Prophecies of Judgement and Preparation of the Bride w Jeff Byerly

Join Johnny Baptist while he discusses the empirical events across the world leading up to World War III, the trickery and deceit of the New World Order, and the bizarre weirdness of the fallen angelic UFO phenomenon as we plunge head first into the forthcoming apocalypse and the Seven Seals of Revelation (chapter 6). Join us tonight for another anointed visit with brother Jeff Byerly of Holy Spirit Wind (holyspiritwind.blogspot.com). Jeff will recap and discuss a number of the most important words the Lord has shared with him to prepare the people of God and the remnant Bride of Jesus Christ.

God Bless You - See you there!

OPENING QUOTES

"A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery;
Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars.
We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim.
Amen.

Sir Francis Drake
(1540 - 1596)

'If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our dead bodies. And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped about their knees, imploring them to stay. If Hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go unwarned and unprayed for. "

God Will Deliver You

Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king.

—Daniel 3:17

Scripture reading: John 21:15–25

God wants is to saturate us with His Word. His Word is a living truth. I pity one who has gone a whole week without temptation because God tries only the people who are worthy. If you are passing through difficulties, trials are rising, darkness is appearing, and everything becomes so dense you cannot see through, hallelujah! God will see you through. He is a God of deliverance, a God of power. He is near to you if you will only believe. He can anoint you with fresh oil and make your cup run over (Ps. 23:5). Jesus is the “balm in Gilead” (Jer. 8:22), the “rose of Sharon” (Song 2:1).

I believe that God wants to align us with such perfection of blessing and beauty that we will say, “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him” (Job 13:15). When the hand of God is on you, and the clay is fresh in the Potter’s hands, the vessel will be made perfect as you are pliable in God’s hands. He can put His stamp on you today. He can mold you anew and change your vision. He can remove the difficulty.

The Lord of Hosts is here, waiting for your affection. Remember Jesus’ question, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you love Me more than these?” (John 21:15). If there is anything in you that is not yielded and bent to the plan of the Almighty, you cannot preserve what is spiritual only in part. When the Spirit of the Lord gets perfect control, then we begin to be changed by the expression of God’s light in our human frame. The whole body begins to have the fullness of His life manifested until God so has us that we believe all things.

Thought for today: God never lets the chastening rod fall upon anything except what is marring the vessel.

‘Not heard the call,’ I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

Blink, and you missed Trump's blistering, seamless transformation into a mainstream politician.

In the span of just a few hours, President Trump flipped to new positions on several core policy issues, backing off on no less than five repeated campaign promises.

In a WSJ interview and a subsequent press conference, Trump either shifted or completely reversed positions on a number of foreign and economic policy decisions, including the fate of the US Dollar, how to handle China and the future of the chair of the Federal Reserve.

Goodbye strong dollar and high interest rates

In an announcement that rocked currency markets, Trump told the WSJ that the U.S. dollar "is getting too strong" and he would prefer the Federal Reserve keep interest rates low. "I do like a low-interest rate policy, I must be honest with you," Mr. Trump said. "I think our dollar is getting too strong, and partially that's my fault because people have confidence in me. But that's hurting—that will hurt ultimately," he added. "Look, there's some very good things about a strong dollar, but usually speaking the best thing about it is that it sounds good."

Labeling China a currency manipulator

Trump also told the Wall Street Journal that China is not artificially deflating the value of its currency, a big change after he repeatedly pledged during his campaign to label the country a currency manipulator.

"They're not currency manipulators," the president said, adding that China hasn't been manipulating its currency for months, and that he feared derailing U.S.-China talks to crack down on North Korea. Trump routinely criticized President Obama for not labeling China a currency manipulator, and promised during the campaign to do so on day one of his administration.

Trump's declaration also means that Peter Navarro may as well pack his bags, as the Goldman economic advisory team has now won its contest with the "Bannon nationalist" circle.

Yellen's future

Trump also told the Journal he'd consider re-nominating Yellen to chair the Fed's board of governors, after attacking her during his campaign. "I like her. I respect her," Trump said, "It's very early."

Trump called Yellen "obviously political" in September and accused her of keeping interest rates low to boost the stock market and make Obama look good. "As soon as [rates] go up, your stock market is going to go way down, most likely," Trump said. "Or possibly."

Export-Import Bank

Trump also voiced support behind the Export-Import Bank, which helps subsidize some U.S. exports, after opposing it during the campaign.

"It turns out that, first of all, lots of small companies are really helped, the vendor companies," Trump told the Journal. "Instinctively, you would say, 'Isn't that a ridiculous thing,' but actually, it's a very good thing. And it actually makes money, it could make a lot of money."

Trump's support will anger conservative opponents of the bank, who say it enables crony capitalism.

NATO

Finally, Trump said NATO is “no longer obsolete” during a Wednesday press conference with NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg, backtracking on his past criticism of the alliance. During the campaign, he frequently called the organization “obsolete,” saying did little to crack down on terrorism and that its other members don’t pay their “fair share.” “I said it was obsolete. It is no longer obsolete,” the president said Wednesday.

Trump has gradually become more supportive of NATO after it ramped up efforts to increase U.S. and European intelligence sharing regarding terrorism. Trump still insisted that NATO allies “meet their financial obligations and pay what they owe.” He said he discussed with Stoltenberg his desire that allies put 2 percent of their gross domestic products into defense by 2024.

Add to this Trump’s first, most prominent reversal, the launch of air strikes on Syria last Friday after repeatedly bashing Obama for even considering that, and Trump’s transformation into a mainstream politician now appears complete.

President Trump Wants To Hold Constant Rallies

President Donald Trump plans to hold rallies every two weeks of his presidency, something that political science experts say would be largely unprecedented.

“Great crowd, great people, great spirit. We’re going to do these rallies every two weeks,” Trump told a reporter Wednesday night after a rally in Nashville, Tenn. The president already has a rally scheduled for Monday in Louisville, Ky.

<http://dailycaller.com/2017/03/16/president-trump-wants-to-hold-constant-rallies/>

Trump’s rally Wednesday was his second since taking office, and was supposed to focus primarily on the White House-backed health care bill that is currently stalled in the House. Trump, however, did not speak only on the health care bill and spent time attacking the Hawaiian federal judge who blocked his executive order on refugees for “judicial overreach.” He also at one point attacked Hillary Clinton and the crowd chanted “lock her up.”

Eric Ostermeier, who authors University of Minnesota's Smart Politics blog, told The Daily Caller it is "unusual for Donald Trump to be holding this many rallies this early in his presidency, particularly outside of the campaign cycle."

He said that while President Obama gave remarks at more than 150 rallies, just about all of them were for his campaign or that of another Democratic candidate. The first rally Obama delivered while in office was on July 16, 2009 and was for New Jersey's Jon Corzine re-election campaign.

"Of course, presidents sometimes do hold rallies outside of the campaign cycle for particular policies," Ostermeier said. "Bill Clinton held one on April 8, 1994 at a rally for health care reform in Minneapolis."

Pt 1 Listen! The Lion Roars! The birds take flight. You can see the beasts of the earth running.

Look at the sky-it's clear. Shhhhhh. Listen! I hear thunder. I know-How can there be thunder? the sky is clear.

I know, but it looks strange. Something's not right. I have a peculiar feeling. Look over there-it looks like it's Lightning. I think we should go inside-it's lightning and thundering to the east.

I'm going to put the news on to see if something is going on. The newsman says "the lightning and thunder can be Heard and seen all over the world. The lightning is causing fires everywhere."

What's that? It looks like airplanes. I don't know, but I can hear sirens. No, there is something else! Yes, I hear it.

It sounds like a trumpet blowing. Did you hear that???? The news says the government has ordered our planes up. They are tracking something on the radar. Let's go down the street and look at the national guard armory. I can see the trucks coming up the road. I think we Should go over to the store now. The local news just cut in and said the schools are all being let out early. All the national Guard units are on alert. I'm going to stop at the bank first. Hurry up so we can get back before the kids come home.

Pt 2

We'd better hurry! The place looks jammed already. Put the news on. I can't. The tv stations are all off the air.

I'll try the radio. There's nothing. It's off the air too. I think I know what's going on. Let's get what we need and get home.

Look! None of the street lights are working. We will have to take the back roads. See if your cell phone works. No-it's dead.

I can feel the earth shaking. Remember that earthquake we had? The doors were moving and the pictures. I think this is What the Bible calls "the end of time" when Jesus returns, or The Day of the Lord. They say it will be a regular day.

No one knows when, but the signs are all available to see for those with eyes, and those with ears can hear the warnings.

I guess God gave warnings like He did in the time of Noah, and no one listened. They all laughed at the warnings.

God (?) made fun of it until it started to rain. Guess what? I think it's raining.

Barb adds:

That's very intriguing. It's a glimpse. It's going to be a regular day. The Second Coming of Christ- no one is going to expect it,

Just like the Day of Noah. Everyone was just going about their regular business...

You know time is short when I'm getting a prophecy like this about The Day of the Lord and the Second Coming of Jesus.

The Seven Thunders Revealed

Posted on December 21, 2011 by John Baptist

They Fly Like the Wind And Come From Afar

The Seven Thunders of Revelation have been revealed. I am satisfied what these saints have been shown in the truth. It matches everything I have uncovered in my research over the years. Glory to Jesus and our Heavenly Father for revealing these things in the “latter times”. Indeed we live in the “latter times”.

Praise the Holy Lord Jesus Christ and our awesome Heavenly Father God. Since many people cannot access You Tube videos, I have manually transcribed (as best as possible) the prophecy shared in the video below.

The DAY OF THE LORD

Isa 13:1-16

The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 "Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them; Wave your hand,
that they may enter the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded My sanctified ones; I have also called My mighty ones for My anger — Those who rejoice in My exaltation."

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people! A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together! The Lord of hosts musters The army for battle. 5 They come from a far country, From the end of heaven — The Lord and His weapons of indignation, To destroy the whole land.

6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man's heart will melt, 8 And they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; They will be amazed at one another; Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord comes, Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger, To lay the land desolate; And He will destroy its sinners from it. 10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not give their light; The sun will be darkened in its going forth, And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

11 "I will punish the world for its evil, And the wicked for their iniquity; I will halt the arrogance of the proud, And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. 12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold, A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, And the earth will move out of her place, In the wrath of the Lord of hosts And in the day of His fierce anger. 14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle, And as a sheep that no man takes up; Every man will turn to his own people, And everyone will flee to his own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through, And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives ravished.

Yes.

The scripture says "I SAW THE BRIDE coming down as the New Jerusalem" So this is simply saying that the Bride of Jesus, also known as the "remnant", the "remnant Bride", the "Wise Virgins" (ref. Matthew 25,) the holy and righteous believers (ref. Eph 5:27) are essentially in a glorified condition and residents of the New Jerusalem.

