JESUS CALLING OR SMITH WIGGLESWORTH

Paul's Conversion and Baptism

Part One

"Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you came, has sent me that you may receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." Immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received his sight at once; and he arose and was baptized.

—Acts 9:17-18

Scripture reading: Acts 8:1-13

Saul was probably the greatest persecutor that the early church had. Saul hated the Christians: "He made havoc of the church, entering every house, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison" (Acts 8:3). In Acts 9, we read that he was breathing out threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord. He was on his way to Damascus for the purpose of destroying the church there (vv. 1-2).

How did God deal with such a person? We would have dealt with him in judgment. God dealt with him in mercy. Oh, the wondrous love of God! He loved the believers at Damascus, and the way He preserved them was through the salvation of the man who intended to scatter and destroy them. He shows mercy to all. If we would just realize that we are alive today only through the grace of our God!

More and more, I see that it is through the grace of God that I am preserved every day. It is when we realize the goodness of God that we are brought to repentance. Here was Saul, with letters from the high priest, hurrying to Damascus. He was struck down, and he saw a light, a light that was brighter than the sun. As he fell speechless to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?" He asked, "Who are You, Lord?" And the answer came back, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting." And Saul cried, "Lord, what do You want me to do?" (Acts 9:4-6).

I do not want to bring any word of condemnation to anyone, but I know that many have felt very much the same way toward the children of God as Paul did, especially toward those who have received the Pentecostal baptism. I know that many people tell us, "You are mad," but the truth is that the children of God are the only people who are really glad. We are glad inside and outside. Our gladness flows from the inside. God has filled us with "joy inexpressible and full of glory" (1 Pet. 1:8). We are so happy about what we have received that, if it were not for the desire to keep a little decorum, we might be doing strange things. This is probably how the apostle Paul felt when, referring to himself and his coworkers, he said, "we are beside ourselves" (2 Cor. 5:13) in the Lord. This joy in the Holy Spirit is beyond anything else. And this joy of the Lord is our strength (Neh. 8:10).

Thought for today: Our God delights to be merciful, and His grace is granted daily to both sinner and saint.

There's nothing in the Bible about the spirits of some dead humans "staying behind" on Earth. Spirits return to God (Eccl. 12:7). WE MUST NOT MISS THE MESSAGE

Ministers and theologians everywhere are saying, "God has nothing to do with disasters. He wouldn't allow awful things to happen." Yet, nothing could be further from the truth. This kind of thinking is causing our nation to rapidly miss the message God wants to speak to us through tragedy.

The fact is, we have to have a word from God. Like many pastors, I've wept and grieved over awful calamities. I've sought the Lord in prayer and through His Word. And I want to tell you, I've experienced a grief that's even deeper than the mourning for innocent people dying. It's a grief that says if we miss God's message, if we turn a deaf ear to what He is loudly proclaiming, then much worse is in store for us.

The prophet Isaiah speaks directly to what we've experienced. If you object to using the Old Testament for examples, consider Paul's words on the subject: "All these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come" (1 Corinthians 10:11). Paul makes it clear that the examples of the Old Testament reveal just how God moves in times like ours.

At the time that Isaiah prophesied, God had been dealing patiently with Israel for about 250 years. The Lord had sent "light afflictions" upon His people, calling them to repentance. He was trying to woo them out of their brazen idolatry and back into His blessing and favor.

All the prophets throughout the years had spoken to Israel the same essential word: "Humble yourselves." Scripture says, "They served idols . . . yet the Lord testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes" (2 Kings 17:12-13).

But God's chosen nation rejected His call to repentance. "They would not hear, but hardened their necks" (17:14). These people mocked the prophets who called them to humility. And, instead, they "followed vanity, and became vain . . . and they left all the commandments of the Lord their God . . . and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord. . . . Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel" (2 Kings 17:15-18).

GREAT QUOTES

INTENSIFIED PREVAILING PRAYER

Intensified prevailing prayer is God's ordained law and method for implementing His redemptive plan in this age till Jesus returns. It is the highest, holiest, and mightiest effort of which a child of God is capable. It is God's chosen way to bring heaven's power, heaven's resources, and heaven's angels into action on earth.

Spurgeon says, "He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal." 1 Intensified prayer is clothed with the might of God Himself.

Duewel, Wesley L. (2013-08-20). Mighty Prevailing Prayer:

General Booth

“Not called!’ did you say?

‘Not heard the call,’ I think you should say.

Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear Him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father's house and bid their brothers and sisters and servants and masters not to come there. Then look Christ in the face — whose mercy you have professed to obey — and tell Him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

Humility in Daily Life

00- Humility by Andrew Murray –

Tribulation Now

(6 minutes)

If someone says, 'I love God,' but hates a Christian brother or sister, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we have not seen? (1 John 4:20) Here's a sobering thought:

God measures our love for Him by the love we show our brothers and sisters in every day fellowship with them. It is a serious thing to realize that our love for God just isn't genuine if it fails the test of daily life with our fellow human beings. The same thing is true with humility. It is easy to think we humble ourselves before God. But humility before people is the only real proof that our humility before God is more than just a figment of our imagination. It is the only true evidence that humility has made a home in our hearts and become our nature. How can we know that we, like Christ, have made ourselves of no reputation? By the reality check of daily life. When in God's presence humility has become more than just a feeling we have when we think about Him or pray, but instead the very Spirit of our lives, it will show itself in the way we treat our brothers and sisters.

This lesson is crucial. The only humility that really belongs to us is not what we try to show before God in prayer, but what we carry with us and live out when we get up off our knees. The insignificance of daily life is the test of eternity. It proves what Spirit really possesses us. It is in our unguarded moments when we show who we really are. To know the humble man, you have to follow him around and watch his daily life.

Isn't that lesson exactly what Jesus taught? His great teachings about humility came when He saw the disciples arguing about who was greatest or the Pharisees competing for the place of honor at banquets and in synagogues. He taught again after He had given them an example by washing their feet. Humility before God is nothing if it isn't proved by humility before men. Paul of course taught the same practical lesson. To the Romans, he wrote: "Love each other with genuine affection and take delight in honoring each other...Live in harmony with each other. Don't try to act important, but enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all!"(Romans 12:10,16). To the Corinthians, he said: "Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. Love does not demand its own way" (1 Corinthians 13:4-5). There is no love except what grows from the root of humility! To the Galatians, Paul wrote:

"For you have been called to freedom...freedom to serve one another in love...Let us not become conceited, or irritate one another, or be jealous of one another" (Galatians 5:13,26). To the Ephesians, right after those three wonderful chapters about living in Heavenly Realms, he said, "Be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other" (Ephesians 4:2). "And further, you will submit to one another out of reverence for Christ" (Ephesians 5:21). To the Philippians, Paul wrote: "Make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one heart and purpose. Don't be selfish; don't live to make a good impression on others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourself...Your attitude should be the same as that Christ Jesus had...He made Himself nothing; He took the humble position of a slave and appeared in human form. And in human form He obediently humbled Himself even further by dying a criminal's death on the cross" (Philippians 2:3, 5, 7-8).

