be dismayed. Yet, I tell you now; it does not have to be this way. For if you would render your hearts unto Me, and lay down your lives at My feet, then I shall do a quick work within you.

However, for those who refuse to lay everything down, I give you this warning; soon My Spirit will flood the earth like a huge ocean wave. And if you are not walking in My will, your life as you know it shall come crashing down.

Howbeit, for those walking in My will, this coming wave of My Spirit shall lift you up and carry you to the fullness of your destiny in Christ, so long as you continue walking with Me and endure to the end.

So then, listen well to Me this day when I say repent and repent quickly. For if you are walking in sin and rebellion when this wave comes, it may be your demise when it hits you. Oh, it is not I who shall do this to you, yet you will be snared by your own doings.

But for those walking in obedience when this wave comes; I say get ready to be swept off your feet and into My Spirit. For I shall carry you far above the woes of this world.

Now, this does not mean that you shall be without trials and testings. Yet, My peace which passes all understanding shall carry you. And I shall always make a way for you to fulfill My will and purposes in the earth realm.

Oh, My dearest little ones, My heart is thrilled regarding the days that are ahead. For even though there will be many calamities and woes, there shall also be the greatest move of My Spirit this world has ever experienced. And many souls shall enter into My kingdom in these last days. So then, prepare your hearts before Me and allow My Spirit to make the right adjustments in your attitudes and thinking. And if you give all to Me and allow Me to do this work in you, you shall be thrilled beyond what you have ever imagined. Oh, how I love you all with an everlasting love. And it thrills Me to thrill the hearts of My people. So then, lay everything at My feet and seek Me in your prayer closets. Surely, I will answer you, for I am waiting…”

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

By PRECY DUMLAO () Dec 08, 2015 05:53 PM EST 4 Comments

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

‘Come after me’: Pennsylvania pol goes off on ‘gibbon’ Trump in profanity-laced Facebook post

Gabby Kaufman
Staff Writer
Yahoo News February 8, 2017

Pennsylvania state Sen. Daylin Leach went after President Trump on Tuesday, branding him a “fascist, loofa-faced, s-gibbon,” and challenging him to “come after me.”

Leach, a Philadelphia-area Democrat, posted a Politico report on Facebook about the president’s recent White House meeting with county sheriffs from across the country. During the meeting, one sheriff brought up civil asset forfeiture, a practice allowing law enforcement to seize money and property belonging to individuals accused of committing a crime, even before a verdict is handed down.

The sheriff, from Rockwall County, Texas, griped about a Texas state senator seeking to change the law so that a conviction would be required before a suspect’s assets could be seized.

The sheriff joked that “the cartel would build a monument” to the legislator.

“Who is the state senator? Do you want to give his name? We’ll destroy his career,” Trump responded.

Possible Reptilian Photo Allegedly Brings Down 4chan

5 Comments | February 25, 2017 | Paul Seaburn

> Psst. Wanna see a selfie of a reptilian? Oops, it's gone, along with the website where it was posted. And I suddenly don't feel too good. Do you?

Before we get started, write down on a piece of paper your prediction of how many times this post will use forms of caveat words like "allegedly," "possibly" and "reputedly."

Where should we begin on this story? According to a number of reports, a photograph reputedly of a reptilian alien taken outside of Luke Air Force Base was posted to 4chan on Thursday. Within minutes, the entire website was allegedly taken offline and all copies of the photograph mysteriously disappeared, except for one.

For the uninitiated, 4chan is the highly controversial imageboard site associated with a wide variety of equally controversial and nefarious groups and famous for its pranks, like Rickrolling. Luke Air Force Base is an active USAF base located 15 miles west of Phoenix, Arizona. Reptilians are alleged shape-shifting humanoid aliens who reputedly control the world from underground bases and are said to be related to most of the world's leaders. Caught up?

According to various accounts, an anonymous thread titled "24489 Taken Aprox 24 miles north west of Luke Airforce Base Phoenix Az. Lab H4C" was begun between on 4chan's /pol/ board between 12am and 2am on February 23rd. It included a picture of an alien which was said to have yellow scales, black eyes and small pursed lips and was looking directly at the camera in a classic selfie pose. Reports say the thread was only up for a few minutes before the 4chan channel went offline. When it returned, all traces of the photo and thread were gone.

Travis Walton Says "Aliens Accidentally Killed me but Took my Corpse onto UFO to Save my Life." Video, UFO Sighting News.

Here the video talks about how Travis Walton of the famous UFO case Fire In The Sky reveals that he was taken aboard the alien craft because when he got too close to the UFO, a burst of energy camera from it, probably from the anti gravity propulsion, and killed him. The aliens then took him aboard the UFO and brought him back to life. This is the very reason that humans and aliens need to make open public contact so that such resources as medical technology, food technology and fuel technology can be shared to improve the quality of life across the globe for all.

The door to the Survival Condo closes slowly, sending a resounding thud through the concrete parking garage.

Those inside have surrounded themselves with walls up to 9 feet thick, ready to withstand a nuclear explosion, the eruption of Yellowstone's supervolcano or an outbreak of avian flu.

Larry Hall, project manager and owner of the Luxury Survival Condo Project, says he feels safer with the doors closed.

He says he's sold all 12 luxury condos in the former Atlas missile silo — which once housed a nuclear warhead — not far from Concordia, about two hours north of Wichita. He's working on a second silo.