If you go back to Terri Hill's last radio show, she does a fabulous job of explaining this dynamic which reveals a wide range of Bible mysteries including why SOME of the people are not assigned to go into the New Millennium.

That mystery is capture in these verses here:

Rev 20:4-6

The Saints Reign with Christ 1000 Years

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead (The Saints in Heaven, e.g., the Bride) did not live again (they stayed in Heaven) until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection (Note: the first resurrection is the "rapture"). NKJV

I hope this is a little helpful
God bless you

Johnny I have run into alot of pastors and some well known and others who say the bride of Christ is new Jerusalem, a place, not the remnant. Is this one of those times when scripture uses a place interchangeably with the people it represents? I mean I've looked up scriptures to show that the bride cannot just be the place. Its symbolism. He is also called the bridegroom and then there is the marriage supper of the Lamb. These people seem to know the scriptures but yet they don't see that He's not betrothed to a city but its people that will reside there. Why are they blind to that? Its right there in their faces. I mean I myself have been looking at these scriptures myself and see it. I'm no theologian Johnny. I'm not trying to be ugly about this but these are people that stop short and don't look at the whole picture.

Yes brother. Always please remember that the devil hijacks everything from our Father God. The more it belongs to God the more He hijacks and contorts it so the sheep will say "that's of the devil" and run away.

11:11 is our Father's way to signal to us. He is calling our attention to our soon departure our soon rapture our soon ascension to heaven. The new Agers don't ascend brother, they "descend". See? It's OUR signal not theirs

The ancient Chaldeans also saw 11:11 as a sign of very very bad dark times. Well that's also true. Since once we ascend, Jacobs Trouble (the Great Tribulation) pummels the earth.

So we have to see past the deception, know who really ascends and who doesn't, and then we can "take back" our Father's spiritual provisions for our use as they were originally intended.

God bless you

John,

Hope you are well brother and having a great Saturday! I just wanted to tell you something that's been happening to me all week and ask you your opinion on it.

I'm seeing 11:11 every single day now. It's really getting crazy brother it's like I'm automatically prompted to look at the clock every single time. It happens in the morning and at night if I'm awake. It's really weird. I heard you mention something about it on a show recently and wanted to know your thoughts. All my research is kind of getting into New Age.

However, to make it even more wild one time I saw it and was researching it and I prayed to God and asked what it means. I was then prompted to look at Jeremiah 11:11

Jeremiah 11:11 KJV

[11] Therefore thus saith the Lord , Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

So all the research I was doing was bringing me to New Age type responses and made it out to be something positive then I'm brought to this verse.

Any thoughts?

GOD BLESS YOU!

11:11 CONFIRMATION

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter(Proverbs 25:2).

When we search out a matter that is a spiritual mystery to us, we must rely upon the Holy Spirit to unravel or untie the full message that has been sent. For years I used to see the numbers 11-11 on a continual basis, to a point where it seemed like it was being supernaturally impressed before me. Whenever I randomly happened to look at a clock it would say 11:11. Over time the Holy Spirit explained to me that He was using this particular set of numbers to confirm to me that I was walking in His plan for my life and all was well. Those numbers would pop in the most unexpected places and bring an outward confirmation to an inward leading that I felt was of the Lord. The Lord was working to give me a double witness both inwardly by His Holy Spirit and outwardly through these numbers that I was in His perfect will.

My friend Wade Taylor, who has now gone on to heaven, used to have the continual experience of finding a penny every time he was at a specific place where the Lord wanted Him to be. At times we would eat at a restaurant and talk about the goodness of God and discuss certain spiritual topics that we both enjoyed. Once finished with our meal and before getting up to leave, Wade would look on the floor and pick up a lost penny. He would smile and say, "I always find a penny when I am where the Lord wants me to be."

Ya know what's really fascinating Terri, is that in Pastor Sori Parks' visit to heaven and vision, he was shown that NASA comes forward to tell the whole world that "Aliens" too the people who were actually raptured.

I find this amazing. I wonder if this is "counter intelligence" being used by "the Devil" to trick the entire general population of the world about a program that doesn't really exist so that when they announce this after the rapture, everyone will say OHHH YEAH PROJECT BLUE BEAM

It will be quite interesting to see how this all unfolds. My "guess" is that we will be at the marriage supper by then LOL

After a huge globally publicized deliverance of a possessed woman in the Philippines, on international radio, the demons came back into the woman a day or two later:

This is a quote of what happened next:

. I ordered the demons to tell me why they had returned. They spoke in English through her lips, "She has not asked us to go. She wants us. It is only you who desires for us to leave." Again I demanded that they leave her. Clarita told me they were gone through the window. I explained to her why they returned and told her to tell them to leave and never return. She did. Then, I led her in prayer, pleading the blood of Jesus against them. It was about noon. Clarita was weak from the ordeal. I told the prison officials to let her rest and to give her food. As I was leaving, I said, "Clarita, I am sure these devils will return again. After I am gone, they will come. Then you must order them to leave without my being present to help you. You must say, 'Go, in Jesus' name,' and they will obey." With that, I left the prison compound.

Food For Thought
by George Davis

In 1949 the communist revolution marked the end of all missionary efforts in China. All foreign missionaries were expelled. After the communist takeover the Chinese government bitterly attacked the Church in China, driving it underground.

For 25 years China was closed to any outside "Christian" influences. Little information filtered through the tight-knit bamboo curtain. All remaining Christian leaders were rounded up wholesale and were either imprisoned or killed outright. Everything that was considered "Christian" was destroyed, church building, bibles, hymnals, everything. For 25 years a holocaust far exceeding that, inflicted on the Jews by Nazi Germany, ensued. It is estimated that about 27 million died during this purging.

In 1978 Deng Xiaoping came into power and China opened her borders once again. The western world stood in breathless anticipation. What would they find in the aftermath of such a horrible slaughter? Missionaries from around the world stood ready, poised in anxious intrepidity. Would there even be one surviving believer? Nothing could have possibly prepared them for what they were about to see!

After 25 years of horrendous persecution the missionaries returned to find that the church in China had not been obliterated, as many had feared, but that they had grown in number from the estimated one million believers before the 1949 revolution, to about 30 million. The contrast was amazing! What had caused such unprecedented growth? How could this be? Not only had they grown numerically but they had grown spiritually. The tales of their devotion to Christ are nothing short of inspirational. Most bewildering is the fact that this unparalleled growth occurred without the aid of any of those things that are thought to be essential in denominational churches today. Without the aid of professional pastors/priests, church buildings, bibles, Sunday-school materials, homilies, hymnals and mass gatherings, the Church in China has grown numerically and spiritually to be the most victorious expression of Christ's Church on the earth today. By all accounts, nothing like it has existed since the early Church. The very gates of hell could not prevail against her!

Makes you think doesn't it?

ALBERT PIKE WORLD WAR THREE

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion...We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

THE PILGRIM CHURCH

The Pilgrim Church:

- A Second Century Letter to Diognetus

He writes “Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language”, living in such places “as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers.... They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives... they are reviled and bless”. Then, speaking of God, he says, He, “who is almighty, the Creator of all things,... has sent from heaven, and placed among men, Him who is the truth, and the holy and incomprehensible Word, and has firmly established Him in their hearts.

A Pastor's Mansion

I saw a very gorgeous mansion, then a certain man was coming out, I knew he had been a pastor on earth. In heaven, they told me, the reason why he had a large and beautiful mansion in heaven, was primarily his giving & helping the needy and the poor, and his praying. These provided materials for his mansion in heaven.

They also explained to me, That different works we do on earth carry different weights in heaven, what God values and esteem high is very much different from what people think, they told me, the works we do that are unnoticed, behind the scenes, that people don't know about and unappreciated are the works that God values more, the works we do out of a pure heart and selfless love, they have great reward in heaven. Then I saw it as GOD sees, what is really important to God, that we must not look for appreciating & reward from men but God, also God values what we do in private than what we do in public.

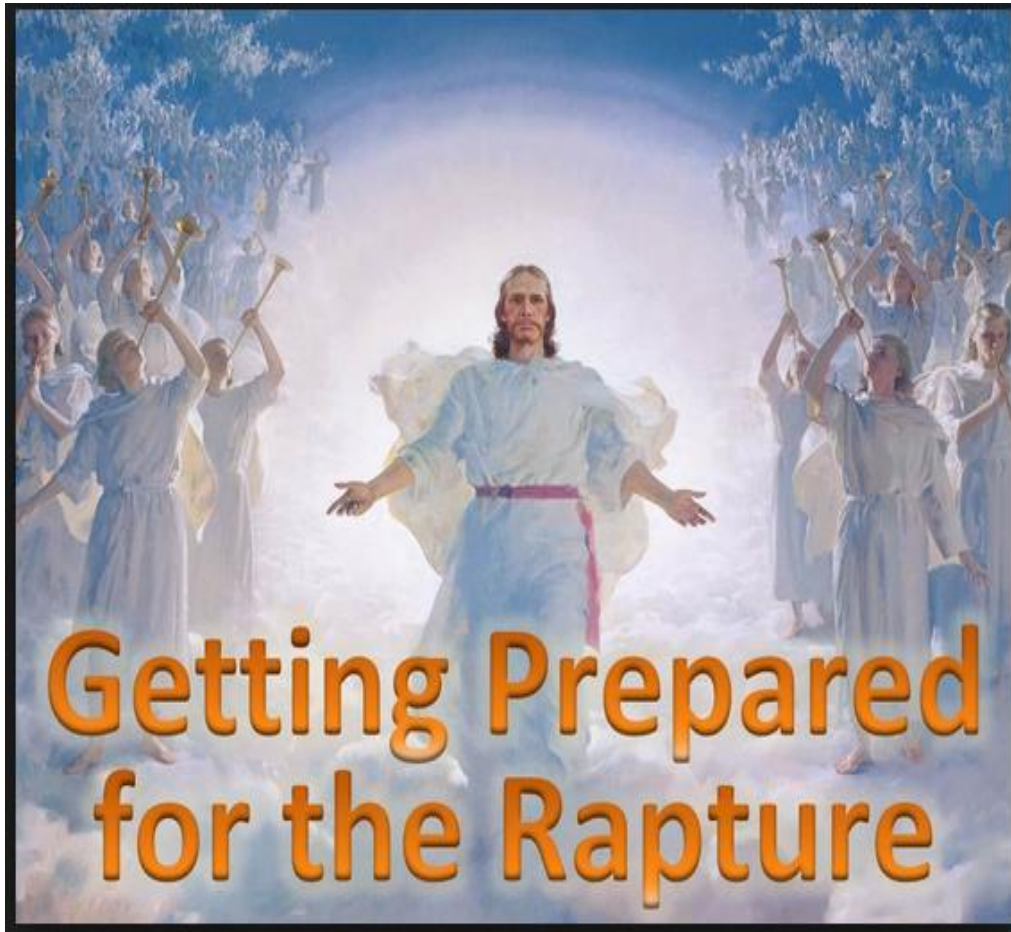

I looked over the City, the bright lights, the golden doors of mansions facing east, the majestic palace, the mansions and houses, the transparent streets of gold, the chariots travelling around, the children playing, saints talking and walking, the gardens, I said "Wow, Heaven is so wonderful". I didn't want to come back but I knew it was my time to go.