Col 3:12-17

12 Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14 But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

NKJV

BE NICE TO EACHOTHER

Col 3:12-15

12 Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14 But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection.

GODLY WARNING PLEASE DISCERN

A real quick word to the wise heart, any of these prophecies and prophets could prove to be wrong or become incorrect at any time. There are also "non-prophetic" sources added to this document to add additional information for your discernment.

We All See Through the Mirror Dimly

1 Cor 13:12

For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

Tracking visions, dreams, and prophecies is always very challenging. Remember the devil seeks whom he may devour so we must always seek Jesus first, and trust in God alone, not "man".

If you decide to track the prophetic information from any of these sources, please watch and pray and remember that we must discern and measure all things against the Bible.

Deut 18:22

Please Commit the Verse to Memory

When a prophet speaks in the name of the Lord, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

THE VOICE OF THE VICTORIOUS CHRIST
by David Wilkerson
[May 19, 1931 – April 27, 2011]

WE MUST LISTEN TO GOD'S PROPHECIES
OR FACE RUIN / DESTRUCTION

When God said, "Once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven" (Hebrews 12:26), He was saying, in essence, "I shook the earth at Mount Sinai. But when I speak in these last days, My voice will shake both the natural and spiritual worlds. The status quo will tremble; nothing will remain as it is. Whatever is called religious—all that is of Christ or the Church—will be shaken by the voice of My Son speaking from heaven."

God had warned Israel that all who refuse to listen to His prophet would be brought to account: "And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him" (Deuteronomy 18:19). He was saying, "I'm going to pursue every disobedience—and you'll account for it all."

Scripture reveals that those who ignored the words of God's prophets fell into ruin. They became withered and bitter, dying without any joy or peace.

See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven" (Hebrews 12:25).

Beloved, neither will we escape God's wrath—either as a nation or as individuals. And right now Jesus' voice is shaking every nation, causing institutions, leaders and economies to tremble. He is saying to the wind and the elements, "Blow upon the earth." He is saying to the clouds, "Withhold rain." He is saying to the economies of the world, "All greed—be judged."

God is also commanding, "Prisons, shake. Governments, shake. Financial systems, shake. Schools, shake. Military forces, shake. Courts and legislatures, shake. Everything on earth, shake until there is no foundation left but the Lord."

It is not the devil who is shaking everything. The whole world is being shaken by the voice of the victorious Christ. The Man in glory has risen in power upon His throne and He is speaking a word to shake all things.

A dark and terrible destiny awaits America. Once the Land of the Free, now the Land of Anything Goes. America, once a joy to Me, you have become a filthy stain of sin on the world I created. I have watched for years as your cup of iniquity filled up.

I can delay judgment no longer. You pridefully refuse to turn from your wicked ways. Like a shameless harlot, you flaunt your sins around the earth.

You are no longer My own. I cast you out.

Your time has come.

Wings of Prophecy – Your Time Has Come (Glynda Linkous)

Bullet points for you. Urgent message from Glynda.
Mainly about America's coming judgement.

1:00 Speaks of all the blood America has shed beginning with the Native American and how their blood is crying out
5:55 It is too late for repentance for America. God has told her that the judgement of God on America is set now.

7:9 America will be destroyed, it is only a question of when

7:33 Hear me you Washington politicians and leaders, YOU are no longer convenient for God. Judgement is coming from His hand and it is coming for you. To every person who refuses to repent and honor Him

7:50 It is coming to every pastor, politician, person who agrees with and supports abortion and gay marriage in defiance of His Holy Word

8:00 it is coming to avenge the blood of every native American, slave and innocent baby you slaughtered... you have become a filthy abomination in His sight. There will be no where to hide from His mighty hand

8:50 Every knee shall bow, including YOU Washington DC. What you sowed, you will reap

10:00 Prophet message she was given, right after she recorded the message above

2:30am Word for Word...

A Dark and terrible destiny awaits America. Once the land of the free, now the land of anything goes. America, once a joy to Me...you have become a filthy stain of sin on the world I created. I have watched for years as your cup of iniquity filled up, I can delay judgement no longer. You pridefully refused to turn from your wicked ways. Like a shameless harlot, you flaunt your sins around the earth. You are no longer my own. I cast you out. Your time has come.

11:00 Glynda emphasizes that this is a very serious and urgent Word from the Lord. She pleads for people to repent. No one knows where this will strike first. When God says something like this, He is not playing.

The message she gave rose up and rose up in her spirit until she got up in the middle of the night to record it. She pleads with everyone to witness to as many as possible (gently) for Jesus. If the person won't receive it then pray that the Lord will send someone they will listen to.

WE MUST NOT MISS THE MESSAGE

Ministers and theologians everywhere are saying, "God has nothing to do with disasters. He wouldn't allow awful things to happen." Yet, nothing could be further from the truth. This kind of thinking is causing our nation to rapidly miss the message God wants to speak to us through tragedy.

The fact is, we have to have a word from God. Like many pastors, I've wept and grieved over awful calamities. I've sought the Lord in prayer and through His Word. And I want to tell you, I've experienced a grief that's even deeper than the mourning for innocent people dying. It's a grief that says if we miss God's message, if we turn a deaf ear to what He is loudly proclaiming, then much worse is in store for us.

The prophet Isaiah speaks directly to what we've experienced. If you object to using the Old Testament for examples, consider Paul's words on the subject: "All these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come" (1 Corinthians 10:11). Paul makes it clear that the examples of the Old Testament reveal just how God moves in times like ours.

At the time that Isaiah prophesied, God had been dealing patiently with Israel for about 250 years. The Lord had sent "light afflictions" upon His people, calling them to repentance. He was trying to woo them out of their brazen idolatry and back into His blessing and favor.