A full-floor unit is 1,820 square feet and costs $3 million. A half-floor unit, at 900 square feet, costs $1.5 million.

Survival is a unifying cause. Hall said his owners come from a variety of political beliefs and include people in international business, architecture, law and medicine. He said the owners don't do interviews; efforts to reach them were unsuccessful.

A Melbourne man who authorities said hopped out of his car on a busy causeway and then stripped naked in the rain before wrestling with several police officers in front of onlookers, remains under a mental evaluation Thursday.

The unusual incident happened about 3 p.m., Wednesday as heavy rains and winds whipped through the area. Melbourne Police Lt. Steven Sadoff said the unidentified man was driving along the Eau Gallie Causeway when he stopped and got out of the vehicle.

"He pulled over and took off all of his clothes on top of the causeway. Then he started running around yelling, 'I am God,'" Sadoff said.

LGTB Affirming Churches Add Glitter To Ash Wednesday

BY PNW STAFF MARCH 01, 2017

Share this article:

Last month it was the Anglicans who chose to "queer the liturgy" of evening prayer in honor LGTB history month by renaming the Holy Spirit "The Fantabulosa Fairy" and God the Father became "the Dutchess".

Not to be outdone, Catholic LGTB supporters and numerous left leaning protestant churches throughout the United States and Canada intend to show their support by wearing "glitter ash" on their foreheads to mark Ash Wednesday.

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, a period that extends until Easter Sunday where Catholics and some Protestants ceremoniously place plain gray ashes on their foreheads, often in the formation of a cross, to spread a message of repentance and change which often involve fasting, moderation and self-denial.

A New York-based advocacy group called Parity however, is asking Christians who favor LGBT equality -- "queer positive Christians," as they call them -- to show support by wearing "glitter ash" on their foreheads.

The Parity website promotes the glitter with the following:

"Ashes are an in-your-face statement that death and suffering are real.
The glitter will be a sign of our hope, which does not despair.
The glitter will signal our promise to repent, to show up, to witness, to work.
Glitter never gives up -- and neither do we."

Video of a man, who had been shot in the face, claiming to work with Lucifer as he walked around a Brazilian hospital has led people to speculate that the man is "possessed by the devil". Another man can be heard reciting prayers in the background.

The incident took place in Miguel Couto Municipal Hospital, a public hospital in Rio de Janeiro on Monday.

Noticiandopb reports that the man was shot in the cheek. The video shows him wandering around in the corridor with his body contorted either in pain or perhaps, as news site CanalR1 claims, from the effects of drugs.

Voodoo used to force women into sex trade - Austrian police

Voodoo rituals are being used to force women into prostitution, according to Austrian police, who have arrested two Nigerian nationals on suspicion of human trafficking.

The two suspects - one male one female, are considered leading members of a criminal organization - were arrested by Austrian authorities in Vienna, and accused of engaging in the international sex trade.

Police spokesman Johann Baumschlager said Tuesday that at least 10 young Nigerian women were forced into the sex trade in part by "a voodoo priest, who made them submissive through certain rites." The women worked as hairdressers in their home country, according to Der Standard.

The victims had been intimidated and threatened with death if they did not comply with the organization's orders, OE24 reported.

Baumschlager revealed that the women were told they each owed €50,000 ($53,000) to cover the costs of their move to Europe and that they needed to work off the debt through prostitution. The women had hardly any money left to provide for themselves, according to police.

The pair who were arrested are not being named due to Austrian privacy laws, but the man is reportedly cooperating with police while the woman denies the allegations.

Last year, six refugee women from Nigeria were rescued by Austria's anti-human trafficking force after being sold into forced prostitution. The women reportedly believed they were under a voodoo curse and were particularly submissive for fear their families would suffer the consequences.

Woman fatally burned in suspected exorcism in Nicaragua

MANAGUA:A 25-year-old woman died Tuesday after being tied up and thrown on a flaming pyre in Nicaragua in what authorities said was suspected to be a deadly exorcism ritual.

Vilma Trujillo succumbed in hospital to the horrific burns inflicted on her a week ago by neighbors in her remote community who believed she was possessed by a demon, Nicaragua´s first lady and vice president, Rosario Murillo, told state media.

The crime, which took place February 22 in the northeastern village of El Cortezal, was "deplorable and to be condemned," Murillo said.According to information given by family and feminist groups to Nicaraguan media, Trujillo was grabbed by a man named Juan Rocha passing himself off as a pastor in an evangelical group called the Church of the Assembly of God.

Rocha and other people tied up Trujillo and threw her naked onto a heap of flaming logs. Relatives rescued her hours later, her body severely burned.Rocha, arrested by police, insisted the woman was "possessed," but he denied burning her. He claimed she had been held aloft by the supposed demonic spirit that then fell into the flames.

It's become increasingly apparent that Donald Trump's administration wants to make religion inescapable, even for secularists. Education secretary Betsy DeVos has donated millions of dollars to private religious schools and once described her education reform as a mission to "advance God's kingdom." Vice President Mike Pence, a born-again evangelical Christian who cast the tie-breaking vote in DeVos' Senate confirmation, also has a history of using politics to advance his religious agenda; last month he became the first vice president to speak at the annual anti-abortion March for Life, and has long waged war against Planned Parenthood in his home state of Indiana. Then there's Ben Carson, nominated as secretary of Housing and Urban Development – a creationist who once said the theory of evolution was encouraged by Satan.