LINK ANGELS

It was during that last visit to California that one of the incidents happened that started me on the road to accepting Christ, started me questioning Satan's claim to being more powerful than God. The high priest gathered a number of us together and told us that there was a family nearby who had been interfering with Satan. They had been converting a number of the cult members to the enemy, Jesus Christ, and were making a nuisance of themselves. Satan had given the order for them all to be killed. The high priest told us that we were all to go together in our spirit bodies (astral project), and kill them. So, we sat down in a circle with our candles in front of us and consciously left our bodies going in our spirits to the house to destroy these people. I was not at all enthusiastic about the project, but had no choice. If I had disobeyed I would have been killed.

Much to our surprise, as we arrived at the edge of this family's property, we could go no further. The whole area was surrounded by huge angels. The angels stood side by side holding hands. They were dressed in long white robes and stood so close together that their shoulders touched. They had no armor or weapons. Nobody could get through them, no matter how we tried. Any kind of weapon used merely bounced off of them doing them no harm. They laughed at us at first, daring us to come ahead and try to get through them. The other cult members got more and more furious with each passing moment. Suddenly their countenances changed and the fierce look from their eyes made all of us fall backwards onto the ground. A very humbling experience, I might add!

I will never forget — as I sat on the ground looking up at them, one of the angels looked directly into my eyes and said to me in the most loving voice I had ever heard, "Won't you please accept Jesus as your Lord? If you pursue the course you are taking you will be destroyed. Satan really hates you, but Jesus loves you so much that He died for you. Please consider turning your life over to Jesus." That was the end of the battle for me. I refused to try any longer to get through. I was very shaken. The others tried for awhile longer, but none succeeded. I doubt the family ever knew of the battle going on outside their house. They were completely protected! We called this particular type of special angels "link angels." Absolutely nothing can get through them. I was secretly thankful that we did not get through and the link angels had given me much to think about.

Amazingly Bill Cooper, the author of Behold a Pale Horse, made the following statement on page 177 of the book.

*“Can you imagine what will happen if Los Angeles is hit with a 9.0 quake, New York City is destroyed by a terrorist-planted atomic bomb, World War III breaks out in the Middle East, the banks and stock markets collapse, Extraterrestrials land on the White House lawn, food disappears from the markets, some people disappear, the Messiah presents himself to the world, and all in a very short period of time? "A Prayer for Spiritual Revival":

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly, To venture on wider seas Where storms will show your mastery; Where losing sight of land, We shall find the stars. We ask You to push back The horizons of our hopes; And to push into the future In strength, courage, hope, and love. Because we have dreamed too little, When we arrived safely Because we sailed too close to the shore. Disturb us, Lord, when With the abundance of things we possess We have lost our thirst For the waters of life; Having fallen in love with life, We have ceased to dream of eternity And in our efforts to build a new earth, We have allowed our vision Of the new Heaven to dim. PREACHERS AND QUOTES

PRAYING THROUGH

What it means to Pray Through Personal experiences in the availing and prevailing' intercessory ministry of Sister E. J. Dabney, as related in an interview and through letters to Sarah Foulkes Moore.

My first acquaintance with Sister Dabney was gained through letters which she sent to a friend from Norfolk, Va., describing the prayer revival which the Lord gave her in that southern city. These letters so stirred me that I made carbon copies of them and mailed them out to prayer group leaders in Los Angeles. AH who read the letters were given a new vision of what it really means to "pray through." Later, Sister Dabney came to Pastor Couche's Church at 33rd and Compton, Los Angeles, where in a prayer revival of a few weeks, God saved almost 200 souls and baptised as many with the Holy Ghost and fire.

Sister Dabney is a sister who makes prayer a business. If she sleeps at all, it is to be refreshed to resume her day and night vigils of prayer and waiting on God. She confines herself to one simple meal a day. She never indulges in any personal friendships, nor does she have light conversation with anyone. Usually she comes quietly to a meeting an hour before the time announced and begins to pray. When the meeting is over she slips quietly away to her room where her REAL ministry of travail for the deliverance of souls is carried on, far into the night.

In an interview Sister Dabney revealed how she came to enter this effective work for God and for souls. Her husband is a preacher. He was sent from a prosperous church in Philadelphia to labour in a poor one. At their first meeting no one was present but themselves. She saw it was going to be a difficult field for it was in the most wicked part of the city. She was made to know that nothing but prayer would touch the situation. She determined to give herself to prayer. She made a vow to God that if He would send sinners to that place and save them, she would give herself three days and three nights each week in the Church to prayer for three years. She vowed during two of these years to fast as well as pray. When she first told her husband of her intentions, he was unwilling to have her spend three days and nights each week in the mission alone in prayer. But the Lord made him to know it was of Him so he took her the next morning early to the river side where she knelt and made her vow unto the Lord.

As soon as this little wife of a hard-pressed minister began to pray alone in her husband's mission, God began to work. Sinners were sent in and soon their little hall was crowded out. Her husband asked her to pray for a larger place. God moved a merchant out of a nicer and larger building across the street and gave them this building. As she continued to pray day and night three days a week in her husband's new church it, too, was crowded out. Again her husband asked her to pray for a larger church. She did and God gave them a fine large church on a main boulevard in the same neighbourhood. Always the meetings were packed out and souls were delivered from sin and believers baptised in multitudes.

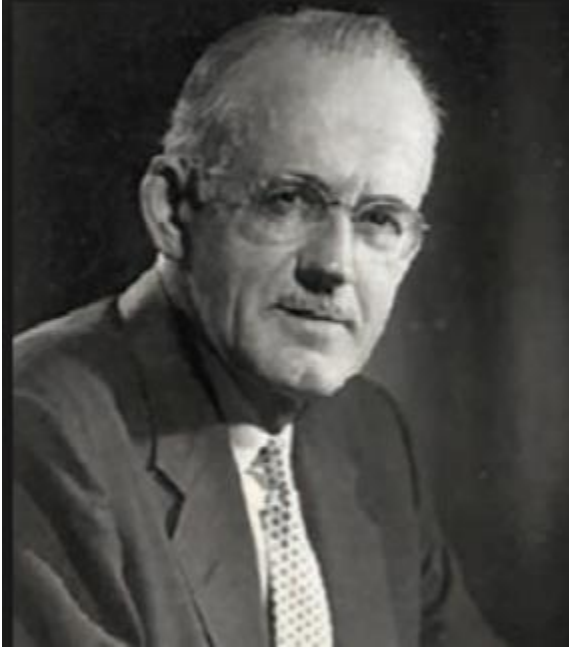

One morning at the church door as she was entering to keep her vow of prayer the Lord met her and said, "Go Home." But she did not want to go home. She wanted to pray. Then He asked her if she knew what day it was. She felt led to open her purse and read her vow and discovered from the date on the vow that she had exactly completed the three years she had given to God for prayer. Even though the Lord had shown her that her vow had been fulfilled, she wanted to go into the church and adore and worship Him, but He said again, "Go Home."

She obeyed, everything about her seeming to praise and worship the Lord. When she got home the Lord drew her inside. Her soul was exalting in His Presence. Then He said to her "Go to the basement." She was afraid of the dark basement and hesitated. Why should the Lord ask her to go to such a place? She said, "Lord, if you are going to take me home to glory, first let me see my husband and son." She was afraid the Lord was going to take her home in the midst of all this rejoicing. But she put on perfectly new pumps and went to the basement. Instead of darkness it was filled with a wondrous light. Then the Lord spoke to her again and said, "You have prayed through. Now I have come to bless you."

From the ceiling a fountain poured forth living water and this water rose higher and higher until it engulfed her. The joy and the presence of the Lord was so gloriously manifest to her that she began to dance. The Lord told her wherever she went and prayed He would deliver sinners from their sins, and fill believers with the Holy Spirit. She danced the heels and toes off her brand-new pumps.

This happened six years ago, and God has kept His word. Wherever Sister Dabney goes and gives herself to prayer, sinners are delivered and the saints are filled with the Holy Ghost and fire Thus the Lord mightily anointed her to pray. She does not preach but only counsels saints and sinners to seek the Lord till He is found. The following letters written in the midst of her prayer revival in Norfolk, Va., give an intimate insight into her life of prevailing prayer,

[12] AE vol. 7, no. 6, May 1941

The yearning to know what cannot be known, to comprehend the incomprehensible, to touch and taste the unapproachable, arises from the image of God in the nature of man. Deep calleth unto deep, and though polluted and landlocked by the mighty disaster theologians call the Fall, the soul senses its origin and longs to return to its source

Eyes of Faith (Goiter Lady)

Eyes of Faith

Jesus went about... teaching... preaching... and healing.

—Matthew 4:23

Scripture reading: Isaiah 58:8–12

One day, a young woman from a place called Ramsbottom came to be healed of an enlargement of her thyroid gland. Before she came she said, “I am going to be healed of this goiter, Mother.” After one meeting she came forward and was prayed for. The next meeting she got up and testified that she had been wonderfully healed. She said, “I will be so happy to go and tell Mother about my healing.”

She went to her home and testified to her wonderful healing. The next year when we were having the convention, she came again. From a human perspective, it looked as though the goiter was just as big as ever, but that young woman was believing God. Soon she was on her feet giving her testimony, saying, “I was here last year, and the Lord wonderfully healed me. I want to tell you that this has been the best year of my life.” She seemed to be greatly blessed in that meeting, and she went home to testify more strongly than ever that the Lord had healed her.

She believed God. The third year, she was at the meeting again, and some people who looked at her said, “How big that goiter has become!” But when the time came for testimonies, she was on her feet and testified, “Two years ago, the Lord gloriously healed me of a goiter. I had a most wonderful healing. It is grand to be healed by the power of God.” That day someone questioned her and said, “People will think there is something the matter with you. Why don’t you look in the mirror? You will see that your goiter is bigger than ever.” The young woman went to the Lord about it and said, “Lord, You so wonderfully healed me two years ago. Won’t You show all the people that You healed me?” She went to sleep peacefully that night still believing God. When she came down the next day, there was not a trace or a mark of that goiter.

Thought for today: A faint heart can never have a gift. Two things are essential: first, love; second, determination—a boldness of faith that will cause God to fulfill His Word.

Syrian Refugee Mother Tells Christian Worker, 'God Doesn't Love Us - He Only Loves Americans'

Syrian refugee mothers suffering in makeshift camps across Turkey have expressed a belief that God has "forgotten" them and only cares for Americans, a Christian missionary has revealed.

A Christian leader based in Turkey whose ministry provides aid in unofficial refugee camps shared with Christian Aid Mission that often, Syrian mothers bring their children to aid workers and ask missionaries to pray over them.