All the prophets throughout the years had spoken to Israel the same essential word: "Humble yourselves." Scripture says, "They served idols . . . yet the Lord testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes" (2 Kings 17:12-13).

But God's chosen nation rejected His call to repentance. "They would not hear, but hardened their necks" (17:14). These people mocked the prophets who called them to humility. And, instead, they "followed vanity, and became vain . . . and they left all the commandments of the Lord their God . . . and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord. . . . Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel" (2 Kings 17:15-18).

The Vision of the 12 Houses

(by C. Alan Martin 1971)

C. Alan Martin had a vision back in 1971 prophetically depicting 12 presidents of the United States. The “LAST” President was unknown to him even after updating the information in the late 90’s. We know today that the “LAST” President would have been Barack Obama. This is what the prophecy says about this 12th House or President.

House 12 President: ?

This is the last house that I saw in this vision of the night. After this house was a dirt path that lead toward a collection of boulders arraigned in a semi circle which reminded me of a place where a trial was held and judgment rendered. In another dream which took place during the millennial age, I was standing among these rock looking at the ruins of a world rocked by the (great) tribulation. In the ruins of these boulders I found a witch doll. I knew immediately that one (sic) of the reasons that the USA was judged was because she had gone after the occult and witchcraft.

Across from the path after house #12 was a new row of houses stretching off into the distance. These I believe are the rulers of the land that Jesus will set up during the millennium.

In the vision of the night (after I saw the star fall to the earth)

[Note: Could this be the Puerto Rico Comet event?]

I heard a voice say “Look to the east”. I began to turn and fully expected to see Jesus coming in the clouds. As I turned I saw the clouds part and I saw the blood moon and the dark sun.

[Note: This is the Sixth Seal Rev 6:12-17]

Both of these are symbolic of judgment being levied on a nation and the fall of a nation. I continued turning to the east and saw the ancient army approaching from the east through the yards of all the houses of the presidents.

[Note: This is Russia and China moving / conquering from the East to West and USA, Gog/Magog Ezekiel 38, 39]

It was then that I ran down to join this army in the yard of the house of Nixon. This was 1971, the year I was saved.

Immediately the scene changed and I was in the middle of a city in gray ruins. I saw a man emerge from what I perceived to be a “temple fortress” who was dressed in a diplomatic suit and carrying a briefcase. A voice said “He claims to be God, but is of devil”.

[Note: This is Obama, the Antichrist]

Then the dream ended.

The Year Ahead

The year ahead shall be fraught with perils, My children. I am shaking those things that can be shaken in order to show those that believe Me not their great need of a savior. They will not turn their hearts to Me until they see they can no longer save themselves.

My children who walk with me know they need not fear. Every earthly kingdom will I shake. Every union and alliance not built on Me, will I also shake.

It is imperative that My people are clinging to and relying on Me and My Word alone. If you have placed your faith in anything other than Me, I shall expose it to you as I shake you loose from it.

Times coming will require your absolute, undivided loyalty to Me only. Any allegiance to the Evil One will be your destruction in that time.

I am coming back for a bride without spot or blemish!

PASTOR TD HALE DREAMS

The TD Hale Dream Locks these Events to 2016

Moreover we have the prophetic dream given to pastor TD Hale in December of 2011 showing the nuclear destruction of the United States WHILE Obama is in the Office of the President. Here is a LINK to the dreams in text format. Hale not only saw the destruction of the US (burnt from end to end, totally destroyed) but he also saw the aftermath with people hiding from the FEMA police and soldiers. He also saw the FEMA prison camps in operation and saw the "trains" (FEMA Trains) at those facilities used to transport the victims to their fate.

Here is the audio clip from the TruNews Show.

LINK HERE

Please Note: It is crucially important to note, with the exception of the Obama Presidency timeline, the TD Hale dream matches the testimony of many other Godly sources including:

- AA Alan's Vision from 1954
- Dimitru Duduman's Visitation from 1983
- Henry Gruver's Vision from the late 80's

There are others as well. To listen to these testimonies you can go to this page (Apocalyptic Signs – Prophecies and Predictions HERE.)

Russian Kremlin Pastor Says Orchestrated Financial Collapse will Precede Planned Nuclear Attack on US

For example, here below is an audio clip of David Herzog speaking with Paul Keith Davis on an April 13th, 2013 Webinar that was unfortunately later removed by the Davis ministry.

Here brother Herzog testifies that he met with a Russian pastor who works at the Kremlin. Reportedly Herzog was told "they" are planning an orchestrated financial collapse of the United States (and other nations) AND "they" intend to set off a nuclear attack on the west coast of the US as well. He also mentions that he has confirmed Russian and Chinese troops are working inside the US borders at the invitation of the US government.

THE THIRD SECRET OF FATIMA

Evidently, according to this author (below), Father Malachi Martin reported that the Third Secret of Fatima was ultimately the Rev 6:12-14 “pole shift” and the First Trumpet CME (solar flare). The most amazing part is that this is reportedly to happen

POLE SHIFT
2017

Revelation 6:14
;and every mountain and island was moved out of its place.
NKJV

by 2017 Fatima author Father Malachi Martin has said that “the Third Secret is your worst nightmare, multiplied exponentially.”

(<http://www.tldm.org/News10/MalachiMartinBelievedInBayside.htm>)

In an interview with Art Bell in 1997, he explained that “I was shown the Text of the third secret in February 1960. I cooled my heels in the corridor outside the Holy Father's apartments, while my Boss, Cardinal Bea, was inside debating with the Holy Father (Pope John XXIII), and with a other group of other bishops and priests, and two young Portuguese seminarians, who translated the letter, a single page, written in Portuguese..... on the content of the Third Secret, Sister Lucy one day replied: 'It's in the Gospel, and in the Apocalypse, read them.' We even know that one day Lucy indicated Chapters 8, 13 of the Apocalypse.

<http://garabandalnews.verblog.com/2014/01/fatima-3rd-secret-and-facts.html>)

Father Martin said of the fulfillment of the Third Secret that these events are “not 200 years away, it is not 50 years away, it is not 20 years away...” He expressed the view that major portions of end times events would be underway before the centennial of the Marian apparitions (before May 13, 2017.)