In Revelation 11, we learn about the two witnesses who will come to earth to prophesy for 1,260 days (three and a half prophetic years). We are told that after they are killed, a great earthquake hits Jerusalem. It causes tremendous damage and kills 7,000 people.

A giant crack that could release a chunk of ice larger than the state of Rhode Island into the sea was captured in stunning detail in new video footage of Antarctica's Larsen C Ice Shelf.

The stunning overhead video shows a lengthy and wide gash in the never-ending white of the ice shelf, a rift estimated to have grown to nearly 109 miles (175 kilometers) long, based on satellite data released in January. The rift is about 1,500 feet (460 meters) wide.

Scientists estimate it could take just months for that huge iceberg to break off the shelf. [Images of Melt: Earth's Vanishing Ice]

"Although the event could occur anywhere from days to years, the iceberg is likely to break free within the next few months simply because the leverage of 175 km [109 miles] of iceberg on [around] 20 km [12 miles] of what remains connected to the ice shelf is overwhelming," MIDAS scientists wrote in a blog post on Feb. 6. "We are watching with bated breath."

The British Antarctic Survey shot the video on Feb. 8 during a flight in a Twin Otter aircraft to collect scientific equipment for scientists participating in the MIDAS Project, focused on monitoring ice shelves.

What happened to winter? Weather defies the calendar

(CNN) — It's 60 degrees at 8 a.m., and it already feels too hot for jeans. The birds are chirping, the flowers are blooming, there is a noticeable layer of pollen on cars -- and it's still February!

This month continues to defy the calendar, with over 4,400 record highs stretching from the northern US border to the south since February 1. In that same timeframe, only 29 record lows have been recorded.

Study claims 50 percent chance of major chill before end of the century.

A major impact on the climate of the region is predicted [NASA]

For thousands of years, parts of northwestern Europe have enjoyed temperatures as much as 5 degrees Celsius above those of similar latitudes elsewhere in the northern hemisphere.

Now, a study by a British and French team of climate scientists has challenged the previously held notion that any significant change in temperatures here was unlikely before the end of the century.

Writing in Nature Communications journal the team judged the chance of a significant change in the region as being as high as 50 percent.

They reanalysed data from 40 climate change predictions, used by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) in 2013, which had concluded that any rapid cooling in the North Atlantic was unlikely before 2100.

An algorithm, developed by the team, was able to detect fluctuations in sea surface temperatures (SSTs). Using it, they found that seven out of 40 climate models predicted a complete shutdown in ocean convection in the Labrador Sea between Canada's Labrador Peninsula and Greenland.

At least three people have been killed after tornadoes touched down across the upper Midwest and northern Arkansas on Tuesday.

Compact but strong storms known as supercells raked parts of the central US throughout the day, causing damage from Arkansas to Iowa and Illinois. Wind-whipped wildfires destroyed homes in Texas.

In Ottawa, Illinois, state Emergency Management Agency spokeswoman Patti Thompson said a tornado victim was killed by an uprooted tree. Elsewhere in Illinois, a 71-year-old man was killed in Ottawa. His wife was also injured.

Thirteen days before Christmas, somewhere in the frigid waters of the Bering Sea, a massive volcano unexpectedly rumbled back to life.

Just like that, Bogoslof volcano began its first continuous eruption since 1992, belching great plumes of ash tens of thousands of feet into the cold sky over the Aleutian islands, generating volcanic lightning, and disrupting air travel—though not much else.

The volcano is on a tiny island about 60 miles west of Unalaska, which is the largest city in the Aleutians. It has a population of about 5,000 people.

Bogoslof hasn't quieted yet. One explosion, in early January, sent ash 33,000 feet into the air. Weeks later, another eruption lasted for hours, eventually sprinkling enough ash on the nearby city to collect on car windshields and dust the snow-white ground with a sulfurous layer of gray. Over the course of two months, Bogoslof's intermittent eruptions have caused the island to triple in size so far, as fragments of rock and ash continue to pile atop one another.

Bacterial infection linked to rat urine in NYC

3 people have gotten sick, and one of the victims died, after coming into contact with rat urine in the Bronx.

NEW YORK (FOX5NY) - A cluster of cases of a rare bacterial infection that is spread by contact with rat urine has killed one person and sickened two others in the Bronx. The infection can develop into an illness that affects the victim's kidneys and liver.

The New York City Health Department says all of the cases are linked to one block in the Concourse area of the borough. While one person has died, the other two have recovered and are doing well, according to health officials.

Leptospirosis is a bacterial infection that is most commonly spread by contact with rat urine and is very rarely spread from person to person.

The worst outbreak of bird flu in years has killed almost a 100 people in China! The death toll since the start of the year has been unmatched in years

RSOE ALERT MAP Click on image to enlarge red squares indicate human cases of bird flu.

China is ordering the closure of live poultry markets in its south-central regions where the worst outbreak of bird flu in years has killed almost a 100 people.

State media reported Friday that the National Health and Family Planning Commission ordered closures anywhere that cases of the H7N7 strain had been detected.

Most reported cases have been found in the densely-populated Yangtze and Pearl river deltas that generally experience mild, wet winters that are ideal for the virus's transmission.