"They bring their children to us for prayer," he said. "We ask, 'What would you like us to pray for your child?' They say, 'May they grow up to live a better life, and be healthy.'"

"They are more concerned about their children and ask us for milk, baby food and blankets for their little ones," the director added, explaining that while they have little hope for their own lives, the mothers hope their children will be able to live a better life someday.

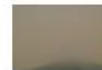

The ministry director shared the story of one Syrian woman, whose husband had died fighting for Syrian government forces battling Islamist insurgents. She and her three children, a teen boy and twin 4-year-olds, had gone to Istanbul, Turkey where they begged in order to survive.

Iran Now Has One of Fastest Growing Christian Population As More Muslims Are Having Dreams and Visions of Jesus

By PRECY DUMLAO (email protected) Dec 08, 2015 06:53 PM EST 4 Comments

Despite severe persecution and acts of terror from ISIS headlining the front pages, Christianity remains strong and is, in fact, a fast growing religion in Iran - one of the most hardline Islamic countries in the world today.

In a report from CBN, wherein the interviewees - Iranians visiting Kurdistan - have requested anonymity for their protection, former Muslims are revealing that many are coming to Jesus through supernatural dreams and visions. The dreams are giving them hope amidst the desperation and hardship facing many in the Islamic Republic today.

"Dennis," one such ex-Muslim who had converted to Christianity after having a dream about Jesus, admits that desperation in Iran is driving more people to run to Christ as the answer to their predicament.

"Yes, many people are coming to Christ through a dream. You cannot imagine how Jesus is appearing to them...You know the experience that the Iranian people are passing through right now is very difficult. The only one who can change that situation is Christ Himself," Dennis said.

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

Duewel, Wesley L. (2013-08-20). Mighty Prevailing Prayer:

General Booth

“Not called!' did you say?

'Not heard the call,' I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray – Tribulation Now

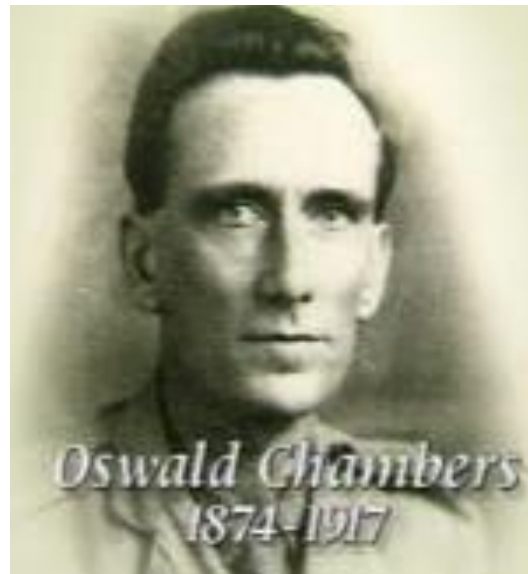

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

OSWALD CHAMBERS

My Unstoppable Determination for His Holiness. “Whether it means life or death—it makes no difference!” (see 1:21). Paul was determined that nothing would stop him from doing exactly what God wanted. But before we choose to follow God’s will, a crisis must develop in our lives. This happens because we tend to be unresponsive to God’s gentler nudges. He brings us to the place where He asks us to be our utmost for Him and we begin to debate. He then providentially produces a crisis where we have to decide—for or against. That moment becomes a great crossroads in our lives. If a crisis has come to you on any front, surrender your will to Jesus absolutely and irrevocably. E

OSWALD CHAMBERS

Will You Go Without Knowing?

Will You Go Out Without Knowing?

"He went out, not knowing where he was going" (Hebrews 11:8).

Have you ever "gone out" in this way? If so, there is no logical answer possible when anyone asks you what you are doing. One of the most difficult questions to answer in Christian work is, "What do you expect to do?" You don't know what you are going to do. The only thing you know is that God knows what He is doing. Continually examine your attitude toward God to see if you are willing to "go out" in every area of your life, trusting in God entirely. It is this attitude that keeps you in constant wonder, because you don't know what God is going to do next. Each morning as you wake, there is a new opportunity to "go out," building your confidence in God. ". . . do not worry about your life . . . nor about the body . . ." (Luke 12:22). In other words, don't worry about the things that concerned you before you did "go out."

Have you been asking God what He is going to do? He will never tell you. God does not tell you what He is going to do—He reveals to you who He is. Do you believe in a miracle-working God, and will you "go out" in complete surrender to Him until you are not surprised one iota by anything He does?

Believe God is always the God you know Him to be when you are nearest to Him. Then think how unnecessary and disrespectful worry is! Let the attitude of your life be a continual willingness to "go out" in dependence upon God, and your life will have a sacred and inexpressible charm about it that is very satisfying to Jesus. You must learn to "go out" through your convictions, creeds, or experiences until you come to the point in your faith where there is nothing between yourself and God.

PASSOVER MESSAGE- MANY THINGS ARE ABOUT TO CHANGE FOREVER

Posted: 11 Apr 2017 11:51 AM PDT

Have you listened to all My instructions? Have you made yourselves ready? Is My blood covering you in all you say and do, for events come quickly now and the frequency of My words being fulfilled intensifies.

As I have spoken so many times before, judgment is here and justice will have its say. What has been set in motion will not be stopped. Men's hearts will fail them for what comes on the earth now.

You should have removed by now, anything that comes before Me in your life. This season requires it. Many things that are part of your everyday life are about to change forever. Review all things, and if wrong has been committed, rectify these things. Ask forgiveness where it is needed, and stay on the narrow path.

Be sure loved ones and those you care about know your love for them and have received My truth through you. Pray to be found worthy to escape all these things which are coming upon the earth.

Trust Me, no matter the cost.

Prepare Your Houses

Much strife and confusion is coming to the earth. There will be eruptions of violence, murder, strife and infighting in various places.

Much tension shall abound, and brother shall strike out at brother. The line is being drawn tight.

(NOTE: In the spirit here, I saw a line, like a tightrope wire, being tightened and tightened, until it looked like it would just snap from the tension.)

When I speak to the angels, what is holding back the war will be released, and battles will break out in many places. War will break out. Fighting and killing will seem to be everywhere at once. This is the beginning of the end. Prepare your houses. Prepare your hearts, for the end is upon you. The end of all things quickly approaches.

My children in the earth, My true children, will shine like a beacon in this dark time. Miracles will abound, My Word will go forth with great boldness and authority as it did in the time My Son Jesus walked the earth, and many souls will be added unto My Kingdom. The end is very near now as these souls enter just before the door is shut.

Prepare your houses. Prepare your hearts, for the end is upon you.

Matthew 24:6-8

- 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
- 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.
- 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

Stay the Course

I have placed some of you in trying circumstances. Your faith and your devotion to Me are being tried. Will you be found faithful?

Stay the course faithfully, in patience, that you may learn endurance, for you need much endurance for what lies ahead for you.

Learn to rejoice no matter your circumstances. Learn to contemplate your eternal salvation, and your great reward in heaven, and let that sustain you when darkness surrounds you in the earth, for you live in a dark time that is quickly growing darker, My children.

Do not contemplate your circumstances, but keep your eyes on Me, and all shall be well.

Great rewards await you all.

Ready for War

My children, prepare for the war that is coming to America. This will not be a war fought in other countries, but a war fought in your own streets. You will see many you know die before your eyes.

There is dissension brewing in the heart of America, and it will soon boil over. America, though greeted by smiles, also has many enemies. The combination of the two shall be her downfall.

My people are not ready for war, for they hesitate even at using the weapons I have left them in My Word. They are a people faint of heart, unaccustomed to seeing bloodshed, and not courageous for battle.

My people, do you not know I am a God of War? Do you not know I am coming back for the final battle against all evil? Why then do you shy away from the battle before you? Why are My churches filled with smiling imposters, who cannot even face their own sins? How do you plan to survive what is on its way to you? Do you think courage shall suddenly overtake you and you will be filled with faith?

My servant David did not learn faith and courage from doing nothing, but from battling the enemies he met on the way to where he was going. First the lion, then the bear, then the armies who came against Israel.

If you have no courage now, you will have no courage then, and you will fall to the hands of the enemy. Do not be foolish in believing otherwise.

My Remnant

My Remnant in the earth is very small. I desire I would have a great remnant, but it is not so. Those who truly walk with Me, who truly sacrifice for Me, who truly put Me first in all things, are very small in number.

Many believe they are part of My Remnant that are not part. They shall not be protected in what is coming because they do not truly know Me. They make no time for Me, they make no sacrifices to serve Me, they do not put Me first in their lives.

In what is coming, those who think they are Mine will expect many concessions that will not appear, for I do not know them.

Oh My children, be sure of your heart, be sure of your walk. Make time for Me now, for later will be too late for you if you do not.

Walk in wisdom now, and be glad later.

Matthew 24:4

- 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

NORTH Korean tyrant Kim Jong-un has released a propaganda video showing a US aircraft carrier being blown up and a bomber shot down in flames.

Snaps from the secretive state's recent ballistic missile launches are shown alongside the haunting message: "A knife will be stabbed into the throat of the carrier."

Prophetic Alert – I Saw an Aircraft Carrier Sink

(NOTE – I have posted a few reader comments at the bottom of this page.)

I am sending out this prophetic alert because God's people need to pray. If you have followed this ministry for any length of time, you may know that it has a history of prophetic glimpses that have been shared over the years. Some have come to pass, some are in motion, and some are still in the delay of God's mercy.

A few nights ago, I had another prophetic dream. It happened on December 5, 2015. I shared it that day with Doug Hagmann because I wanted to find insight on the meaning. After several days of holding onto it, I now feel prompted to share it with the brethren. Please take it under prayerful consideration. If anyone has insight on this information please let me know.

The Dream Begins

I was in the sky looking down and saw three aircraft carriers next to one another. I heard the words, "inland." It could have been in a shipyard, but I am not certain.

As I watched the ships from above, one of them began to rotate counter-clockwise towards the left. The ground under the turning ship was very shallow. It scraped the earth under it while it rotated. I am not certain where the ship was located. It might have been at a port. (The ship could have been in a dry dock getting repaired, serviced, or it could have even been a brand new ship.)

After it rotated, the carrier left the port traveling south to southwest. When it reached "deeper water" (I heard the words – deeper water,) it began to sink.

It did not sink entirely, but it tilted which caused the end of the ship to begin submerging causing part of its platform to go underwater.

SOME WILL DIE EARLY

Treacherous Times

Treacherous times are upon you, My children, and what is coming will be far worse. The darkness and evil that await those who are not saved now will be worse than Hollywood's darkest horror film, for Satan's wrath shall be upon them.

The Door to heaven is soon to be closed and the grace upon My people shall be reduced. Everyday life will be more difficult and you will strive to keep your faith alive as everything in the earth changes. Much treachery will be revealed, but much will be kept hidden.