Tetrad High Holy Days

While solar and lunar eclipses are common occurrences and for the most part have no great prophetic significance, when they fall on the biblical Feast days, we should pay close attention. In Revelation 6:12, the Bible declares that the sun will become black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon as red as blood. Most scholars believe this important end-times sign is speaking of solar and lunar eclipses. The significance of a total solar eclipse or total lunar eclipse, if it happened on one of God's Feast days would be a powerful message. Knowing this, be advised there are four total blood moons coming, back to back, right in a row, all falling on Feast days. Equally incredible is how within the very same timeframe, two solar eclipses are scheduled to arrive. Read that again and let the significance of these comments sink in. Prophetically speaking, we are talking about the equivalent of six grand-slam homeruns in a row—a mathematical improbability that stands out against the randomness of natural cycles and strongly suggests a miraculous sign or “omen” of intelligent design is coming. Of significance to this book is how these “grand slams” are set to unfold between the years 2012-2016, specifically 2014 and 2015.

Why did the chicken sit on a tomahawk? (to hatchet)

The devout cowboy lost his favorite Bible while he was mending fences out on the range.

Three weeks later, a chicken walked up to him carrying the Bible in its mouth.

The cowboy couldn't believe his eyes.

He took the precious book out of the chicken's mouth, raised his eyes heavenward and exclaimed, "It's a miracle!"

"Not really," said the chicken. "Your name is written inside the cover."

Why does a chicken coop have two doors? (Because if had four doors it would be a chicken sedan)

Why did half a chicken cross the road? (To get to its other side!)

Why did the rooster run away? (He was chicken!)

What do chickens grow on? (Eggplants!)

Why did the chicken cross the road?

To get to your house.

Who's there?

THE CHICKEN!!!

What do you get if you cross a chicken with a cement mixer?
(A brick layer!)

What do you call a crazy chicken? (A cuckoo cluck!)

BLS Great Depression Unemployment

While the kneejerk headlining scanning algos are focusing on the seasonally-adjusted headline monthly NFP increase which came in a worse than expected 173K, the presidential candidates - especially the GOP - are far more focused on another data point: the labor force participation rate, and the number of Americans not in the labor force. Here, they will have some serious ammo, because according to the BLS, the main reason why the unemployment rate tumbled to the lowest since April 2008 is because another 261,000 Americans dropped out of the labor force, as a result pushing the total number of US potential workers who are not in the labor force, to a record 94 million, an increase of 1.8 million in the past year, and a whopping 14.9 million since the start of the second great depression in December 2007 while only 4 million new jobs have been created.

Does the White House approve of limiting religious freedom? (Reuters)

Join us on our podcast each weekday for an interesting story, well told, from Charisma News. Listen at charismapodcastnetwork.com.

White House spokesman Josh Earnest on Thursday said it was "appropriate" for a federal judge to resolve the matter of a county clerk in Kentucky who was jailed after repeatedly refusing to issue marriage licenses to same-sex couples on religious grounds.

"I would not from this vantage point second-guess those decisions," Earnest told reporters, when asked about a U.S. federal judge finding the clerk in contempt of court.

"There's a rule of law and the principle of the rule of law is central to our democracy. And it's appropriate in this instance for a federal judge to determine the best way to enforce the law."

That instability then charged up thunderstorms over the Mediterranean Sea, which swept into Italy. "The satellite signature was classic for a severe thunderstorm, or cluster of storms."

Social media posts recorded hail near Lake Como in Northern Italy as well as the in the Naples area.

India's monsoon floods linger on

The summer rains are retreating across South Asia, but thousands of people remain displaced in India's Assam state.

Thousands have been displaced in monsoon floods in Assam state and more than 1,600 villages were inundated [EPA]

The withdrawal of this year's southwest monsoon is now under way. Although the rains have eased across a good part of South Asia, they do remain heavy over Bangladesh, parts of Pakistan, and along the far northeast of India.

The situation remains critical in Assam state where 26 people died in the latest round of flooding. As many as 85,000 people still require shelter in the 214 relief camps set up by the government.

UN agency forced to cut food aid to 200,000 Syrian refugees

World Food Programme

POSTED: SEP 04 2015 12:52PM EDT
UPDATED: SEP 04 2015 01:02PM EDT

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The cash-strapped World Food Program says it has had to drop one-third of Syrian refugees from its aid program in Mideast host countries this year, including more than 200,000 in Jordan who lost aid this month.

The cutbacks come at a time when more desperate Syrians are trying to reach Europe. More than 4 million Syrians fled their country's civil war since 2011, most settling in Jordan, Lebanon, Turkey, Iraq and Egypt.

WFP regional spokeswoman Abeer Etefa said Friday that the number of refugees receiving its food aid was cut from 2.1 million to 1.4 million since March.

Etefa says the world must do more to support refugees in their host countries or face increasing migration, saying, "We have to help people where they are or they will move."

EXCLUSIVE: New York 2015 - FOUR THOUSAND sleeping on the streets, 80 homeless encampments in the city and beggars making $75 a day as arrests for panhandling and street drinking plunge

- Police in city say up to 4,000 people are sleeping on the streets and that there are at least 80 homeless encampments - a quarter of them so permanent they have furniture
- Ultra-liberal mayor Bill de Blasio under fire from his tough predecessor Rudolph Giuliani for failing to clean up city's problem
- Daily Mail Online has spoken to homeless beggars who say they can make $70 a day - as much as an eight-hour day on city's minimum wage
- Arrests for crimes like aggressive panhandling, exposure and public urination have collapsed
- Many homeless are taking cheap drugs, with heroin going for just $10 a bag and one expert saying: 'There is an epidemic.'

They are sleeping in front of the Empire State building, sprawled in front of the doors of Macy's, and panhandling outside Grand Central.

New York is in the grip of a homeless epidemic so bad that it has raised fears of the city slipping back into the disorder of the 1970s and 1980s.

The city's police chief this week said that as many as 4,000 people are now sleeping rough in the city, in a crisis which even the city's ultra-liberal mayor has finally acknowledged after months of denials.

Police officers have identified 80 separate homeless encampments in the city, 20 of which are so entrenched that they have their own furniture, while its former mayor Rudolph Giuliani has spoken scathingly of how his successor is failing to keep order.

Blending in, Jade Helm Style: Fake Rental Trucks Reveal Military's Hidden Spy Rooms

Jade Helm's tagline is "mastering the human domain".

We have been told that, in part, this has to do with special operations outfits from the Navy, Army, Air Force and Marines using covert warfare techniques to infiltrate average American neighborhoods (as mock "hostile environments") and walk "undetected amongst civilian populations" without being noticed by the rest of us. Oh, and it's for "refining the skills needed against an ever changing foreign threat" (emphasis added on the word "foreign") according to Army Special Operation Command spokesman Mark Lastoria.