The death toll since the start of the year has been unmatched since at least 2013.

In addition to the market closures, the commission is training health workers in the screening, early diagnosis and treatment of the disease, while urging people to avoid contact with live birds.

Yellow fever responsible for killing thousands of monkeys in Brazil is now killing humans: Brazil issued emergency situations for 63 cities

- Officials declared emergency situation in 64 cities in Minas Gerais and are sending millions of extra doses of vaccines to three states days before Carnival.

SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL – The federal government of Brazil has issued emergency situations for 63 cities in Minas Gerais and one in Espirito Santo due to the outbreak of yellow fever.

Since the beginning of the year authorities have confirmed 44 people died of the disease and over seventy other suspected deaths are being investigated.

At least 30 people have died in the Brazilian state of Minas Germ over the past week due to yellow fever, while the total number of suspected cases has risen to 110, health authorities confirmed Thursday.

According to the state's Secretariat of Health, among the 30 dead, 10 have been proven to be caused by the disease, while all the others tested positive for yellow fever.

The outbreak seemed to be getting worse as the number of cases has risen from 48 to 110 over the last week.

Yellow fever is an acute viral disease which can kill a sufferer in less than a week if not treated timely.

It is mainly transmitted by the bite of an infected female mosquito.

Yellow fever is also commonly found in monkeys but now appears to be infecting humans as yellow fever is thought to be behind the death of thousands of rare monkeys found in the rain forests of Brazil

The outbreak started last year in South America and has now spread to humans killing nearly a hundred people this year already.

The authorities have rushed vaccines to hospitals, where long queues await inoculation.

Stockman: "After March 15 Everything Will Grind To A Halt"

by Tyler Durden
Feb 26, 2017 3:50 PM

141 SHARES

Two weeks after David Stockman warned that "the market is apparently pricing in a huge Trump stimulus. But if you just look at the real world out there, the only thing that's going to happen is a fiscal bloodbath and a White House train wreck like never before in U.S. history" and exclaimed that, when looking at markets, "what's going on today is complete insanity" he is back with another interview, this time with Creg Hunter of USAWatchdog in which he, once again warns, that a giant fiscal bloodbatch is coming soon, and urges listeners to pay especially close attention to the March 15, 2017 debt ceiling deadling, at which point everything could "grind to a halt."

As Creg Hunter writes, former Reagan Administration White House Budget Director David Stockman says financial pain is a mathematical certainty. Stockman explains, "I think we are likely to have more of a fiscal bloodbath rather than fiscal stimulus. Unfortunately for Donald Trump, not only did the public vote the establishment out, they left on his doorstep the inheritance of 30 years of debt build-up and a fiscal policy that's been really reckless in the extreme. People would like to think he's the second coming of Ronald Reagan and we are going to have morning in America. Unfortunately, I don't think it looks that promising because Trump is inheriting a mess that pales into insignificance what we had to deal with in January of 1981 when I joined the Reagan White House as Budget Director."

So, can the Trump bump in the stock market keep going? Stockman, who wrote a book titled "Trumped" predicting a Trump victory in 2016, says, "I don't think there is a snowball's chance in the hot place that's going to happen. This is delusional. This is the greatest suckers' rally of all time. It is based on pure hopium and not any analysis at all as what it will take to push through a big tax cut. Donald Trump is in a trap. Today the debt is $20 trillion. It's 106% of CDP. . . .Trump is inheriting a built-in deficit of $10 trillion over the next decade under current policies that are built in. Yet, he wants more defense spending, not less. He wants drastic sweeping tax cuts for corporations and individuals. He wants to spend more money on border security and law enforcement. He's going to do more for the veterans. He wants this big trillion dollar infrastructure program. You put all that together and it's madness. It doesn't even begin to add up, and it won't happen when you are struggling with the $10 trillion of debt that's coming down the pike and the $20 trillion that's already on the books."

Then, Stockman drops this bomb and says:

> "I think what people are missing is this date, March 15th 2017. That's the day that this debt ceiling holiday that Obama and Boehner put together right before the last election in October of 2015. That holiday expires. The debt ceiling will freeze in at $20 trillion. It will then be law. It will be a hard stop. The Treasury will have roughly $200 billion in cash. We are burning cash at a $75 billion a month rate. By summer, they will be out of cash. Then we will be in the mother of all debt ceiling crises. Everything will grind to a halt. I think we will have a government shutdown. There will not be Obama Care repeal and replace. There will be no tax cut. There will be no infrastructure stimulus. There will be just one giant fiscal bloodbath over a debt ceiling that has to be increased and no one wants to vote for."

Stockman also predicts very positive price moves for gold and silver as a result of the coming budget calamity.

There is much more in the video interview below in which Creg Hunter goes One-on-One with David Stockman.