Know in this time that what you see is not what is. Darkness lurks behind the governments you trust. Much evil is planned and will soon be released. Snares will be set for My people as the enemy's plans are unleashed. Many who are Mine will die in this time and come home to Me, but this is My mercy on them. Those who are lukewarm will be left on the earth that their faith may be refined.

Guard your hearts, My children, for evil abounds as never before. Be careful when you think you stand, lest you fall and lose your faith.

Revelation 12:11-13

REJOICING IN JUDGMENT

Rejoicing in Judgment

Posted on 12 March 2017 by Stephen Hanson

"For the judgment is merciless to one who has not shown mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment," James 2:13.

"For you see, people rejoice in a promise that is given. Most do not rejoice when judgment is coming.

Why would some rejoice in these things and others would not?

It is because very few know why I do these things. For My intention is to bring man to a place of repentance.

But man only sees the outcome from his point of view. Very few of my own long for Me to bring judgment upon the earth.

When I come back will I find faith upon the earth?

Many of you believe, but very few truly know Me in my judgment. For judgment is not a wreaking ball, but rather, it is done in mercy. And mercy triumphs over judgment.

Why would I destroy a land never giving people a chance to repent?

Why would I destroy a people who have rebelled against Me constantly, and yet, their heart is still searching for the truth?

I extend My arm to all who would listen to Me; My gift is freely given. It is a land that is founded by your fathers and yet, you have strayed far from My purposes.

The smoke and the stench of it, has long been reaching my throne. I have grown weary and tired of waiting upon you to turn from your evil ways. The safety net has been lifted."

Muslim Woman Who 'Hated Christians' Converts After Jesus Appears in Dream, Tells Her to Attend Church

A devout Muslim woman who harbored a deep hatred of Christians converted to Christianity after Jesus appeared to her in a dream and told her to visit a local church.

According to Christian Aid Mission, the young woman, whose name was not disclosed for security reasons, lived in Turkey's Black Sea coast along with her strict Muslim family. One Sunday, she showed up at the church of Pastor Matta, the leader of an indigenous ministry reaching Turkey's 96-percent Muslim population.

Through tears, she told the pastor she had seen him preach on weekly Web posts of the church's services.

"I did not know you, and I hated the Christians, and for this reason I was intending to make fun of you when I started watching your videos in the Internet," she said. "But the things I was hearing from you spoke to me of the love I was always looking for, and the words of faith and courage were doing away with my fears."

Her heart transformed by the truth of the Gospel, the young woman converted to Christianity. However, fearing for her life, she was hesitant to attend a worship service. That is, until Jesus appeared to her in a dream.

Muslim Who Tried to Kill Pastor Embraces Christianity After Dreaming of Man with 'Nail Scarred Hands'

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT (email protected) Mar 27, 2017 12:54 AM EDT 0 Comments

Central African Republic is ranked 34th on the World Watch List of 50 countries where it is most difficult to be a Christian, according to Open Doors AP Photo

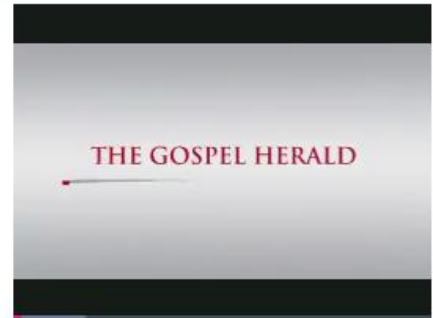

A Muslim extremist who dedicated his life to persecuting Christians embraced the religion he once despised after a man with nail-scarred hands appeared in his dreams.

As the dedicated leader of a mosque in a central African country, Ibn Yakoobi routinely targeted Christians, and even attempted to kill the pastor of a local church, according to a report from Bibles for Mideast, an underground Christian ministry that distributes Bibles and conducts evangelism in Asia, South Africa and the Middle East.

However, after witnessing an angel thwart his attempts to kill the pastor, Yakoobi was shaken and became increasingly curious about the Christian faith.

During Friday's Day of Assembly at the mosque, another religious leader warned Muslims not to believe the Christians nor attend their prayer meetings. The Imam shared how, during the time of the prophet Moses in Egypt, many black magicians performed miracles before King Pharaoh. But with power given to him from God, Moses destroyed such miracles.

"So don't believe and follow the black magic done by Christian followers," the Imam cautioned them. "Be on the alert"

Pastor Rudy Trujillo (Facebook)

Join us on our podcast each weekday for an interesting story, well told, from Charisma News. Listen at charismapodcastnetwork.com.

A California pastor was ambushed and beaten this week by a former congregant. Rudy Trujillo, who pastors Faith Center in San Fernando, was reportedly attacked outside his car in between meetings. He was beaten to the point of hospitalization and underwent surgery Thursday afternoon.

"Friends, family, and saints. While we understand, even share your anger, we must never forget that what we preach, especially pastor Rudy Trujillo, is that we are to forgive and have mercy upon those who trespass against us," Faith Center wrote in a Facebook post.

The assailant was reportedly a former congregant whom Trujillo had not seen since the congregant left the church several years ago.

Despite the violence inflicted upon the pastor, Faith Center is determined to follow in Jesus' footsteps:

We never imagined this would be easy, and after today, we know it will not. As Christians, we are committed to the teachings of Jesus. Jesus teaches us to love even those who hate us and violently attack us. He taught us to forgive those who wrong us. This does not mean we condone or tolerate hatred and violence. Not at all! But precisely because we condemn hatred and violence as evil, we refuse to hate those who hate us, nor retaliate with violence against those who violently attack us. We believe love is more powerful than hatred and forgiveness is more powerful than violence. As people who have received mercy from God, we extend mercy to others—even those who have hurt us. And we entrust justice into the hands of God.

We need your prayers and actions to be supportive of our deepest-held convictions; that is, that we must forgive our brother. We must obey Jesus and love and pray and have mercy upon our enemies, especially when times are the darkest and we prefer to stop following the path of the cross. For it is only by following Jesus that God can work all things for his good.

Trujillo is a gang-interventionist case manager with Communities in Schools for the Mayor of Los Angeles Gang Reduction Youth Development. He was also appointed commissioner for the City of San Fernando Transportation & Safety and currently is the chair, according to his website. ↴

Researchers Think Portals May Link Our Visible World With The “Dark Sector”

POSTED ON APRIL 3, 2017 IN PUSHING THE ENVELOPE | 512 VIEWS | LEAVE A RESPONSE

Long ago, physicists identified and categorized the components of the visible universe. Up until recently, 16 particles formed everything in the known universe. But now, thanks to the efforts of physicists at CERN working with the Large Hadron Collider (LHC), we have added another particle, the Higgs boson, to the Standard Model of physics.

However, there is an entire hidden — or dark — aspect of physics and our natural world for which the Standard Model just can't account, even with the Higgs boson. To put it plainly, all of the matter that is visible is not enough for the universe to behave as it does.

There has to be some kind of invisible matter and energy making all of what we can see possible. To account for this mystery, scientists theorized that there must be Dark Matter and Dark Energy. These would be made up of a completely different set of particles that we have yet to discover, probably because we simply do not know how to study them.

A new study by researchers from the Institute of Basic Science (IBS) in South Korea suggests that we have found the way to bridge the gap between the visible world and the dark sector of physics — portals.

Portal to the Dark Sector

Now, when you hear of portals, you likely think of some science fiction adventure or debates on whether the cake is a lie, but we're not talking about those kinds of portals. These portals would exist in the quantum realm, the scale of which is nearly incomprehensibly small.

Alien fast radio bursts really are from outer space

POSTED ON APRIL 3, 2017 IN PARANORMAL | 237 VIEWS | LEAVE A RESPONSE

Rare and brief bursts of cosmic radio waves have puzzled astronomers since they were first detected 10 years ago.

Some suggested these mysterious bursts of energy could be a sign of alien life trying to contact us.

Now scientists have confirmed that the mysterious signals really do come from outer space.

WHAT ARE FAST RADIO BURSTS?

Fast radio bursts, or FRBs, are radio emissions that appear temporarily and randomly, making them not only hard to find, but also hard to study.

The mystery stems from the fact it is not known what could produce such a short and sharp burst.

This has led some to speculate they could be anything from stars colliding to artificially created messages.

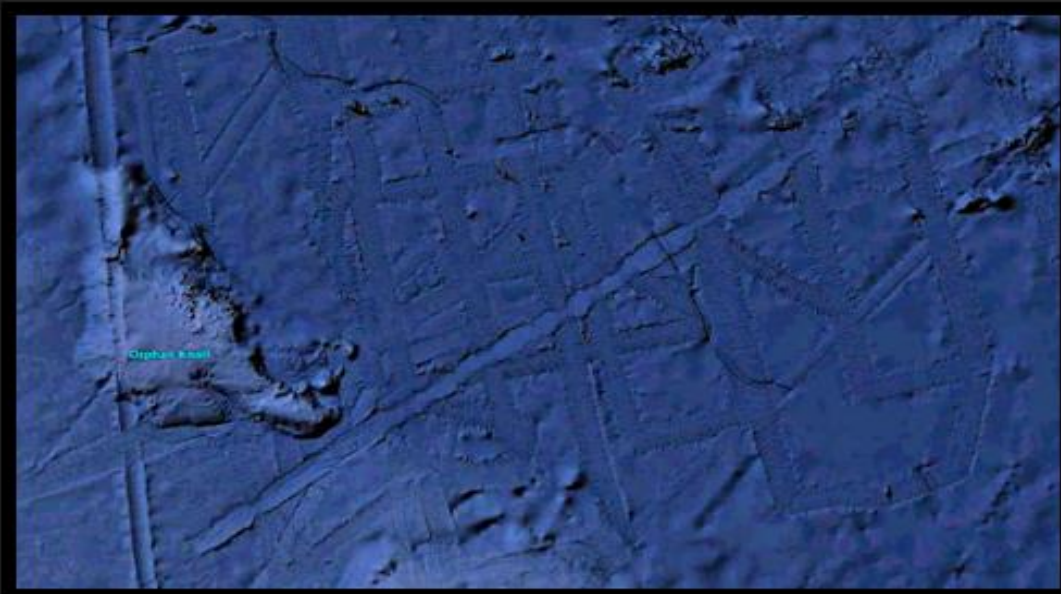

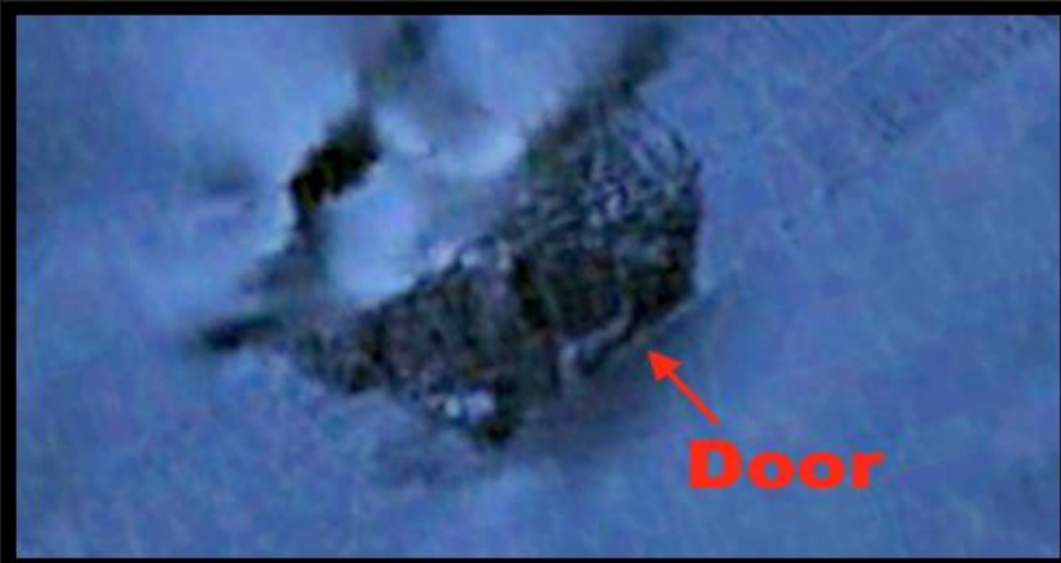

The first FRB was spotted, or rather 'heard' by radio telescopes, back in 2007.