Well, here's one way they reportedly have done that.

Mike Lamb, a staff writer for Barstow, California's Desert Dispatch was invited to a small press meeting prior to a joint forcible entry operation training exercise at Fort Irwin National Training Center called Operation Dragon Spear last month. Military vehicles and gear were put on display and the reporters were allowed to take pictures and ask questions.

"What I'm about to share with you is not top secret. But there were U.S. Army special operations soldiers lurking around Barstow, driving down our streets and we didn't even know it," he wrote.

Part of the military's stealth technology involved a Ryder truck and a hay truck:

*Parked outside were a Ryder rental truck full of furniture and a hay truck. As I stood there staring at them, the same public affairs officials pointed to the dryer inside the Ryder truck, its door wide open. I walked closer and looked inside the dryer. He pointed his lighted phone at the opening, revealing a large room.

The same for the hay truck. A small doorway led to large room inside.

AP Sues US Gov't Over Fake FBI News Article Booby Trapped With Surveillance Virus

AUGUST 28, 2015

By Melissa Dykes

The Associated Press, one of the main sources for mainstream news articles in the world, is currently suing the U.S. government. It's claim?

The FBI endangered the AP's reputation when the federal law enforcement agency sent out a link to a fake AP article the FBI had created which was laced with a surveillance virus that would infect the computer of anyone who clicked on it, thereby enabling the FBI to spy on them.

AP:

"It is improper and inconsistent with a free press for government personnel to masquerade as The Associated Press or any other news organization," [AP General Counsel Karen] Kaiser wrote. "The FBI may have intended this false story as a trap for only one person. However, the individual could easily have reposted this story to social networks, distributing to thousands of people, under our name, what was essentially a piece of government disinformation." Just one year after Mario Draghi reassured the market he would do 'whatever it takes' to ensure the inflation rate in the Eurozone will increase again, he seems to have been pushed back into a corner. The European Central Bank once again had to reduce its economic growth expectations as well as the expectations for the average inflation rate in the Eurozone.

The most important piece of news announced today was also, as usually happens, the most underreported: it had nothing to do with US jobs, with the Fed's hiking intentions, with China, or even the ongoing "1998-style" carnage in emerging markets. Instead, it was the admission by ECB governing council member Ewald Nowotny that what we said about the ECB hitting a supply brick wall, was right. Specifically, earlier today Bloomberg quoted the Austrian central banker that the ECB asset-backed securities purchasing program "hasn't been as successful as we'd hoped."

Why? "It's simply because they are running out. There are simply too few of these structured products out there."

So six months later, the ECB begrudgingly admitted what we said in March 2015, in "A Complete Preview Of Q€ — And Why It Will Fail", was correct. Namely this:

... the ECB is monetizing over half of gross issuance (and more than twice net issuance) and a cool 12% of eurozone GDP. The latter figure there could easily rise if GDP contracts and Q€ is expanded, a scenario which should certainly not be ruled out given Europe's fragile economic situation and expectations for the ECB to remain accommodative for the foreseeable future. In fact, the market is already talking about the likelihood that the program will be expanded/extended.

*... while we hate to beat a dead horse, the sheer lunacy of a bond buying program that is only constrained by the fact that there simply aren't enough bonds to buy, cannot possibly be overstated.

Among the program's many inherent absurdities are the glaring disparity between the size of the program and the amount of net euro fixed income issuance and the more nuanced fact that the effects of previous ECB easing efforts virtually ensure that Q€ cannot succeed.

Syria crisis: US concern over Russia 'military build-up'

5 September 2015 | US & Canada

The US and Russia disagree sharply on how to tackle Syria's ongoing civil conflict

US Secretary of State John Kerry has expressed concern to Moscow over reports of Russian military build-up in Syria, the state department says.

US media reports said Russia has sent advisers and hardware to Syria, in what Washington fears is an expansion of its support for President Bashar al-Assad.

Any such development would "escalate the conflict", Mr Kerry told his Russian counterpart Sergei Lavrov.

Russia has been a key ally of Syria throughout its four-year civil war.

Mainstream Media Solution: “Bomb Assad and Save the Refugees”

The Guardian is currently providing us with a good example of what is often called the “problem-reaction-solution” method of controlling public discourse.

Step One: Find, create, emphasise, or de-contextualise a problem

In this case, the “refugee crisis”, currently screaming from the front pages of most mainstream media outlets. The unanimity and hysteria should immediately alert us to a potential agenda. Yes, of course there are thousands of refugees and their plight is appalling. Yes the way they are being received by the EU is predictably callous and racist. But this is what happens when you start imperialist wars, and even the Guardian admits it’s not new. The MSM has been content to ignore the plight of displaced Libyans since 2011, displaced Iraqis since 2003, displaced Syrians and Ukrainian since 2014.

So we need to ask why the western media are suddenly headlining this ongoing human tragedy?

Why the blatant attempts to create mass hysteria through manipulation of basic human emotions – fear (of the alleged incoming hordes of displaced people) and outrage (for their plight)?

Is it because the media and its masters are suddenly discovering their humanity and conscience? Well, it’s always possible, but I think we’d be unwise to make that a first assumption. And in fact, a more likely answer presents itself in the Guardian’s response to the crisis it has chosen this moment to define...

Putin Confirms Scope Of Russian Military Role In Syria | Zero Hedge

Over the past 48 hours or so, we've seen what certainly appears to be visual confirmation of a non-negligible Russian military presence in Syria. For anyone coming to the story late, overt Russian involvement would seem to suggest that the geopolitical "main event" (so to speak), may be closer than anyone imagined.

Russia's excuse for being in Syria is the same as everyone else's: they're there, ostensibly, to fight ISIS. As we mentioned yesterday, and as we've detailed exhaustively as it relates to Turkey, the fact that ISIS has become a kind of catch-all, go-to excuse for legitimizing whatever one feels like doing is a dangerous precedent and Turkey's crackdown on the Kurds proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that Islamic State will serve as a smokescreen for more than just the preservation/ouster (depending on which side you're on) of Bashar al-Assad.

NORTH KOREA HAS BUILT AN ELABORATE UNDERGROUND MISSILE COMPLEX

 Share  182  Tweet  88  Share Share this on Google+

(NationalSecurity.news) The North Korean military has constructed a vast intricate underground missile complex at its Sohae missile and space launch facility near the northwestern border with China, U.S. officials tell The Washington Times, that includes facilities for preparing missiles for launch and storage areas connected by rail lines.