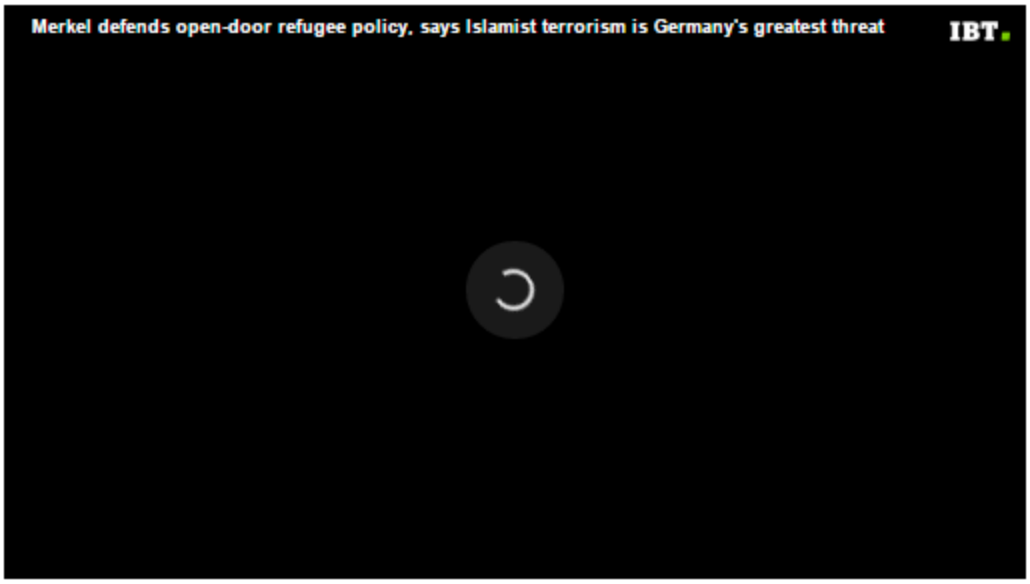
How Many Muslims In The World? Islam Set To Overtake Christianity As Most Popular Religion, While US Population Also Rapidly Growing

BY JASON LE MIERE ON 02/28/17 AT 11:10 AM



Islam is the fastest growing religion in the world and will overtake Christianity as the most popular before the end of this century, according to an analysis of religious surveys published Tuesday by the Pew Research Center.

With 1.6 billion, Muslims made up 23 percent of the world's population, according to a 2010 Pew estimate. That figure was still some way short of the 2.2 billion Christians which comprised 31 percent of the population.

However, by 2050 there could be near parity between the numbers of adherents of the two religions for the first time in history. The reasons for this rapid growth are thought to be the greater number of children Muslims have compared to other religious groups and the comparatively young age of Muslims.

PROTESTERS FREAK OUT, YELL "LUCIFER!" AFTER GOP TOWN HALL OPENS WITH A PRAYER

Liberal protesters became enraged when a Louisiana town hall with Republican Sen. Bill Cassidy opened with a prayer earlier this week, screaming at the chaplain as he tried to lead the crowd in prayer.

The protesters, who were there with a local chapter of anti-Trump group Indivisible, can be heard groaning and shouting as the chaplain says, "In God we trust." One man can be heard saying, "Pray on your own time!" Others shouted incredulously, "Prayer? Prayer?"

Video of the event, first reported by The Washington Free Beacon, reveals one woman shouting the name "Lucifer" while the chaplain invokes God's name. Other, non-protesting attendees can be heard trying to shush the protesters.

Protesters can be heard shouting about "separation of church and state" throughout the prayer. They became especially furious when the chaplain closed the prayer "in Jesus's name."

Egypt's Coptic Christians flee Sinai after killings

Flight of families to Ismailiya follows warning of attacks by ISIL and murders targeting community in El Arish.

Hundreds of members of Egypt's Coptic Christian minority have fled the Sinai Peninsula to Ismailiya city, 115km northeast of the capital Cairo, following a series of targeted killings by a local armed group.

The assailants have shot and killed at least seven Christians in separate attacks in Sinai's El Arish city in February.

At least 90 families have reached the Ismailiya governorate, according to an official of the Coptic Orthodox Church.

Fault Lines: The battle for the Sinai

"The government helped find housing for some families and we rented apartments for the rest," Father Kyrillos Ibrahim told DPA news agency from Ismailiya on Sunday.

Each of the 90 families includes on average five members, according to him.

"It is hard to estimate if there will be more families coming, it depends how bad the situation is. We hope this is a temporary situation," Ibrahim said.

US President Donald Trump has said he believes Barack Obama is behind a wave of protests against Republican lawmakers, and national security leaks.

He told Fox News: "I think President Obama's behind it because his people are certainly behind it", but added: "I also think it's just politics."

Mr Trump offered no evidence for his claims and his predecessor in the White House has not commented.

The president also spoke about his budget plans and other issues.

President Trump's interview was broadcast hours before he is due to give his first address to a joint session of Congress.

A senior White House official told the BBC the president would talk about a "renewal of the American spirit", offering an "optimistic vision".

Perez Says Democratic Party's Message Will Be Carried Out Through Lawsuits Against Trump

The newly elected chair of the Democratic National Committee, Tom Perez, said Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press" that the Democratic Party's message will be carried out in part through lawsuits against President Trump.

Perez, the former secretary of labor under President Obama, made the comment after host Chuck Todd asked if he is content with the Democratic Party being known as the party of "no."

"Are you comfortable with the Democrats being known as the party of 'no?'" Todd asked.

Perez side-stepped the question, arguing the Democratic Party is the "party of opportunity and inclusion."

"We are going to communicate our message, whether it is through lawsuits like the state attorneys general did to stop the Muslim ban," Perez said. "Whether it is through actions like at the polls yesterday in Delaware and hopefully in April in congressional district six right here in Georgia."