But it was so temporary and seemingly random that it took years for astronomers to agree it was not a glitch in one of the telescope's instruments.

Fast radio bursts, or FRBs, are radio emissions that appear temporarily and randomly, making them not only hard to find, but also hard to study.

Forestry Worker Experienced Chilly Morning With Aliens In Scotland

April 14, 2017 LUFOS Aliens, Europe 1

More than 30 years ago, forestry worker Robert Taylor claimed to have experienced a chilly November morning. What had happened on that morning has baffled all who have investigated the case, including the police, who consider it unexplained and keep the file open.

He arrived with his company-owned pickup truck as usual with his Irish red setter Larah. He walked down into the forest then rounded the path into a clearing. Suddenly, he saw what he described as a large dome-shaped object that left him to astonish. The size of the unusual object was around 20 to 30 feet circumference floating just 15 feet over the grassy surface, as Robert described.

Interestingly, the UFO seemed to disappear around the edges. The witness said that it somewhat dematerialized, which enabled him to see the trees behind the strange object, then solidified again. As he observed the event, two items that resembled WWII sea mines dropped from beneath the UFO and rolled towards him. However, before they reached him, he smelled like burning brake lines and heard a loud swishing noise.

Mystery! Hundreds of dead fish mysteriously washing up in Chesterfield Township Michigan

Residents in Chesterfield Township are concerned about hundreds of dead fish that have been washing up near their property.

The fish have been turning up in a canal behind Lighthouse Pointe, a residential street off Jefferson Avenue.

The canal flows into Anchor Bay in Lake Saint Clair. One homeowner tells us some of the fish are still alive and appear to be struggling in the water.

"Last weekend, we found it was very unusual.

My husband and I were walking along the dock here and the fish were actually coming out of the water gasping for air,"

Cindy Schrader said. "It was really unusual."

Neighbors say they've never seen anything in their backyards like this.

"I've lived here five years, and there's been dead fish in the water before but not by the hundreds," Magdaleno Dias says.

He says he saw about two or three hundred dead fish in the water just on Tuesday morning.

He'd like to see environmental officials come out and test the water.

So far, no word from Macomb County officials on what may be killing off the fish.

36 dead many injured or missing as heaviest downpour in years causes landslides and flash floods in Iran

Death toll in the landslide and flood in northwestern Iran has risen to 36, ANA news agency reports. According to the report, 30 out of the total number have been killed in the East Azerbaijan Province, one in West Azerbaijan and five in the Kordestan Province.

Heavy flood and landslide have killed at least 25 people in four provinces in northwestern Iran. Esmail Najjar, the head of the disaster management organization of Iran, has said that heavy flood and landslide have claimed at least 25 lives in the four provinces of East Azerbaijan, West Azerbaijan, Zanjan and Kordestan, ISNA news agency reports.

According to the official, at least 16 are missing following the disaster in northwestern Iran.

Najjar added that the East Azerbaijan Province with 19 dead has borne the heaviest loss among the other provinces hit by flood and landslide. Heavy floods have killed at least 18 people and injured 12 in Iran's northwestern province of East Azerbaijan, IRNA news agency reported Apr. 15.

The province witnessed the heaviest downpour of the past several years on Friday. The counties of Ajab-Shir and Azar-Shahr suffered the heaviest damage following the disaster. Search and rescue operations are underway.

LANGZHONG, Sichuan (China Aid) — More than 20 police officers from China's southwestern Sichuan Province recently detained 15 Christians for attending a Bible study.

Authorities broke into a church in mid-March and took into custody 15 Christians who had gathered for a Bible study. Officers accused them of illegally gathering and "gathering a crowd to disturb public order," and detained them for 15 days. Additionally, they confiscated church seating, projectors, and air conditioning equipment.

Li Ming, a pastor of another local house church, Langzhong Church, reported that the authorities had also repeatedly targeted his congregation. For the past several Christmases, authorities seized Christians who worshipped at the church because they refused to meet at the official Three-Self Church. Last year, a woman surnamed Liang was detained for 15 days, and all of the church's property was taken away.

(Daily Post) — The youth wing of the Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN), 19 Northern states, yesterday said over 900 churches have been lost to Boko haram terrorism in the North east.

It therefore urged the Federal Government to rebuild the churches and also re-establish Nigeria Inter Religion Council (NIREC) with a view to curbing incessant religious violence in the country.

Speaking after its National Executive Council (NEC) meeting held in Gusau, Zamfara State, the youth wing Chairman, Evangelist Musa Misal, noted that demolished churches that needed to be rebuilt were spread across Gombe, Yobe, Adamawa, Borno, among others.

HYDERABAD, India (Morning Star News) – A week after a pastor fell into a coma following harassment by hard-line Hindus in southern India, a gang of Hindu extremists in the same state beat another pastor after he prayed for healing at the home of an elderly church member, family members said.

Police altered the statement of Gandham Padma Rao, 49, so that the 10 young men who assaulted him on Jan. 27 in Medipally village, Telangana state, were described only as drunken youths, not members of a Hindu nationalist group as the pastor had stated, his son told Morning Star News.

Pastor Rao fulfilled church duties the two days after the assault before seeking medical help, and doctors told family members that his blood pressure was so high that he could have suffered a hemorrhage had he waited any longer. Another pastor, 47-year-old K.A. Swamy of Hyderabad, on Jan. 21 fell into a coma after suffering high blood pressure and a brain hemorrhage hours after Hindu extremists threatened him with highly offensive language and took him to police for distributing Bibles.

Pastor Rao's son, Samuel Mark, told Morning Star News his father had left the home of the elderly church member, who had just been released from a hospital, at about 9:30 p.m. and was walking to his car when the young men blocked his way with their motorcycles.

When the pastor ignored them and began walking on the other side of the road, one of the assailants shouted, "Why are you coming to our village? Why are you praying here?" as four others began hitting him, knocking him to the ground, relatives said.

Pastor Rao and eyewitnesses said the youths were members of the Hindu nationalist Vishwa Hindu Vahini.

Report: ISIS Chops Off Hands of Two Children for Refusing to Execute Civilians

MOSUL, Iraq — Members of the barbaric Islamic group ISIS, which identifies itself as the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria, recently cut off the hands of two children for refusing to execute civilians.

Alsumaria News reports that the incident occurred in the ISIS-occupied territory of Mosul, being tipped off by an anonymous source.

“The Islamic State’s leaders issued orders to train a group of children on fighting in the group’s camps in Nables neighborhood, in the western side of Nineveh,” it outlined. “Meanwhile, members of the Islamic State terrorist group amputated the hands of two children for refusing to carry out the execution sentence on two civilians in front of their families.”

The children were between 10 and 12 years old.

As previously reported, just last month, a mother and her four children were reportedly burned alive in Kirkuk for leaving the jurisdiction of the caliphate.

“Members of the Islamic State burned a whole family that consisted of a mother and four children (three girls and a 9-month-old boy) in Hawija, for leaving the land of caliphate and fleeing toward Kirkuk,” Iraqi News outlined on Jan. 14, citing a source who desired to remain anonymous.

It said that the family was captured while fleeing the area, and then bound, doused with crude oil, and set ablaze.

China's Largest Megachurch Ex-Pastor Arrested by Authorities for Supporting Religious Freedom

By JULIE BROWN PATTON (email protected) Jan 13, 2017 03:13 PM EST 0 Comments

A Chinese megapastor has been arrested on charges of embezzling funds, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. The Texas-based charity reports that Gu 'Joseph' Yuese was formally arrested on Jan. 7, 2017, after being detained by police before Christmas. Christians in Pakistan

In what some people are calling the most high-profile religious persecution case since the Cultural Revolution, the former pastor of China's largest state-run megachurch was arrested on Saturday by a local public security bureau in China's coastal Zhejiang province, according to persecution watchdog China Aid. Authorities reportedly re-apprehended Gu "Joseph" Yuese sometime before Christmas; on Jan. 7, his family received an announcement he had been arrested on charges of embezzling funds.

As the former chairman of the Hangzhou Municipal China Christian Council, a local branch of the China Christian Council (CCC), which, along with the Three-Self Patriotic Movement (TSPM), comprises China's two government-run Christian organizations, Gu is the highest-profile Christian official to be targeted for quite some time, reports Christian News Wire.

The report, which is produced annually by Open Doors USA, found that persecution of Christians rose globally for the third year in a row, reaching “unprecedented levels” in countries located in South and Southeast Asia, among other locations.

“Christians throughout the world continue to risk imprisonment, loss of home and assets, torture, beheadings, rape and even death as a result of their faith,” the report stated.

The World Watch List (WWL) ranks the 50 countries across the globe where persecution of Christians is most severe.

In 25 years of chronicling and ranking the political and societal restrictions on religious freedom experienced by Christians worldwide, Open Doors researchers identified 2016 as the “worst year yet.”

The report corroborated an earlier study from the Turin-based Center for Studies on New Religions (CESNUR), which found that during the year 2016, some 90,000 Christians were killed for their faith around the world.

Thirty Chinese Police Surround House Church, Order Congregants to Stop Worshiping

New religious rules scheduled to be adopted in China on Oct. 7, 2016, will negatively affect the church's open community there, warn Catholics. In addition, the rules will place hefty financial fines on unapproved religious activities and severely hamper local residents' interaction with foreign supporters, say opponents. CNS photo/Wu Hong Chinese authorities surrounded a house church in Beijing before raiding the building and ordering congregants to stop meeting - or face legal action.