The secret facility was built over the course of a decade, U.S. officials familiar with it said, noting it serves as an example of North Korea's prowess at building such installations below ground.

The Times noted that the installation is creating a host of problems for the U.S. intelligence community, which is charged with providing warning times for incoming missiles.

In the past, Pyongyang's missiles and space launch vehicles were transported openly by rail cars and constructed and fueled over the course of days. That allowed U.S. spy satellites, aircraft and ships to monitor the process.

A skin-worn sensor that turns the human body into a touch sensitive surface for controlling mobile devices has been developed by scientists in Germany. iSkin is made from biocompatible silicone rubber with pressure-sensitive sensors that are stuck to the skin of the users, allowing them to use their own body to control mobile devices.

Developed by scientists at the Max Planck Institute for Informatics and Saarland University, the experimental system has been produced in different shapes and sizes to suit various locations on the body, such as the finger, forearm and even behind the ear-lobe. The sensor is capable of detecting touch input pressure even when being stretched or bent. With the current prototypes; wearers can answer incoming calls, play music and adjust volume. A roll-up keyboard for use with a smart watch has also been designed.

iSkin's thin, soft and flexible design presents new possibilities for mobile interaction that have not been possible with existing hardware, according to co-developer Martin Weigel.

"Current electronics are mostly using rigid components which are very uncomfortable to wear on the body and are limiting the locations to, for example, the wrist or on the head to be worn. But our sensor is a flexible and stretchable sensor, so it can cover many locations. For example, even the backside of the ear or the forearm. So, we have a much larger input space than current electronics allow for," he said.

Look mum, I'm microchipped! Boy, 15, injects himself with tiny controller that can operate his mobile phone, unlock doors and even hand out business cards

- Bryon Wake carried out DIY operation while his parents were downstairs
- He believes he is the youngest person in the world to have chip implanted
- Chip emits radio-frequency that triggers events like unlocking phones or starting a car

Most parents fear their teenager might get a tattoo or a piercing without their permission.

But technology enthusiast Bryon Wake, 15, injected himself with a microchip in a DIY operation in his bedroom while his unwitting mother and father were downstairs.

The tiny chip – the size of a grain of rice – can be programmed so the schoolboy can control his mobile phone, unlock doors, and even hand out electronic business cards.

The cyborg teenager – who believes he is the youngest person in the world to have the chip implanted – ordered the kit from the United States and went ahead with the procedure despite being warned a medic should help.

He said: 'I didn't tell my parents until three days later. They took it better than expected because they had already told me not to do it.'

'And then when I did tell them I'd done it, they just went with it.'

'Afterwards I had checked it out at the doctor who said it was fine and they were happy.'

'My grandpa is a surgeon and he said that he was proud, and my mum wasn't expecting that at all.'

The chip works by using near field communication (NFC) which emits a low power radio-frequency signature that triggers pre-programmed events like unlocking a phone or starting a car.

So far, Byron, of Martock in Somerset, has been using the chip's ability to unlock his phone automatically and also to control the Bluetooth function to play music from his speakers.

He is also able to send business cards by touching his hand onto other Android user's phones, which will automatically transfer his details.

The New Tactics of Global War

Reflections on the Changing

Balance of Power

In the Final Days of Peace

By Benjamin Baruch and Jeffrey Nyquist

What Nation is like our Great Nation?

And they cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, what nation is like unto this great nation! And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great nation, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! Yet in one hour was she made desolate. Revelation 18:18-19

The Crisis in Ukraine: War or Rumors of War?

“Deception is a state of mind... and the mind of the state.” James J. Angleton, CIA

In August of 2014, one year ago, the geo-political balance of power in our world changed forever. The Western media published reports that unmarked Russian troops had covertly invaded eastern Ukraine. On Russian television, the public had been told an American led coup had toppled the democratically elected government, and that Russian nationals living in the eastern part of the country were now under threat of aggression from the West. Russian propaganda was spinning the crisis as an attempt by America to further isolate Russia, and as a possible next step in the preparation for outright war, in which America planned to destroy Russia.

The crisis in Ukraine no longer merits serious western news reporting, the media would rather focus on the various social conflicts within the country. Removal of the Confederate flag, police shootings of ethnic minorities or Donald Trump's latest gaff are the favorite top stories today and so, the American public has forgotten or has chosen to ignore the first hot-conflict between the world's two super powers since the end of the Cold War.

Yet Policy makers in the West are carefully monitoring the crisis which is now entering its thirteenth month, as it could escalate into an unexpected war. The rhetoric in the East is far too alarming to assume this crisis will simply just go away. Washington Post Columnist Anne Applebaum's, "War in Europe is not a Hysterical Idea," published in August 29, 2014 states, "Russian Parliament member Vladimir Zhirinovsky, a court jester who sometimes says things that those in power cannot, argued on Russian television that Putin should use nuclear weapons to bomb Poland and the Baltic countries, and show the West who really holds power in Europe. Vladimir Putin indulges these comments: Zhirinovsky's statements are not official policy, the Russian president says, but he always 'gets the party going.' A far more serious person, dissident Russian analyst Andrei Piontkovsky, recently published an article arguing that Putin really is weighing the possibility of limited nuclear war." [\[i\]](#)

In the West, such thinking appears to be alarmist or a gross exaggeration of the depth of the conflict, but the reality on the ground presents a far different picture. "Fearing the worst of one another, the U.S. and Russia have pledged to go to war, if necessary, to defend their interests in the Eastern European borderlands and Putin has warned repeatedly, he will use nuclear weapons in any military conflict with the West. Europe today looks disturbingly similar to Europe of just over 100 years ago, on the eve of World War I." [\[ii\]](#)

The UK based Telegraph newspaper reported today that “A third of Russians fear a military attack by the United States while state television tells viewers that the U.S. is intent on surrounding and subjugating Russia, with NATO expansion as the key external threat to the country.” [\[iii\]](#)

The public in the West views war with Russia as impossible and nuclear war, unthinkable. This type of paranoid thinking, last seen in our country during the nuclear arms race of the 1960's, has long since been forgotten. The nation's paradigm today can best be described as one of complacency; everyone knows America is the lone superpower of the world. Our only real challenge is from the terrorists, and they can only confront America through a limited form of asymmetrical war. The average American is more likely to be hit by lightning, than they are to be affected by the risks of a future war. The Cold War has long been over, and in the West, we won. Most Americans also believe Russia is now an ally, and any thought of a possible military conflict with the former Soviet Union, is viewed as absurd.