Perez went on to list what the party message will be, citing wage increases, greater health care access, and more opportunity for the middle class.

Iran holds naval war games amid rising tensions with U.S.

DUBAI (Reuters) - Iran launched naval drills at the mouth of the Gulf and the Indian Ocean on Sunday, a naval commander said, as tensions with the United States escalated after U.S President Donald Trump put Tehran "on notice".

Since taking office last month, Trump has pledged to get tough with Iran, warning the Islamic Republic after its ballistic missile test on Jan. 29 that it was playing with fire and all U.S. options were on the table.

Iran's annual exercises will be held in the Strait of Hormuz, the Gulf of Oman, the Bab el-Mandab and northern parts of the Indian Ocean, to train in the fight against terrorism and piracy, Rear Admiral Habibollah Sayyari said, according to state media.

Millions of barrels of oil are transported daily to Europe, the United States and Asia through the Bab el-Mandab and the Strait of Hormuz, waterways that run along the coasts of Yemen and Iran.

Navy ships, submarines and helicopters will take part in the drills across an area of about 2 million square kilometers (772,000 square miles) and marines will showcase their skills along Iran's southeastern coast, the state news agency IRNA said.

The U.S. Navy's Fifth Fleet is based in the region and protects shipping lanes in the Gulf and nearby waters.

Iran's Ahmadinejad writes open letter to Trump

Tehran (AFP) - Iran's ex-president Mahmud Ahmadinejad published Sunday an open letter to Donald Trump, welcoming his criticism of the US political system but taking issue with his visa ban and attitude to women.

Many Iranians see the new US president as cut from the same cloth as Ahmadinejad, who shocked the establishment with his sudden rise to power in 2005, combining hardline rhetoric and populist economic policies to win a powerful following among Iran's lower classes.

At times in the long and rambling letter, published in English and Farsi on his website, he appears to find a kindred spirit in Trump.

"Your Excellency (Trump) has truthfully described the US political system and electoral structure as corrupt and anti-public," he writes.

But much of the letter is spent exhorting Trump to end interventions in the Middle East and ditch the "arrogance" of past US administrations.

Ahmadinejad also takes issue with Trump's visa ban on seven Muslim-majority countries, including Iran.

New Church Law in Egypt Infringes on Rights of Christians

Earlier this week, Egyptian media reported that at least 38 Christian families had fled Sinai due to increasing attacks by extremists. The families have been relocated to the neighboring Ismailia province and are being provided help by the Coptic church and the government.

At least seven Christians have reportedly died as a result of escalating violence in Sinai.

Egypt has been fighting a jihadist insurgency in northern Sinai since the army, led by Sisi, overthrew then Islamist president Mohamed Morsi in 2013. Police and security forces have been the target of deadly attacks by Islamists in the area.

In 2014, Sinai's indigenous militants pledged allegiance to Daesh terrorist group. The self-proclaimed Wilayat Sinai has subsequently claimed responsibility for a number of deadly attacks in the area.

Pope Francis Is Warned Against Betraying China's Underground Church

Feb 24, 2017 | 2:37 PM

Cardinal Joseph Zen, the retired Bishop of Hong Kong, has warned the Vatican against forging an agreement with the Chinese government that would grant it significant power over the Catholic Church in the country. Cardinal Zen has stated that he would consider any such deal a betrayal by the Holy See of the underground Catholic faithful in China.

It is estimated that millions of Catholics in China are forced to worship underground as they refuse to register with the state's official Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association (CPA). These "underground" Catholics recognize the authority of the Holy See and opt to worship clandestinely due to the risk of harassment from authorities. Meanwhile, the communist-approved Chinese Patriotic Catholic Association operates under the supervision of the central government and the activities of its clerics are strictly monitored.

Cardinal Joseph Zen, an outspoken critic of Beijing, prays outside China Liaison Office to demand religious freedom in China during a protest in Hong Kong July 11, 2012.

Cardinal Zen has explained that priests and bishops in the so-called underground church have been thrown in jail for submitting to the Holy See rather than the state-overseen church. If a deal is approved between the Chinese government and the Catholic authorities in Rome, it is feared that the agreement would amount to an official recognition by the Vatican of the government-controlled Church. The deal would grant the government the power to nominate bishops, although Beijing would have to submit its nominees to the Pope for ultimate acceptance or rejection.

(Daily Post) — The youth wing of the Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN), 19 Northern states, yesterday said over 900 churches have been lost to Boko haram terrorism in the North east.

It therefore urged the Federal Government to rebuild the churches and also re-establish Nigeria Inter Religion Council (NIREC) with a view to curbing incessant religious violence in the country.

Speaking after its National Executive Council (NEC) meeting held in Gusau, Zamfara State, the youth wing Chairman, Evangelist Musa Misal, noted that demolished churches that needed to be rebuilt were spread across Gombe, Yobe, Adamawa, Borno, among others.

Indian Pastor Assaulted by Hindu Extremists

HYDERABAD, India (Morning Star News) – A week after a pastor fell into a coma following harassment by hard-line Hindus in southern India, a gang of Hindu extremists in the same state beat another pastor after he prayed for healing at the home of an elderly church member, family members said.

Police altered the statement of Gandham Padma Rao, 49, so that the 10 young men who assaulted him on Jan. 27 in Medipally village, Telangana state, were described only as drunken youths, not members of a Hindu nationalist group as the pastor had stated, his son told Morning Star News.