According to China Aid, an international non-profit Christian human rights organization committed to promoting religious freedom and rule of law in China, the Shengai Fellowship Family Church in Beijing had organized a gathering on Oct. 7 in the home of Xu Yonghai, an elder in the church.

After receiving word of the gathering, police raided and terminated the meeting. More than thirty police officers guarded the building and demanded the gathering be cancelled.

'He Died a True Christian': Syrian Woman Tells Story of Son Who Died Refusing to Deny Faith in Christ

A Syrian woman recently shared the heartwrenching story of the death of her 18-year-old son, who was shot and killed by ISIS-aligned militants after he refused to deny his faith in Christ.

Alice Assaf of Adra al-Ummaliya near Damascus told her story to Dr. Yvette Elbayadi Isaac of the American human rights group Roads of Success, which posted the interview online.

Over two years ago, Assaf was informed by a neighbor that the militants had entered the city and were killing Christians. She sought a way of escape, but never felt safe enough to do so, since "passersby were systematically killed."

Assaf and her children took refuge at a neighbor's house, where they began hearing of the atrocities that were being committed in the city.

"We heard that the militants grabbed six strong men working at the bakery and burned them alive in the oven," she recalled. "After that, they caught some 250 kids and kneaded them like dough in the bakery dough machine."

She said that the oldest child was four years old.

Dozens of Chinese Christians Beaten, Detained By Authorities As Persecution Rages On

By LEAH MARIEANN KLETT (NEWS@GOSPELHERALD.COM) Oct 27, 2016 10:53 AM EDT

China Aid's "Chinese Government Persecution of Christians and Churches in China" report found there has been a 4.74 increase in persecution in 2016 compared to last year. Reuters

Dozens of Christians were detained and beaten by authorities in China's central Henan province as the Communist government tightens its grip on believers in the country.

According to persecution watchdog China Aid, witnesses said police officers from the Nanle County Public Security Bureau beat a local Christian on September 25, then detained and beat 20 more believers for their beliefs and arrested them all.

Zhang Mingxuan, a pastor and president of the Chinese House Church Alliance, condemned the actions of the Nanle police and called on the international community to unite in prayer for those persecuted in China.

"It is against the national constitution and laws for house church believers to be beaten by Nanle County Public Security Bureau," he said. "A lot of problems have been caused because they [the public security bureau personnel] control, attack and persecute Christianity in Henan. I hope the international community will pray for them."

Johnnie Moore, a Christian author and humanitarian, is slamming President Barack Obama and Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton for their action — or inaction — when it comes to the Christians currently facing "genocide" in the Middle East.

In an interview with Newsmax TV earlier this week, Moore told host J.D. Hayworth that members of the Obama administration have "sat on their hands" during the brutal killings and displacement of Christians in the region as the Islamic State continues to seize land.

"If you support Christians who have been the recipients of genocide in the Middle East," Moore said, "you're called 'Islamophobic,' and it's just incomprehensible."

Moore, who authored the book "Defying ISIS: Preserving Christianity in the Place of Its Birth and in Your Own Backyard," went on to tell Hayworth that both Obama and Clinton are responsible for the "systematic dismantling of religious freedom in this country, and they have sat on their hands while hundreds of thousands, if not millions and millions, of Christians have been displaced and killed."

To that end, Moore offered a new phrase to describe Obama's administration, accusing the president of "Christophobia." Moore, who said he has spent considerable amounts of time working with Muslim refugees, said he and others have been called "Islamophobic" for simply "speaking up for Christians."

ISIS TORTURES 11-YEAR-OLD IN FRONT OF HIS CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY FATHER, CRUCIFIES THEM FOR NOT CONVERTING TO ISLAM

More incredible horrors from the evil Islamist terrorists of ISIS.

From Christian Aid Mission:

“ At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

From Christian Aid Mission:

At several steps on their path to death by beheading and crucifixion last month, 11 indigenous Christian workers near Aleppo, Syria had the option to leave the area and live. The 12-year-old son of a ministry team leader also could have spared his life by denying Christ.

The indigenous missionaries were not required to stay at their ministry base in a village near Aleppo, Syria; rather, the ministry director who trained them had entreated them to leave. As the Islamic State (ISIS), other rebel groups and Syrian government forces turned Aleppo into a war zone of carnage and destruction, ISIS took over several outlying villages. The Syrian ministry workers in those villages chose to stay in order to provide aid in the name of Christ to survivors.

“I asked them to leave, but I gave them the freedom to choose,” said the ministry director, his voice tremulous as he recalled their horrific deaths. “As their leader, I should have insisted that they leave.”

They stayed because they believed they were called to share Christ with those caught in the crossfire, he said.

And then they became captives of ISIS. Relatives relate what happened.

The relatives said ISIS militants on Aug. 7 captured the Christian workers in a village whose name is withheld for security reasons. On Aug. 28, the militants asked if they had renounced Islam for Christianity. When the Christians said that they had, the rebels asked if they wanted to return to Islam. The Christians said they would never renounce Christ.

The 41-year-old team leader, his young son and two ministry members in their 20s were questioned at one village site where ISIS militants had summoned a crowd. The team leader presided over nine house churches he had helped to establish. His son was two months away from his 13th birthday.

In front of the team leader and relatives in the crowd, the Islamic extremists cut off the fingertips of the boy and severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam. When the team leader refused, relatives said, the ISIS militants also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion.

“All were badly brutalized and then crucified,” the ministry leader said. “They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them.”

The martyrs died beside signs the ISIS militants had put up identifying them as “infidels.”

Somehow people want us to believe that these evil monsters would have been boy scouts if George W. Bush hadn't invaded Iraq. And of course, it has absolutely nothing to do with Islam, right?

Unfortunately, other horrors were recounted as well. These perpetrated on Christian women.

Eight other ministry team members, including two women, were taken to another site in the village that day (Aug. 28) and were asked the same questions before a crowd. The women, ages 29 and 33, tried to tell the ISIS militants they were only sharing the peace and love of Christ and asked what they had done wrong to deserve the abuse. The Islamic extremists then publicly raped the women, who continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously.

As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying.

“Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord's prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus,” the ministry director said. “One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, ‘Jesus!’”

After they were beheaded, their bodies were hung on crosses, the ministry director said, his voice breaking. He had trained all of the workers for their evangelistic ministry, and he had baptized the team leader and some of the others.

This is what is happening in the Middle East right now.

And instead of doing anything about it, Obama is sitting back and letting Turkey's Erdogan attack his enemies among the Kurds in Syria, and letting Putin attack the enemies of his pal Assad. We're not even leading from behind anymore, we're just ceding ground to Satanic evil every day.

UPDATED:FEB 15 2017 03:57PM EST

NEW YORK (FOX5NY) - A cluster of cases of a rare bacterial infection that is spread by contact with rat urine has killed one person and sickened two others in the Bronx. The infection can develop into an illness that affects the victim's kidneys and liver.

The New York City Health Department says all of the cases are linked to one block in the Concourse area of the borough. While one person has died, the other two have recovered and are doing well, according to health officials.

Leptospirosis is a bacterial infection that is most commonly spread by contact with rat urine and is very rarely spread from person to person.

2 suspected human cases of bird flu have been detected in Cirebon, West Java Jawa Barat.

The 2 people have been treated in Gunung Jati Hospital Cirebon isolation room since Sun 5 Mar 2017.

The Health Ministry's director general of disease prevention and control M Subuh has confirmed the report.

"Both have made direct contacts with birds tested positive for bird flu," Subuh said on Wed 8 Mar 2017 at Gunung Jati Hospital.

Subuh said that results of laboratory tests will come out within the next 2 to 3 days, adding that the 2 patients' conditions had improved.

When pressed about the death of a resident of Pangenan sub-district, Cirebon, from alleged avian influenza, Subuh said that the hospital did not take the blood sample.

"But the current patient is the child of the deceased.

The blood sample will be taken from the child," Subuh said.

If the test proved negative, it would mean that the father was also tested negative for bird flu and vice versa.

The worst outbreak of bird flu in years has killed almost a 100 people in China! The death toll since the start of the year has been unmatched in years

RSOE ALERT MAP Click on image to enlarge red squares indicate human cases of bird flu.

China is ordering the closure of live poultry markets in its south-central regions where the worst outbreak of bird flu in years has killed almost a 100 people.

State media reported Friday that the National Health and Family Planning Commission ordered closures anywhere that cases of the H7N7 strain had been detected.

Most reported cases have been found in the densely-populated Yangtze and Pearl river deltas that generally experience mild, wet winters that are ideal for the virus's transmission.

The death toll since the start of the year has been unmatched since at least 2013.

In addition to the market closures, the commission is training health workers in the screening, early diagnosis and treatment of the disease, while urging people to avoid contact with live birds.

Nepal has reported an outbreak of severe H5N8 bird flu resulting in the death of 6,200 hens

Click on RSOE Alert map to enlarge, red squares indicate humans infected or dead
Nepal has reported a confirmed outbreak of severe H5N8 bird flu on a poultry farm in Koshi region, the World Organisation for Animal Health (OIE) said on Monday, citing a report from the Nepalese authorities.
The virus killed 3,650 of the 6,200 hens exposed, with the remaining animals culled, the Paris-based OIE said.
Nepal had already reported last month an outbreak of highly pathogenic H5N1 bird flu among backyard chickens and ducks.
Daily reports are coming in from around the world as the avian flu pandemic has now got a foothold in every continent except Australia.

Yellow fever responsible for killing thousands of monkeys in Brazil is now killing humans: Brazil issued emergency situations for 63 cities

- Officials declared emergency situation in 64 cities in Minas Gerais and are sending millions of extra doses of vaccines to three states days before Carnival.

SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL – The federal government of Brazil has issued emergency situations for 63 cities in Minas Gerais and one in Espírito Santo due to the outbreak of yellow fever.

Since the beginning of the year authorities have confirmed 44 people died of the disease and over seventy other suspected deaths are being investigated.

At least 30 people have died in the Brazilian state of Minas Germ over the past week due to yellow fever, while the total number of suspected cases has risen to 110, health authorities confirmed Thursday.

According to the state's Secretariat of Health, among the 30 dead, 10 have been proven to be caused by the disease, while all the others tested positive for yellow fever.

The outbreak seemed to be getting worse as the number of cases has risen from 48 to 110 over the last week.

Yellow fever is an acute viral disease which can kill a sufferer in less than a week if not treated timely.

It is mainly transmitted by the bite of an infected female mosquito.

Yellow fever is also commonly found in monkeys but now appears to be infecting humans as yellow fever is thought to be behind the death of thousands of rare monkeys found in the rain forests of Brazil

The outbreak started last year in South America and has now spread to humans killing nearly a hundred people this year already.

The authorities have rushed vaccines to hospitals, where long queues await inoculation.