The Cold War officially ended in 1989 with the collapse of the Soviet Union and the breakup of the Warsaw Pact. Russia and her satellite nations had been tottering near bankruptcy for years, unable to compete with America's economic might, their military had become hopelessly outdated and thus no longer any match against the growing power of the West. The Americans could deliver their smart bombs with GPS precision, and the American eagle ruled the skies in the 1990's without a challenger in sight.

Russia's industrial and manufacturing base had been hollowed out by years of misguided central planning; and so Russia could no longer keep up in the arms race that had been the Cold War. The experts in the West were all quite convinced that America's economic might had exhausted the Soviets, and the firm resolve of the Reagan era had broken their will to continue the fight. Capitalism had proved to the world, both freedom and prosperity could be delivered. America had withstood the challenge of Communism and had prevailed. The lights in the shining City on a Hill had never glowed brighter.

The West was exuberant in those days; capitalism and the American way of life had triumphed, and the spoils of war would be divided among all in the form of the Peace Dividend. The media joined in the triumphant chorus, fanning the national celebration; it was the end of history, or so we were told, and the beginning of a new era of permanent prosperity. There were dissenting voices who warned, all is not well, and reality is not as it appears; but their warnings were marginalized by the mainstream media, or simply ignored. One of these dissenting voices was a Soviet KGB defector named Anatoliy Golitsyn who had defected with his family to the West in 1961. James Angleton called him, "the most valuable defector ever to reach the west."[\[iv\]](#)

Golitsyn published New Lies for Old in 1984, warning America that the Soviet Communists were planning a massive campaign of deception, which would include fake reforms and ultimately even a fake collapse of the Soviet Union, designed to fool the West into thinking the Cold War had ended, and the Soviet threat was now gone. His warnings were dismissed and his allegations that the Communists had deeply infiltrated the United States, both within the private sector, as well as the CIA, the U.S. government and the military were viewed as only a conspiracy theory.

Other voices echoed the same warnings, but they too received at best, an indifferent response in the West. Nobody seemed to care, for the Communists had given up their rotten empire, and that was all that the West needed to know. Any thought that the collapse of Russia was merely a charade and only a clever chess move in a much larger strategic game seemed impossible, implausible; thus the idea was simply derided or completely ignored.

The educated geniuses in the West, who were the best and brightest among us, accepted the collapse of the Soviet Union as spontaneous and authentic. They embraced Russia's new democracy and counseled disarmament. They were hypnotized and nothing could penetrate their understanding, neither criticism nor warnings from abroad. Nothing could break the fever of their victory sickness. The greatest genius, the most passionate argument, the most unanswerable logic could not sway them from their delusions, which would prove too deep-rooted, too thick and gratifying to ever be overcome. What was going to happen at the end of this chess game could not be prevented.

America's shopping mall regime never wanted conflict with Russia or anyone else. Anyone who wrote of a continuing Communist threat was out of bounds. The very concept of an "enemy" threatened the basis of the regime, thereby negating its hedonistic assumptions. This fact had become obvious to Kremlin strategists and sociologists who had studied American cultural changes during the 1960s and 70s. They had worked covertly to promote (through active measures) the social crisis which occurred in America during those years for they saw the weaknesses of America's commercialized society as something which could be exploited, and they exploited these opportunities to the fullest possible extent.

At the beginning of the perestroika reforms in Russia, Nikolay Popov's 1989 essay, "We Are All in the Same Boat," was founded on this point: Russia's new task was to consciously and intentionally eliminate Stalinism so that America would feel free to set aside her nuclear weapons. The Kremlin had long ago understood America's national psychology. They believed America would not ruthlessly exploit her advantage after the fall of the Soviet Union in 1989 or America's stunning Gulf War victory in 1991.

The West preferred shopping and having fun. Politics and war had become the mean little ministers of "a good time." This attempted reversal of history's pattern would in the end, prove fatal, for the only thing holding the West's defensive strata together was anti-communism (i.e., anti-Stalinism). Therefore, as Popov explained, "our main task today, in addition to an honest analysis of our past and an elimination of the remnants of Stalinism ... is to divorce Stalinism from communism in the eyes of the world."

The new Iron Curtain became a curtain of denial constructed by the West; the 'peace dividend' meant more welfare pork in the pork barrel and less defense spending, so the left was satisfied. It also translated into economic exuberance and a climbing stock market. The right was triumphant and self-congratulatory. The deception was perfect. Everyone was bought off, emotionally and materially. The truth did not have one chance in a million.

Over twenty five years have now passed since the fall of the Berlin Wall. The vacuum of power which was created by the collapse of Soviet Union has led the world, rather than to an era of permanent prosperity and the end of history, to the brink of actual war. Russia merely appeared to embrace democracy, and a consumer based economy, but nothing of the sort ever really occurred. Instead, Russia has developed entirely new classes of super weapons, and has armed itself to the teeth.

The reports of the demise of the Supreme Soviet leadership and the Communist party within Russianow appear to have been greatly exaggerated. "What did not disappear in the rubble of the Soviet empire was the KGB. The Russian intelligence service, which traces back to the Russian revolution, became the Federal Security Service, or FSB. In the 21st century, after the ascendancy of Vladimir Putin, a former KGB officer, it regained much of its power." [\[v\]](#)

Benjamin Baruch and Jeffrey Nyquist in their new book, The New Tactics of Global War: Reflections on the Changing Balance of Power in the Final Days of Peace will unveil the truth of what is really happening in Russia, which has never been told to the American people. The truth is a very stubborn thing. It does not care that no one is listening, and it will not just simply go away because we wish it would. We, the authors, are going to reveal the truth to you, so that you can see it for yourself.

We are going to take you inside the mind of the Russian grand strategists who first began to play this chess game of lies and deception almost a hundred years ago. We will unveil their stealth moves for you and we shall do so, one lie at a time. When we have finished our journey together, you will have peered inside the minds of the men who played this evil game, and in so doing, you will have looked within the mind of the beast.

The New Tactics of Global War: Reflections on the Changing Balance of Power in the Final Days of Peace will be released in September, 2015.