Pastor Rao fulfilled church duties the two days after the assault before seeking medical help, and doctors told family members that his blood pressure was so high that he could have suffered a hemorrhage had he waited any longer. Another pastor, 47-year-old K.A. Swamy of Hyderabad, on Jan. 21 fell into a coma after suffering high blood pressure and a brain hemorrhage hours after Hindu extremists threatened him with highly offensive language and took him to police for distributing Bibles.

Pastor Rau's son, Samuel Mark, told Morning Star News his father had left the home of the elderly church member, who had just been released from a hospital, at about 9:30 p.m. and was walking to his car when the young men blocked his way with their motorcycles.

When the pastor ignored them and began walking on the other side of the road, one of the assailants shouted, "Why are you coming to our village? Why are you praying here?" as four others began hitting him, knocking him to the ground, relatives said.

Pastor Rao and eyewitnesses said the youths were members of the Hindu nationalist Vishwa Hindu Vahini.

MOSUL, Iraq — Members of the barbaric Islamic group ISIS, which identifies itself as the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria, recently cut off the hands of two children for refusing to execute civilians.

Alsumaria News reports that the incident occurred in the ISIS-occupied territory of Mosul, being tipped off by an anonymous source.

"The Islamic State's leaders issued orders to train a group of children on fighting in the group's camps in Nables neighborhood, in the western side of Nineveh," it outlined. "Meanwhile, members of the Islamic State terrorist group amputated the hands of two children for refusing to carry out the execution sentence on two civilians in front of their families."

The children were between 10 and 12 years old.

As previously reported, just last month, a mother and her four children were reportedly burned alive in Kirkuk for leaving the jurisdiction of the caliphate.

"Members of the Islamic State burned a whole family that consisted of a mother and four children (three girls and a 9-month-old boy) in Hawija, for leaving the land of caliphate and fleeing toward Kirkuk," Iraqi News outlined on Jan. 14, citing a source who desired to remain anonymous.

It said that the family was captured while fleeing the area, and then bound, doused with crude oil, and set ablaze.

China's Largest Megachurch Ex-Pastor Arrested by Authorities for Supporting Religious Freedom

A Chinese megapastor has been arrested on charges of embezzling funds, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. The Texas-based charity reports that Gu 'Joseph' Yuese was formally arrested on Jan. 7, 2017, after being detained by police before Christmas. Christians in Pakistan

In what some people are calling the most high-profile religious persecution case since the Cultural Revolution, the former pastor of China's largest state-run megachurch was arrested on Saturday by a local public security bureau in China's coastal Zhejiang province, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. Authorities reportedly re-apprehended Gu "Joseph" Yuese sometime before Christmas; on Jan. 7, his family received an announcement he had been arrested on charges of embezzling funds.

As the former chairman of the Hangzhou Municipal China Christian Council, a local branch of the China Christian Council (CCC), which, along with the Three-Self Patriotic Movement (TSPM), comprises China's two government-run Christian organizations, Gu is the highest-profile Christian official to be targeted for quite some time, reports Christian News Wire.

A new report by a leading watchdog group has identified 2016 as the "worst year yet" for Christian persecution, ever since the organization began monitoring persecution 25 years ago.

The report, which is produced annually by Open Doors USA, found that persecution of Christians rose globally for the third year in a row, reaching "unprecedented levels" in countries located in South and Southeast Asia, among other locations.

"Christians throughout the world continue to risk imprisonment, loss of home and assets, torture, beheadings, rape and even death as a result of their faith," the report stated.

The World Watch List (WWL) ranks the 50 countries across the globe where persecution of Christians is most severe.

In 25 years of chronicling and ranking the political and societal restrictions on religious freedom experienced by Christians worldwide, Open Doors researchers identified 2016 as the "worst year yet."

The report corroborated an earlier study from the Turin-based Center for Studies on New Religions (CESNUR), which found that during the year 2016, some 90,000 Christians were killed for their faith around the world.

Thirty Chinese Police Surround House Church, Order Congregants to Stop Worshiping

New religious rules scheduled to be adopted in China on Oct. 7, 2016, will negatively affect the church's open community there, warn Cathliocs. In addition, the rules will place hefty financial fines on unapproved religious actitivies and severly hamper local residents interaction with foreign supporters, say opponents. CNS photo/Wu Hong Chinese authorities surrounded a house church in Beijing before raiding the building and ordering congregants to stop meeting - or face legal action.

According to China Aid, an international non-profit Christian human rights organization committed to promoting religious freedom and rule of law in China, the Shengai Fellowship Family Church in Beijing had organized a gathering on Oct.7 in the home of Xu Yonghai, an elder in the church.

After receiving word of the gather, police raided and terminated the meeting. More than thirty police officers guarded the building and demanded the gathering be cancelled.

'He Died a True Christian': Syrian Woman Tells Story of Son Who Died Refusing to Deny Faith in Christ

A Syrian woman recently shared the heartwrenching story of the death of her 18-year-old son, who was shot and killed by ISIS-aligned militants after he refused to deny his faith in Christ.

Alice Assaf of Adra al-Ummaliya near Damascus told her story to Dr. Yvette Elbayadi Isaac of the American human rights group Roads of Success, which posted the interview online.