Topic: US Drops 'Mother of All Bombs' in Afghanistan (25) 7 1352 2 15

The Pentagon has used the GBU-43B Massive Ordnance Air Blast (MOAB), the largest non-nuclear bomb in its arsenal, in an anti-Daesh mission in Afghanistan as a show of force meant to intimidate Washington's adversaries and opponents and boost Donald Trump's approval ratings, defense analyst Igor Korotchenko told Sputnik.

"The Pentagon's unwarranted missile attack against Syria has shown that President Donald Trump is prone to military braggadocio aimed primarily at intimidating opponents, as well as those countries that are not inclined to support Washington's adventurism," the analyst said. "The first military use of the most powerful non-nuclear weapon should be viewed in the context of the United States continuing to coerce and pressure its rivals."

Korotchenko suggested that the operation in Afghanistan was timed to coincide with the US Navy deploying the Carl Vinson Strike Group to the Korean Peninsula and could possibly herald a future military operation against Pyongyang.

BREAKING: NORTH KOREAN MISSILE CHALLENGE TO TRUMP FAILS AT LAUNCH

"The missile blew up almost instantly," U.S. Pacific Command says

Infowars.com - APRIL 15, 2017 3719 Comments

An attempted missile launch by North Korea failed early Sunday, South Korea's military says.

The missile, launched from the country's east coast, came only one day after the rogue nation had its annual military parade through the city of Pyongyang.

"North Korea attempted to test an unidentified type of missile from [its eastern port of] Sinpo," South Korean military officials said.

North Korea's military had also threatened to "hit back with nuclear attacks" after the Trump administration said it would increase pressure on the Communist regime.

The launch follows numerous other missile launches and five nuclear tests – with a sixth suspected to come soon.

Details on why the launch failed remain uncertain at this time. Reports from the Daily Mail claim the projectile is "presumed to be a new ICBM."

The failed launch was also tracked by U.S. Pacific Command.

BREAKING: JAPAN PREPARING TO EVACUATE 60,000 CITIZENS FROM SOUTH KOREA

Urgent discussions held as tensions build

Paul Joseph Watson | infowars.com - APRIL 14, 2017 670 Comments

Japan is finalizing plans to evacuate 60,000 of its citizens from South Korea in the event of war as tensions between the United States and North Korea continue to build.

Japan's National Security Council has held urgent discussions on how it would provide safe passage for its citizens if a major crisis arose out of a potential North Korean nuclear test, which some have predicted could happen this weekend.

Japanese authorities are also readying for a potential wave of North Korean refugees to pour into the country, amongst whom could be hidden spies and agents, Japanese media reported.

"Besides commercial ships and planes, Japan would want to send military aircraft and ships to assist in the evacuation if the South Korean government agreed," reports Press TV.

The official who revealed the plan declined to be identified, citing the "sensitivity" of the topic. A Japanese ruling party lawmaker and a government source also told Reuters this week that authorities in Japan were preparing for an influx of North Korean refugees, but that such preparations were being kept secretive so as not to stir public anxiety.

BERKELEY, Calif. (KGO) --

Protesters on both sides of the debate over President Trump's policies, and the direction the nation is taking are faced off in Berkeley Saturday.

The Downtown Berkeley BART station was closed during the protest, and the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District bus No. 12 had to be rerouted, according to agency officials.

Police have reported fights, property damage and that protesters have thrown objects such as fireworks.

Police now say 18 people have been arrested and officers have seized items prohibited from the protest. Some type of gas was released during the morning at Martin Luther King Jr. Civic Center Park where the protest started, a police spokesman said.

Spokesman Officer Byron White said because of the release of the gas, police put on gas masks.

White wasn't sure when protesters started gathering but some planned to gather at 10 a.m. and others at noon or later. At least two injuries have been reported so far to police, White said.

Hundreds of protesters have taken to the streets of Paris to protest against right-wing presidential candidate Marine Le Pen.

Demonstrators are holding up banners and chanting slogans, while riot police have been deployed to the scene.

Protesters are shouting: "This is Paris! Paris is antifascist!"

According to an AFP journalist on the scene, the protest consists of around 400 people, including members of trade unions and antifascist organizations.

The march, taking place in the northeastern suburb of Aubervilliers, is being held six days before the first round of the French presidential elections.

The organizers of the march, Anti-fascist Action Paris-Banlieue, accuse Le Pen's party, the National Front, of the "normalization and amplification of the state of emergency, racism and Islamophobia."

Protesters are shouting the slogans "This is Paris! Paris is antifascist!" and "solidarity with refugees."

The procession will go past the mayor's office in the 19th arrondissement of Paris, passing not far from the Zenith, where Le Pen plans to hold a meeting on Monday. According to Le Figaro, some groups have said they are planning some "actions" before the meeting.

Bombings at Two Churches in Egypt Turn Palm Sunday into Scenes of Carnage

By MORNING STAR NEWS (email protected) Apr 10, 2017 12:36 PM EDT

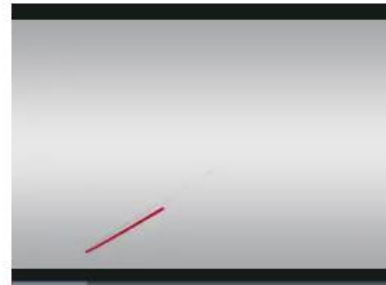

Bomb attacks on two Coptic churches holding Palm Sunday services in Egypt today killed at least 44 people and injured more than 100 others, according to reports. Reuters

Bomb attacks on two Coptic churches holding Palm Sunday services in Egypt today killed at least 44 people and injured more than 100 others, according to reports.

The first bomb exploded in the Nile Delta city of Tanta, at St. George's Coptic Orthodox Church about 60 miles north of Cairo, killing at least 27 people and wounding 78 others, according to wire reports. Hours later, a suicide bomber was stopped at the door of St. Mark's Coptic Orthodox Cathedral in the coastal city of Alexandria, where he detonated explosives that reportedly killed at least 17 people and injured 48 others. Islamic State (IS) claimed responsibility for the attacks.

The head of the Coptic Church, Pope Tawadros II, was at the service in Alexandria and had finished addressing the congregation before the blast, according to reports. He was unhurt. Pope Francis is scheduled to visit Egypt this month.

US army makes largest deployment of troops to Somalia since 'Black Hawk Down'

Published time: 16 Apr 2017 | 14:47 GMT

Reuters /

The US army has deployed dozens of troops to Somalia to train forces fighting Al-Shabab Islamist militant group in the largest deployment of troops to the country since 1993, when 18 US soldiers died in a battle dramatized in the movie Black Hawk Down.

A US military official told Voice of America that the team will train-and-equip Somali and AMISOM (African Union Mission in Somalia) forces, with the mission expected to last until the end of September.

"United States Africa Command will conduct various security cooperation and/or security force assistance events in Somalia in order to assist our allies and partners," US Africa Command spokesman Pat Barnes told the government funded Voice of America.

The new deployment will consist of dozens of soldiers from the 101st Airborne Division, who specialize in air assault operations. The division has also seen activity in Iraq and Afghanistan.

This is the first time regular US troops have been deployed in Somalia since they withdrew in 1994, although as a spokesperson noted, a small number of counterterrorism advisers have maintained an ongoing presence in the country.

The troop deployment follows a directive signed last month by Donald Trump designed to clamp down on Al-Shabaab who are closely linked with Al-Qaeda.

Updated 1:44 AM EDT, Sun April 16, 2017

(CNN) — Three teens and a baby were injured in a shooting during a carnival outside an Alabama church.

Their injuries — all from gunshot wounds — weren't life-threatening, Center Point Fire District Chief Donnie West told CNN.

The shooting stemmed from a fight shortly before 9:30 p.m. in the parking lot of the Cathedral of the Cross church in Birmingham, West said.

About 800 people were attending the carnival and 100 others were trying to buy tickets outside the entry gate when the shooting occurred, West said

THE US may have sabotaged Kim Jong-un's missile test yesterday through a cyber-attack causing the rocket to spectacularly flop, according to a former British foreign secretary.

Sir Malcolm Rifkind claims American intelligence has used cyber warfare to successfully foil missile tests before and that there is a "strong belief" that President Trump's administration was behind North Korea's latest failed launch.

The US and China are working on a response to the North Korean missile crisis, Donald Trump's top security adviser has said.

General HR McMaster said China had joined an international consensus that Kim Jong-un's "threatening behaviour" could not continue. The countries are working on a "range of options" in response to a failed missile test by the regime and growing tensions over its nuclear programme.

Trump has urged Beijing to use its influence as North Korea's biggest ally to resolve the crisis. The president said today that China was "working with us on the North Korean problem".

Aleppo (Reuters) The death toll from a bomb attack on a crowded bus convoy outside Aleppo has reached at least 126 in the deadliest such incident in Syria in almost a year, the Syrian Observatory for Human Rights monitoring group said on Sunday.

Syrian rescue workers of the Civil Defense said that they had taken away at least 100 bodies from the site of Saturday's blast, which hit buses carrying Shi'ite residents as they waited to cross from rebel into government territory in an evacuation deal between the warring sides.

The British-based Observatory said the number was expected to rise.

Those killed were mostly residents of the villages of al-Foua and Kefraya in Idlib province, but included rebel fighters guarding the convoy, the Observatory said.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the attack, which pro-Damascus media said was carried out by a suicide car bomber.

Syria's main armed opposition condemned the bombing, with groups fighting under the banner of the Free Syrian Army describing it as a "treacherous terrorist attack"

MADRID (AFP) — Troublemakers sparked panic sparked at Seville's nighttime Good Friday processions, famed for their religious floats, hooded penitents and crowds of spectators, seriously injuring one person, Spanish authorities said.

Emergency services said eight people were detained in connection with the incidents, from 04:00 local time (0200GMT) on Friday, which sent people running in panic and leaving children in tears along procession routes throughout the city.

One man was later released, though he could still face charges, authorities in the southern Spanish city said.

In a statement, the Cecop centre that oversees security during the annual processions said those detained had "shouted", used metallic objects to make loud noise or made "wild gesticulations" to create panic in the thousands-strong crowds.

An AFP photographer present said she heard what sounded like a stampede of galloping animals, and then a mass of people pushed towards her.

Standing on the Isabel II bridge that straddles Seville's Guadalquivir River, she climbed onto a lamppost.

"There were children, women with prams," she said, adding that some people rushed down steps towards the river, falling over themselves in panic.

No shots were fired, and the sound was of police using a stun gun on someone, NYPD Chief William Morris said.

"About 6:30 tonight, we received numerous calls for shots fired in and around Penn Station," Morris said.

"As officers responded, we learned that the Amtrak police had deployed a Taser, the likely source of the sound and the ensuing 911 calls."

(CNN) — Terrified crowds raced out of New York's Penn Station following false reports of gunfire, leading to a stampede that injured at least 16 people, authorities said.

The false reports Friday night sent people pushing past one another to escape the underground station. Bags,