BREAK

THE ROLE OF INDIA AND PAKISTAN IN ESTABLISHING THE IMAM MHADI

Bro here is an article from Washington Post; it will inform you about the background of all this:

https://www.washingtonpost.com/world/asia_pacific/clashes-erupt-between-india-and-pakistan-along-disputed-border/2015/08/28/52453d4a-4d6b-11e5-bfb9-9736d04fc8e4_story.html

Now I will tell you what I have gathered about all this throughout the years - to tell you the truth bro, I have been involved with almost every group before accepting Jesus. I have communicated with radical Islamists, separatists, and even Taliban of the bottom-level hierarchy. I have been in Shia Islam also, though I was born in a Sunni Muslim family. You can say that I have known every group closely. Therefore I know the mindsets of all these people, because I have experienced them personally. And I also know why Jesus led me through different roads to finally meet Him at the end. He wanted me to gather some first-hand information from the enemy lines!

Now bro, I'd tell you that India is NOT the only chief culprit in all this warmongering - Pakistan is EQUALLY involved in all this, because it has been their ultimate plan ever since the Partition of India took place. While India wants to get its territory (the now-Pakistan) back; Pakistan is equally hungry to get back the power-seat of Muslims in 'Hind' (Indian Subcontinent). They want to re-establish the Islamic Kingdom in the subcontinent (Muslims ruled for 1000 years in India before the British came there). See the logo of Pakistan Army's intelligence agency (Inter-Services Intelligence aka ISI) below:

Notice that moon and star? And the two swords? You know so much about these symbols already bro..

Now see another picture posted on an unofficial Facebook page of ISI - this is what their ultimate plan for the 'Hind' subcontinent is:

Next, I'll paste an excerpt from the prophecies of an Islamic saint (who was UNDOUBTEDLY hearing from familiar spirits and demons of course). These prophecies have recently become very famous in Pakistan, and many people dwell on them:

"Naimatullah Shah Wali's Predictions – 4 Wars with Hind

Naimatuallah Shah Wali was a Muslim Suffi who predicted 800 years of happenings in future. From the arrival of British Merchants to their departure from Indian Subcontinent, from the creation of Pakistan to breaking of Pakistan and other future wars that will be fought are mentioned with an accuracy of exact year, month and even days. Predictions of Niamatullah Shah Wali were so inspiring and accurate that British Government had abandoned his book and all the printed copies were burnt. Reason of this action was yet another prediction which said, "Rule of British over India would last less than 100 years" and British Government never liked any prophecy that would mention their time of demise. British Rule ended in 1947 after 90 years of ruling over Indian Subcontinent.

According to Niamatullah Shah Wali, India will undergo 4 wars with Pakistan. In the light of his predictions, it is concluded that there has been two such wars since their independence in 1947. Niamatullah mentioned war of 65 would be the first war between India and Pakistan and it would last 17 days. He also predicted that flag bearer of India would die at the negotiations table. Indian Prime Minister, Mr Shastri died in Tashkent due to heart attack.

Niamatullah predicted that the second war with India would break Pakistan and in 71, East Pakistan separated as Bangladesh.

According to Niamatullah Shah Wali, the third war will be a regional war that will take place in the area comprising Chitral, Nangaperbat, Gilgit and Tibet. The war will be based on false accusations and will erupt suddenly. The war will remain undecided but as a result, an internal conflict within India would arise. As a result, whole Hind will undergo a chaos and turmoil.. and that will be start of GhazwatulHind.

GhazwatulHind, the 4th and final battle will be fought and will be a decisive battle. Warriors from the 4 corners would join hands and make an alliance against Hind and will conquer Hind upto the river Ganga. Niamatullah describes this fierce battle will last 6 years (mentioned as 6 months in few verses) and will be devastating for the mankind.

According to other Muslim Saints, the war will assassinate millions and only a person in 6 miles radius would survive to lit a lamp at night. Today we know an estimated power of 100-200 KT Nuclear weapon is nearly the same and it would eliminate life within the area of roughly 6-8 miles diameter. India and Pakistan become Nuclear Powers in year 1998 and both have Nuclear weapons capable of such destruction. Consequently, it wont be a wonder if only one person in 6 miles radius would survive to lit a lamp at night."

"Namat Ullah Shah's portents include the news of a great and conclusive war between the two arch nemesis India and Pakistan, which will last for 6 months. The opening theater of this war will witness Pakistan losing a lot of its land to the Indian forces, these may include Punjab, Lahore, Kashmir, Attock among other domains under Pakistani sovereign. Then, Turkey, China, Iran and Afghanistan will send reinforcements and armed contingents for Pakistan's help. An extraordinarily large armed contingent will come from Kabul to fight along side Pakistan for this holy Jihad and the Muslims will stand decisively triumphant."

(This excerpt was from the website <http://finalwarwithindia.blogspot.com/> - just check out the name, bro - and the site's title is "Islam Final War with India in 2016" - creepy!)

So now you see bro, that the ultimate goal of BOTH India and Pakistan is a big WAR for the recapturing of 'Hind' in its entirety. They'll do their best to 'fake' peace talks and negotiations, but their ulterior motives are so pretty obvious to me and to so many others like me over here now. The armies of BOTH countries are deceiving their own folks, and silently preparing for the BIG thing. Pakistani Army especially has far more nefarious motives than one can imagine. It is a bunch of totally Islam-aka-Satan-controlled people who are bent on WORLD DOMINATION. And considering the fact that Pakistan is the only Muslim country having nukes makes it clear that it is being especially favored by the Devil himself.

Now the last thing I'd like to highlight - the connection of this war 'Ghazwatul Hind' with the reign of the Beast Empire. A line from the above excerpt states: "Turkey, China, Iran and Afghanistan will send reinforcements and armed contingents for Pakistan's help. An extraordinarily large armed contingent will come from Kabul to fight along side Pakistan for this holy Jihad and the Muslims will stand decisively triumphant." Do you sense something here bro? A contingent coming from Kabul! This is the same land from which Islamic scholars say the 'Imam Mahdi's Army' will come from! Imam Mahdi is the awaited 'messiah' of the Muslims and hence the pawn of the antichrist. You may have heard a lot about this Imam Mahdi already, which will be accompanied by a false Jesus as well (too many false Jesuses around the world sigh). The rise of the Imam Mahdi will be the fulfillment of these Bible verses:

1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

(Revelation 6)

Now what I was trying to say is this: watch for the war between India and Pakistan. As soon as that starts, you can be sure of the arrival of the Beast aka Imam Mahdi pretty soon - and this very war will build up into a full-fledged attack on the Middle East itself, as the forces of Mahdi go all the way from India to Jerusalem 'conquering, and to conquer' all along the way.