Over two years ago, Assaf was informed by a neighbor that the militants had entered the city and were killing Christians. She sought a way of escape, but never felt safe enough to do so, since "passersby were systematically killed."

Assaf and her children took refuge at a neighbor's house, where they began hearing of the atrocities that were being committed in the city.

"We heard that the militants grabbed six strong men working at the bakery and burned them alive in the oven," she recalled. "After that, they caught some 250 kids and kneaded them like dough in the bakery dough machine."

She said that the oldest child was four years old.

Dozens of Chinese Christians Beaten, Detained By Authorities As Persecution Rages On

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT (NEWS@GOSPELHERALD.COM) Oct 27, 2016 10:53 AM EDT 0 Comments

China Aid's "Chinese Government Persecution of Christians and Churches in China" report found there has been a 4.74 increase in persecution in 2016 compared to last year. Reuters

Dozens of Christians were detained and beaten by authorities in China's central Henan province as the Communist government tightens its grip on believers in the country.

According to persecution watchdog China Aid, witnesses said police officers from the Nanle County Public Security Bureau beat a local Christian on September 25, then detained and beat 20 more believers for them beliefs and arrested them all.

Zhang Mingxuan, a pastor and president of the Chinese House Church Alliance, condemned the actions of the Nanle police and called on the international community to unite in prayer for those persecuted in China.

"It is against the national constitution and laws for house church believers to be beaten by Nanle County Public Security Bureau," he said. "A lot of problems have been caused because they [the public security bureau personnel] control, attack and persecute Christianity in Henan. I hope the international community will pray for them."

On Thursday, the day after Yom Kippur when God judges all of creation, the United Nation Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) passed its resolution on "Occupied Palestine" in Paris, listing all of Judaism's holiest sites as Islamic, while blaming Israel for the violence in the region.

Times of Israel published the entire text of the resolution. Some of the more egregious points are:

-It refers to the holy sites in Arabic, "Al-Aqsa Mosque/Al-Haram Al-Sharif and its surroundings". The Temple Mount is noted to be "a Muslim holy site of worship and as an integral part of a world cultural heritage site".

Christian Author: Obama, Clinton Guilty of 'Christophobia' Amid Refugee Crisis

Johnnie Moore, a Christian author and humanitarian, is slamming President Barack Obama and Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton for their action — or inaction — when it comes to the Christians currently facing "genocide" in the Middle East.

In an interview with Newsmax TV earlier this week, Moore told host J.D. Hayworth that members of the Obama administration have "sat on their hands" during the brutal killings and displacement of Christians in the region as the Islamic State continues to seize land.

"If you support Christians who have been the recipients of genocide in the Middle East," Moore said, "you're called 'Islamophobic,' and it's just incomprehensible."

Moore, who authored the book "Defying ISIS: Preserving Christianity in the Place of Its Birth and in Your Own Backyard," went on to tell Hayworth that both Obama and Clinton are responsible for the "systematic dismantling of religious freedom in this country, and they have sat on their hands while hundreds of thousands, if not millions and millions, of Christians have been displaced and killed."

To that end, Moore offered a new phrase to describe Obama's administration, accusing the president of "Christophobia." Moore, who said he has spent considerable amounts of time working with Muslim refugees, said he and others have been called "Islamophobic" for simply "speaking up for Christians."

From Christian Aid Mission:

At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

"I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose," said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. "As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave."

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

And then they became captives of ISIS. Relatives relate what happened.

The relatives said ISIS militants on Aug. 7 captured the Christian workers in a village whose name is withheld for security reasons. On Aug. 28, the militants asked if they had renounced Islam for Christianity. When the Christians said that they had, the rebels asked if they wanted to return to Islam. The Christians said they would never renounce Christ.

The 41-year-old team leader, his young son and two ministry members in their 20s were questioned at one village site where ISIS militants had summoned a crowd. The team leader presided over nine house churches he had helped to establish. His son was two months away from his 13th birthday.

In front of the team leader and relatives in the crowd, the Islamic extremists cut off the fingertips of the boy and severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam. When the team leader refused, relatives said, the ISIS militants also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion.

"All were badly brutalized and then crucified," the ministry leader said. "They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them."

The martyrs died beside signs the ISIS militants had put up identifying them as "infidels."

Somehow people want us to believe that these evil monsters would have been boy scouts if George W. Bush hadn't invaded Iraq. And of course, it has absolutely nothing to do with Islam, right?

Unfortunately, other horrors were recounted as well. These perpetrated on Christian women.

Eight other ministry team members, including two women, were taken to another site in the village that day (Aug. 28) and were asked the same questions before a crowd. The women, ages 29 and 33, tried to tell the ISIS militants they were only sharing the peace and love of Christ and asked what they had done wrong to deserve the abuse. The Islamic extremists then publicly raped the women, who continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously.

As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying.

"Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord's prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus," the ministry director said. "One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, 'Jesus!'"

After they were beheaded, their bodies were hung on crosses, the ministry director said, his voice breaking. He had trained all of the workers for their evangelistic ministry, and he had baptized the team leader and some of the others.

This is what is happening in the Middle East right now.

And instead of doing anything about it, Obama is sitting back and letting Turkey's Erdogan attack his enemies among the Kurds in Syria, and letting Putin attack the enemies of his pal Assad. We're not even leading from behind anymore, we're just ceding ground to Satanic evil every day.
